Wonderful Escape.

John McCuaig Falls Off Express and Still Lives.

To fall off a train running between 60 and 65 miles an hour and still live, is the experience of John McCuaig of this town.

While returning from Cornwall on Wednesday evening, where he was attending court, Mr. McCuaig fell off the Canada Atlantic express, while running at the rate of between 60 and 65 miles an hour, between St. Polycarpe and Ste. Justine. His wife, who was also a passenger, was an eyewitness of the affair, and immediately gave the alarm. The train was stopped and the unfortunate fellow was found some distance from the track—badly cut up but still living. He was placed on board and brought to Alexandria, where medical assistance was secured. On examination it was found that he was badly cut about the head and his body was severely bruised.

The latest report is that he is doing nicely and hopes are entertained for his recovery.

School Concert.

Interesting Programme to be Presented in Alexander Hall.

The date set for the holding of the concert by the boys of the Separate School is Tuesday evening, Dec. 15th. The arrangements, now in course of completion, promise a unique entertainment, and will take the form of a Christmas ship, along with a musical and literary programme. A feature will be the post office department, under the direction of an experienced official who is arranging to have mail for everyone. Remember every purchaser of a ticket will receive a gift from the ship.

Dec. 15th, that's the date.

Friday's Debate.

Opponents of Preference Win

A large audience gathered in Alexander Hall on Friday evening, to listen to a debate on the resolution, "Resolved that preferential trade between England and Canada, would be beneficial to Canada."

The list of speakers included some of our most talented local orators viz: for the affirmative, Messrs. J. Lockie Wilson and F. T. Costello, for the negative, Messrs. Angus McDonald and A. L. Smith.

Hon. Dr. McMillan occupied the chair, the judges being D. McKay, B.A., S. C. Macdonell and I. B. Ostrom.

As space will not permit an extended report of the arguments adduced pro and con, we will confirm ourselves to the statement that the arguments advanced by the affirmative supporters, were well put, and equally well met.

After a short deliberation at the conclusion of the speeches, the judges awarded the decision to the negative.

Tall Chimney.

The veteran bricklayers, Messrs. John McLaughlin and Finlay McPherson, have completed for Macpherson & Schell, a chimney 85 feet in height containing 48,000 bricks.

These same gentlemen are installing a new 100 horse-power boiler 5 1/2 x 14 for the above named firm, which they purchased from Powers & Co., of Ottawa.

It is a peculiar coincidence, that this is the thirteenth boiler installed by Messrs. McLaughlin & McPherson.

Horses Recovered

Mr. F. A. McRae, Laggan, is a firm believer in advertising. Several weeks ago he had two horses taken from his premises. He scoured the country in search of them with no success. He advertised in the local and Cornwall papers, with the result that he found his lost horses at Cornwall on Saturday, where he went with Chief Hall and identified his property.

The horses, according to the report in Cornwall, came from Mille Roches on the south side of the canal. They evidently were taken there by some party, or parties, and then liberated, owing to fear of detection.

SUCCESSFUL BALL

The dance held in the Fire Hall on Friday evening, by the young men of the town, was a most successful affair. Some forty couples were in attendance, while the music was furnished by Blais' orchestra of Montreal.

Painful Injury

While going to breakfast on Tuesday, Mr. Moses Ryan, of the Grand Union, received a nasty fall, as a result of which, he had his left arm broken, and was otherwise badly shaken up.

Mr. Ryan has much sympathy extended to him, as it is not many months since he had one of his legs badly hurt in a similar manner.

FIRE INSURANCE.

Successful Meeting by the Glengarry Farmers' Mutual on Saturday.

The regular monthly meeting of the Glengarry Farmers' Mutual Fire Insurance Co. was held on Saturday at the Grand Union Hotel, President Clark presiding.

Among the others present were, R. R. Sangster, Wm. Rankin, A. A. McKinnon, D. G. McLennan, and R. J. Pattingale.

The amount of new insurance accepted was between $95,000 and $100,000. Thus the success of this company goes on apace.

Foot-Ball.

Just before going to press, we received a communication from the Secretary of the Dunvegan Foot-ball Club, which we are compelled to hold over, owing to want of space.

NEARLY FATAL

Narrow Escape of Mrs. John McMartin and Family of Cornwall.

Cornwall, December 2nd, 1903.—Mrs. John McMartin, wife of the well known Glengarry contractor, "Jack" McMartin, and daughter of J. A. Macdougall, Esq., Registrar of High Court, Cornwall, with her little family, had a somewhat painful experience, in fact a narrow escape from asphyxiation from coal gas.

The family retired at the usual hour last evening. Between three and four o'clock in the morning, Mrs. McMartin awoke suffering from a feeling of suffocation, and soon realized something was wrong. In her endeavor to arouse the servants and to secure fresh air, she fainted, and almost succumbed to the deadly fumes. She eventually secured help and medical assistance was quickly summoned for herself, children and servants.

The family are to be congratulated on their narrow escape.

WHISKEY DID IT ALL.

On a trap stood an old man. His hair was snowy; his beard was long and white. He had lived two years beyond life's allotted span. Once he was a famous lawyer. He had held crowds spellbound by his eloquence. He was elected a county judge. Then he was sent to the Texas Senate for two terms. He was a man of affairs, highly educated, keen, intelligent. He loved. He married. Eight children were born to him, and there was not a happier family in the West. He trailed his good name in the gutter; he dissipated his sons and daughters; he dissipated his fortune; he became a little better than a tramp, and the explanation of his awful fall is found in four words: "He became a drunkard." The old man stood on the trap. The rays of the morning sun crept into the jail-yard and touched his wrinkled face and massive forehead. He did not look like a murderer or a bad man. You would almost as soon suspect your own father of a crime as that patriarch of murdering a friend for a few paltry dollars. Yet he did it. Listen! He is speaking. He is telling the white-faced crowd of his fall, and the last words that pass from his lips are: "Whiskey did it all." The trap is sprung, and J. L. Gartrell, lawyer, senator, orator, judge, parent patriarch, is shot into eternity.—Irish Temperance League Journal.

ST ELMO

The sacred concert given in the St Elmo Presbyterian Church last Tuesday night, was a rare treat. Mr H Ruthven MacDonald, of Cooke's Church, Toronto, and Mr J W Hinchcliffe of the Western Methodist Church, Ottawa, were the artists, and both sang in magnificent voices. All their selections were grand and it would be hard to discriminate. The duets "Army and Navy," "Saved by Grace" and "The Lord is my Shepherd" were particularly fine.

Mr Hinchcliffe's selections included, "Ount of the Depths," "Christ is All," "Flow Gently Sweet Afton" and were excellently rendered. His singing of "Can a boy forget his mother?" was exquisitely tender and will long be remembered by those who heard it.

Mr MacDonald's selections embraced "The Ninety and Nine," "Alone in the Desert," "Dad's Sweetheart Long Ago," "Tolling Bells" and he sang them all in splendid style. Perhaps his best piece was "Building for Eternity" which he sang in a very touching manner which appealed to the hearts of all.

Mr MacDonald and Mr Hinchcliffe are certainly two grand singers. There is a striking contrast between their voices, Mr MacDonald possessing a fine baritone, with a deep bass compass, and Mr Hinchcliffe a baritone with a fine tenor range, and the two voices blended beautifully. After heavy robust numbers, these gentlemen sang selections of the most tender—a feat which few singers can do. Mr MacDonald also delighted his audience with the recitation, "The Life Boat," which he delivered in fine style.

The accompanists were Mrs MacDonald and Miss De Long, of Ottawa, and their work was particularly good and no doubt aided the singers a great deal.

The St Elmo Guild has given some good concerts, but that on Tuesday night was certainly the best yet, and there was not one selection on the programme to which exception could be taken by the most critical.

The Congregational choir were entertained at the home of Mr and Mrs D C McDougall on Saturday evening.

The Board is to be congratulated in having in my opinion, the best library building in any small village or town in Ontario. The building with site cost about $3,000. It is a brick building with stone foundation, well lighted and fitted with modern equipment. It is said to be equal if not superior to Cornwall Public Library Building, which cost $7,000. BAINSVILLE

The Pointe Mouillee Shooting Club Co has a game reserve on the St Lawrence, near Bainsville, used for fishing and hunting by the members of the club. The greater number of the members are residents of Montreal, some of them, however, hail from different parts of Ontario. The company has spent a good deal of money in acquiring land, in building and other wise to make the locality attractive and useful to its members. A Crown Lease from the Ontario Government gives the company certain rights over two or three hundred acres of marsh land being land covered with water. The company has also obtained leases from the farmers in the locality for the fishing and hunting rights which the owners of the land enjoy under the provisions of the law. These are known as riparian rights. The members of the club make a very free use of this game reserve in the way of hunting and shooting in the appropriate seasons for these sports. The question of the exclusive rights of the Pointe Mouillee Company in the waters covered by their Crown Lease is one which has given rise to a good deal of discussion in the locality. This question came up before Police Magistrate Danis last Friday in the Police Court at Cornwall and was decided in favor of the company. Two men Thomas Carter and E J Marsh, the first a local man and the latter from Toronto, were prosecuted on two charges of trespassing on the Pointe Mouillee Co's sporting territory in October and November last. On the trial before the Police Magistrate the defendants denied the shooting club company's rights but in the result these rights were fully upheld by the conviction of both defendants. Carter being fined $10 and costs, and Marsh $1 and costs.

THE "NEWS"

Announces the most remarkable proposition ever made by a Canadian publication to its readers:

TWO DOLLAR-PAPERS FOR $1.25

By special arrangement, and at heavy cost—justifiable only by the certainty of largely increasing our subscription list—we are enabled to offer our paper and The

a great dollar weekly, for $1.25 per year. This offer is exclusive, and can be made by no other paper, as we have purchased the exclusive rights for this district.

REMEMBER THIS FACT—Every subscriber paying one dollar in advance for our paper will receive The Montreal Weekly Herald for one year for an additional 25c. The expense to us is so great that we can make no deviation from this rule—the money must be paid in advance, and all arrears must be paid.

As a Newspaper.

THE MONTREAL WEEKLY HERALD was established in 1898, and is the second oldest Canadian paper. In its old age it has renewed its youth, and stands in the forefront of Canada's great journals. As a newspaper, it is edited with especial reference to its constituency of readers, who desire a comprehensive summary of the world's news of the week. Everything is viewed from the standpoint of the Canadian who wishes to keep abreast of the times, without having to wade through columns of irrelevant matter. Careful condensation marks The Herald's treatment of every line of news. Do not confuse it with other papers of somewhat similar names. The Herald is a compact paper, not a blanket sheet.

As a Home Paper.

THE MONTREAL WEEKLY HERALD is pre-eminently a paper for The Home. In the first place, nothing is permitted in its columns that cannot be read with profit and instruction by every member of the household. In the second place, it is edited with special reference to matters that interest women. "Madge Merton's" weekly talks with her women readers constitute the most popular department of the kind in any Canadian paper. They are veritable "heart to heart" talks with the women of the Dominion, and are appreciated in thousands of homes. In this department are given Hints to Mothers; time-tested Cooking Recipes; the latest Fashions, illustrated, and a hundred and one topics of feminine interest.

THIS COMBINATION is a great one. Your home paper gives you in full the local news, the local markets and the local gossip. The Montreal Weekly Herald gives you the general news of the world, reports of the great markets, departments of interest to farmers, and, in particular, features of value and interest in The Home. One paper is the complement of the other. They dovetail into each other, and never overlap.

SUBSCRIPTIONS may begin at any time. If your subscription is already paid in advance, and you want The Montreal Weekly Herald at once, send in 25c, and your subscription will start immediately. Address all communications to—

EXHIBIT FOR SPORTSMEN'S SHOW

The Grand Trunk Railway System have shipped their extensive exhibit that will be installed in the International Sportsmen's Show, which is to be held in the Coliseum at Chicago, November 7th to 28th. The exhibit will comprise, in addition to a series of the best pictures depicting scenes along their lines in Canada, including the many districts in the "Highlands of Ontario," on one of the most comprehensive and complete collections of fish native to Canadian waters. In this will be some of the best specimens that have ever been taken of the maskinonge, small-mouthed bass, wall-eyed pike, brook trout, ouananiche, land-locked salmon, etc. This fish exhibit is one that the Grand Trunk has been collecting for the past three or four years, and it is, without doubt the finest in America, not only as to the size and varieties of fishes, but in their unique way of having them mounted. Many anglers have seen this exhibit and speak in the highest terms of the collection.

The space that the Grand Trunk secured at the coming show is 1550 square feet, which will give the company a good opportunity of making a very attractive showing.

OUR CATTLE ABROAD

Significant Success at International Show at Chicago.

IN TREATMENT OF CANADIANS

Chicago Beats St. Louis in Justice and Our Live Stock Exhibits Are Welcomed in the Windy City—Not Afraid of Competition There, Even Though We Sweep the Prize List.

Chicago, Ill., Nov. 30.—"Canada has been getting all the prize money in sight for sheep and swine, and now from the looks of the International Live Stock Exposition exhibits some capital prizes in draft horses, and other lines will go to the Dominion pure bred stock." This was the significant manner in which General Manager W. E. Skinner sized up the situation here, with reference to Canada's chance to carry away some of the hundreds of big cash prizes offered for the best product of the live stock industry. More than a million and a half of dollars are represented by the fine display of the thirteen thousand separate animals on exhibition here.

Canadian Marvels of Progress.

Continuing, General Manager Skinner said: "The exhibits from Canada are marvels of progress in the live stock industry. Without the Dominion contesting for these premiums we of the States would consider all awards faulty because they had not been won in competition with the blooded stock of the alert men of British North America. To that end the International Live Stock Exposition recognizes the herd and stock books of Canada. It is right. This is no compliment to the Dominion, but merely in line with expert opinion in promoting the breeding of the best blooded animals. Why the World's Fair at St. Louis ignored the Canadian stud and her books I can't say. However, there can be no larger exhibition of live stock on the western hemisphere than is to be seen here. If St. Louis wished to antagonize this great Canadian factor in the development of pure blood animals, the responsibility rests with them. For the International Live Stock Association does not propose to handicap such a lively competitor for all that is best in the live stock business.

Action to Remove Restrictions.

"I may say that we are even taking steps to remove some of the restrictions of the customs of the United States against the entry of Canadian live stock. A free competition is what we want, and what we live stock men prefer to accord Canadian breeders. I may say that I am now in correspondence with Mr. W. D.
Platt, of Hamilton, one of the leading shorthorn breeders of Canada, relative to this very proposition. This is an annual gathering of the foremost breeders of blooded stock from all parts of the world. If Canada can carry off the big money, as she has been doing in the past, we say good. Let every tub stand on its own bottom."

This is the tribute of General Manager Skinner to the modern methods of the Canadian live stock breeders and the industry generally.
Incidentally it may be mentioned that Mr. Skinner is the general agent of the Union Stock Yards of Chicago.

Judges From Canada.

The Canadian end of the exhibits is so heavy that the Exposition concedes to the Dominion her share of the judges. In sheep T. H. Shore, of Glenworth, Ont., judges Cotswold;
W. H. Beattie, Wilton Grove, Ont.,
Lincoln; in draft horses, Robert Ness, of Horwick, Que., judges Clydesdale, and Robert Graham, of Claremont, Ont., shire and Belgian.
This is another feature where the contrast between St. Louis' treatment of Canada and Chicago's shines. Canadians assert that they can't get their proportion of judges in St.
Louis. This point is nearly as important as recognition of stud and herd books, which St. Louis arbitrarily refuses to concede. The discussion on this point is being carried on very warmly over the grounds of the International Exposition, with Canadians showing their resentment very freely.

Robert Ness observed yesterday:
"The Canadian display here is most satisfactory, especially in sheep and swine. Draft horses, too, we are doing very well in, and there are some teams to be shown from Canada that any breeder might be proud of. The Dominion is receiving a very fair share of attention at this gathering, and here are to be found the big live stock fanciers of the whole world."

Swine and Sheep.

The judging of swine and sheep will commence Monday, and each day the sales of the prize stock will be held. Here is where Canada shines, for it is this inducement of fancy prizes for the premium winning stock that induces the men of the Dominion to enter a foreign country and contest for blue ribbons, gold medals and cash prizes.

John Miller of Balsam, Ont., was the only Canadian farmer's son entered in the stock judging contest of Saturday. This contest was for the sons of farmers residing in the province of Ontario, States of Ohio and Illinois. This is one of the practical features of the big fair, and on this subject is said to rest the future standard of excellence. Ontario has paid more attention to this branch than any state in the union, and her sons are said to be remarkably proficient. In this instance Miller, her representative, ranked with the first.
Some Canadians Present.

Some of the Canadians present with exhibits are: William Martin, Winnipeg, cattle; Lloyd-Jones Bros., Burford, Ont., sheep; J. C. Hamner,
Brantford, sheep (Shropshire); John Campbell, Woodville (Shropshire);

Richard Gibson, Delaware, Ont., sheep (Shropshire); Edgar Bros., Las-is, Ont., Southdowns; John Kelly, Shakespeare, Hampshire; R. H.
Harding, Thorndale, Forest; J. C.
Ross, Jarvis, Ont., Cotswold; Elgin
F. Park, Burgessville, Ont., Cota-wold; J. T. Gibson, Denfield, Ont., Lincoln; Graham Walker, Iderton,
Ont., Lincoln; A. W. Smith, Maple Lodge, Leicester; John Orr, Galt, Leicester; Graham Bros., Claremont, Clydesdale; Robert Davies, Toronto.
Clydesdale; Hodgkinson & Tisdale, Beaverton, Clydesdales. In several cases these gentlemen have dozens of exhibits in different classes and have more than a car load of animals on the grounds.
Monday and Tuesday some handsome sums will be paid out here for prize stock, much of the bonus money going to Canadians.

In 1896, the Canadian Post Office handled 124,342,900 letters, or 24 per head of the population. In 1903, business activity had so much increased that the Post Office handled in the year ending June 30th, 234,991,000 letters, or 41 per head of the population. In the same time the Post Office savings deposits increased from $28,932,929 to $44,255,826.

NOT A SCANDAL IN SIGHT.

If, as the Conservatives affirm, there is going to be an election, it will be gone into without fear by the Government.

This should be a comfortable contest to go into, as there are no scandals to explain and the country is prosperous and pleased. The age of Government scandals seemed to pass away with the Conservative downfall in 1896. The administration which went out then took with it a lot of bad smelling practices which had been growing worse for eighteen years. The party which came in seven years ago cleaned up the departments, hung some new mottoes on the council chamber, and proceeded to live up to them. It may be that governments, like men, begin to die the day they are born. If that be true, the Laurier Government still enjoys a healthy youth. There are no bad spots in sight as yet. It has lived up to its first intentions, and stands to-day ready to appeal to the country with a clear record and high hope of the people's approval.

The present Premier is known to be a man above reproach in the matter of public morality. No amount of libellous insinuation has been able to shake the belief of Canadians—French and English—that in Sir Wilfrid Laurier they have a man whose course is guided by his sense of what is best for the whole Canadian people. He has selected advisers in every respect worthy of their posts as the heads of great departments of government. He has secured efficiency in all branches of the public service. The result is that to-day he is at the head of a strong party, there are no scandals, there is no one to protest, and the country is proud of its administration.

Of course there have been criticisms of the Laurier administration, and there have been accusations made against it. But there has been nothing proven that would cause the Canadian people to have doubts about the probity of the men to whom power has been given. There may have been measures adopted for which absolute unanimous approval could not be expected. Cabinet ministers are human, like the rest of us, and even to err is human. But the administration has been intelligent as well as honest. There have been no great mistakes made. The country is prosperous. There are evidences of Government-encouraged progress on every hand. People are pouring in, attracted by the prosperity and possibilities of this country which have been skillfully made known to the outside world. Both Canada and the Government are riding on the crest of the wave. There is no evidence of a break in the case of either.—Montreal Herald.

THE PROPER SORT OF CAMPAIGN FUND.

The Toronto News tells us that prior to the last Dominion election, eight or ten prominent citizens of Toronto, of Conservative leanings, met together for the purpose of considering the political situation, with particular reference to the corruption then, as now, rampant. As an outcome of this meeting, a fund of $16,673 was raised for the purpose of enabling Conservative candidates in Ontario, who might not be over-supplied with funds of their own, to put up a fight. Those who received contributions from this source were required to sign a pledge that none of the money allotted them would be used for corrupt purposes, and that they would in all respects endeavor to conduct a fair election. Still later, when the general Provincial election came in sight, Mr. Whitney asked this same organization to assume charge of the campaign fund for the Ontario campaign, and $28,895 was raised and drawn upon on the same conditions as in the case of the Dominion election. At the end of the Provincial contest, a surplus of $8,737 remained in the treasury.

Some are charitable enough to think that all the money spoken of was contributed solely for the purpose of elevating the standard of political morality; but, as Saturday Night has said, there will be difficulty in convincing the people of the good faith of the promoters until the names of the eight or ten originators of the scheme are made public. For our part, we think it extremely unlikely that in Toronto—the chosen stamping ground of corporation grafters and schemers of all sorts—eight or ten men, either of Conservative or Reform leanings, could be found who would put up such sums as are mentioned solely for the public good. There are individuals in this city who would put up in a single cheque more than the amounts mentioned, in order to secure, on a considerable number of members of Parliament, a grip which could be realized upon in the form of franchises, railway subsidies, or concessions that might be worth ten times the amount of the contribution; and what greater hold could one of these clean skaters ask than that which would be secured by the payment of the election expenses of successful candidates, for a member of Parliament whose election expenses are paid out of a central fund is not the representative of the people whose votes are cast for him, but is the bond servant of the man, or company of men, who supply the sinews of war.

The Sun is a firm believer in the necessity and propriety of election funds. But the sort of fund it believes in is not one contributed in sums of thousands each by big financiers who keep in the background. It is one contributed in quarters, half dollars, and dollars by the people who do the voting as well as the paying. Until the system is inaugurated; until the necessary expenses of a campaign are borne by popular subscriptions, in small amounts, raised by the people in whose behalf the campaign is presumably fought, we shall not have, and will not deserve to have, the sort of Government we are all theoretically in favor of—government by the people and for the people.—Farming Sun.

THE FEELING IN CANADA.

London Express and Mr. Edward Farrer Do Not Agree—Program of New Imperial Labor Federation.

London, Nov. 30.—(C.A.P.)—Edward Farrer, writing in The Contemporary Review, says the French Canadians are dead against the new Imperialism, and 75 per cent. of the English-speaking Canadians will refuse to carry the burden of Imperial armaments.

He quotes Sir Charles Tupper and Mr. Borden in support of the view that both political parties in Canada are not satisfied with the preference to Canadian wheat; but in almost every line affected by the intercolonial preference Canada does a bigger trade with the city of Buffalo than with South Africa and Australia combined.

The theory of the new Imperialism was an unsafe doctrine, for once a colony always a colony. Canada is American now, and after the coming elections in the United States, New England and Minnesota will force the Republic to give better commercial terms to Canada.

He says: "Canada's destiny is independence. We are satisfied with the present existing British connection, but we are not going to allow the new Imperialism to degrade us nor break the faith and traditions of the New World to serve us as mercenaries in the Old."

Canada Favors Chamberlain. The Daily Express says the strong feeling throughout the Dominion in favor of Mr. Chamberlain is reflected in a striking manner by the principal organs of the Canadian press, and quotes The Mail, Toronto News, Globe, The Montreal Star and Witness and The Ottawa Citizen.

The Times publishes a letter at the request of Mr. Chamberlain from the chairman of the Ebb Vale Iron and Steel Company regarding the dumping of German steel into England. He says the English industry is right up to date, but that the fault lies in the one-sided free trade, and the only remedy for the perilous condition is retaliation and preferential trade with the colonies.

Program of Labor Party. The Imperial Labor Federation party program includes adult suffrage, payment of members of Parliament, the abolition of the House of Lords, the eight-hour working day, the municipalization of the drink traffic, of hospitals and infirmaries, and the nationalization of lands, mines and railways.

The African Review says that Riponite, the new explosive, called after the Canadian inventor, is eight times more powerful than dynamite. H. Forster, M.P., Junior Lord of the Treasury, says that the Government is determined not to be pushed out of office, and no vote on the fiscal question will be taken until after the elections.

EMERALD WRECKAGE

Washed Ashore Two Miles East of Gull Light.

IS IDENTIFIED BY FRIENDS.

Scarcely Any Doubt Now That the Schooner Emerald Has Been Lost—Capt. Van Vlack Last Spoke the Emerald on Sunday, Nov. 15, and Was Saved in Return—Night Was Dirty.

Port Hope, Nov. 30.—Capt. Williams of Toronto, and Capt. Woodcock of Fesserton, two lifelong friends of Capt. McMaster of the missing schooner Emerald, came here yesterday from Toronto and searched the shore near this town. About one mile east of Gull Lighthouse they found part of the schooner. The shutter of a cabin window and the top of a provision box were positively identified as portions of the missing vessel. The two captains fear she has been lost with all on board.

Last Faint Hops Gone.

Toronto, Nov. 30.—The last faint vestige of hope touching the safety and well being of the schooner Emerald has been destroyed. Yesterday a party composed of marine men, friends of Capt. McMaster, went down to Cobourg by the early morning train to examine the wreckage reported to have been washed ashore at that point, and their inspection sounded the death knell of the hopes that members of the family, and a large number of anxious friends, have been half-heartedly clinging to. Water sodden and defaced by exposure though they were, the fragments of wreckage conveyed their own ominous and fateful significance to eyes familiarized to the sight of the Emerald, and there is no doubt remaining in the minds of any member of the party as to the connection the driftwood bears to the disappearance of the ill-starred schooner.

What had drifted ashore was a portion of a cabin, and the color and graining of the wood are identical with those of the Emerald's cabin. Not only is there the verdict of the Toronto party to strike conviction home, but the testimony of Cobourg and Port Hope mariners who have seen the Emerald gives confirmation. They state positively that the pieces of wreckage formed a portion of the craft's cabin.

Evidence of Schooner's Fate.

The party returned to Toronto in the afternoon, bringing the melancholy evidence of the schooner's fate along with them.

Other local marine men will have the chance to look over the driftwood, but there is scarcely any ray of hope that such further inspection will bode anything but ill.

It is now a fortnight since the Emerald was due at the dock of the Toronto Electric Light Company with her cargo of 700 tons of slack. About a week passed after her non-appearance before any great apprehension was aroused.

Captain Van Vlack, as the last man to discern the missing craft, was pined with questions, but he has little to tell. About 5.30 p.m. on Sunday, Nov. 15, a time when dusk was fast merging into night, he dimly perceived the Emerald, about nine miles out from Charlotte, from the steam barge Van Allen. Captain McMaster, a bluff, hearty type of skipper, had set sail from Charlotte before him that afternoon, with a laughing remark about clearing out while the wind was fresh, so as to save tug dues. As the Van Allen passed the Emerald, she saluted, and the latter returned the salute. That is all Captain Van Vlack has to say touching his last sight of the ill-fated craft. It was a dirty night and there was a sufficiently high sea running to jeopardize the Emerald's safety in the event of any mishap to her spars.

RUSSO-JAP WAR ANTICIPATED.

War Correspondents Arranging to Monitor in Japan or Manchuria.

London, Nov. 30.—The prolongation of the Russo-Japanese negotiations is accompanied by purchases of coal and military preparations on both sides. An outbreak of hostilities is expected at Fleet street, where war correspondents are making arrangements for wintering in Japan or Manchuria. War is also expected by many officers in the two services here, and the belief is commonly expressed that Japan will win on land and sea, owing to her superior fighting power in ships and armies and shorter lines of food supply.

Hotelkeeper Asphyxiated.

Toronto, Nov. 30.—Albert Myers, general storekeeper and proprietor of an hotel in Uffington, Muskoka, was found dead in bed at the Hub Hotel about 9.30 Saturday morning. He retired Friday night, and when he did not appear Saturday morning an employe of the hotel broke open the door and found the room full of gas and the jet open. W. W. Cook, the proprietor, told him of the danger of the gas jet, and it is supposed Mr. Myers turned it off and then unconsciously turned it on again. Dr. Elliott was called, and said that the deceased had been dead for half an hour before the body was found.

Suspended for Six Months.

London, Nov. 30.—The Board of Trade inquiry into the stranding of the British steamer Monterey, off the Island of Miguelon, on July 15, has resulted in the suspension of Captain Williams' certificate for six months.

One Hundred Lives Were Lost.

FOR HIS MISSPENT LIFE.

Daniel McDonald of Toronto Attempts to Commit Suicide.

Toronto, Nov. 30.—Dan McDonald, a tobaccoist, at 274 Queen street west, shot himself through the chest, within half an inch of the heart, on Saturday afternoon at two o'clock. The tragedy occurred at the Cornell Building, at the rooms of McDonald's friend, Lesslie, to whom he confided his intention and who endeavored to dissuade him. Lesslie left the room for a moment, and during his absence the man shot himself. McDonald had been drinking heavily for the past two weeks, and expressed great remorse for what he called his wasted life. The wounded man was taken the St. Michael's Hospital, where the bullet was removed. McDonald is the son of a once prosperous farmer at Woodville, Ont., who, when he died, left him a good estate.

This morning McDonald is doing as well as can be expected, and is said to stand a chance of recovery.

VERDICT ON GODDARD'S DEATH.

De Lothiniere Jury Suggests Inquiry Into Action of I.C.R. Employes.

Quebec, Nov. 30.—The verdict of the coroner's jury which investigated the death of Engineer Goddard in an accident on the I. C. R. at De Lothiniere station was to the effect that the accident was due to the negligence of the fireman, Charland, who closed the switch for the main line without locking it, and the jury are of opinion that the Federal authorities ought to make a very severe inquiry in order to ascertain the manner by which the employes of the Drummond section of the Intercolonial fulfill their duty.

Another Hunter Killed.

Winnipeg, Nov. 30.—While moose hunting Saturday in Portage la Prairie district, a young farmer named Albert Coates received fatal injuries from a bullet fired by his companion named Moffatt. Coates had just killed a moose, and Moffatt coming up shortly afterwards saw Coates beside the animal and fired.

At the Mercy of Typhoid.

Butler, Pa., Nov. 30.—Since the 15th of September this town has had over 1,300 cases of typhoid and 15 deaths. One death was reported Saturday, and new cases continue to develop. The State Board of Health issued a statement, in which they say the cause is the pollution of the drinking water.

GAMEY LIBE SUITS

Barrister McEvoy Suing The London Free Press.

DAMAGES ARE LAID AT $10,000

Mr. McEvoy is also suing Mr. R. R. Gamey M.P.P., and Mr. A. W. Wright, Conservative Organizer, Each For Similar Amounts—The Libels Claimed of Arise Out of the Famous Gamey Investigation

London, Nov. 30.—Three actions for damages for alleged libel, arising indirectly out of the Gamey investigation, may be heard at an early date in the courts of the land.

The plaintiff in each of these cases is John M. McEvoy, barrister, of this city, who was one of the counsel of the Government in the investigation, and the amount claimed in each instance is $10,000.

The London Free Press Printing Co. is named as the defendant in one of the actions, notice of which has already been served. It is alleged that The Free Press of a recent date contained a telegraphic report, throwing suspicion on Mr. McEvoy, in connection with the disappearance of the leaves of the Crossin cash book at the time of the investigation.

R. R. Gamey, M.P.P., is the defendant in another of the cases, and Alex. Wright, the organizer for the Conservative party in the province, is the defendant in the other. The actions against these parties are based on statements made, in speeches by them, also implicating Mr. McEvoy in the mutilation of the cash book.

VICIOUS ATTEMPT TO KILL.

Quebec Couple Escape Death to See Barn Burned to Ground.

Montreal, Nov. 30.—At the residence of Frank Miller, Roxham, Quebec, a vicious attempt at murder was made about 7 o'clock Saturday morning. A rap was heard at the door and Mr. Miller arose and opened it, when a shot was fired by someone outside. It passed through the panel of the door and lodged in the ceiling. Mr. Miller, who luckily escaped injury, closed the door, locked it and ran upstairs to procure his rifle. In the meantime his wife rushed to the window to watch for the assailants, when she was shot at, but fortunately the shot missed her, though it struck the glass close beside her head. A third shot was fired at Mr. Miller while upstairs, but lodged in the wall. When Mr. Miller returned downstairs he was amazed at seeing his barn on fire. He rushed to the barn, but was too late. All he saved was three horses and one cow. The rest of his large stock perished along with his farm implements and the products of a bountiful harvest.

MAY BE BIG STRIKE.

Dominion Coal and Steel Workmen Hand Out an Ultimatum.

Sydney, N.S., Nov. 30.—J. H. Plummer, manager of the Dominion Coal and Steel Co., has rejected the proposals of the Provincial Workmen's Association. The men accepted the general reduction of wages, but asked that the cut of five per cent. be not made in the case of the laborers. The company refused to agree to any proposals. The men have given the manager until Tuesday to reconsider his decision, and if he does not come to terms, then a strike will probably be called. The 5,000 coal miners in Cape Breton may also go out in sympathy with the steel men.

WINDSOR ROADHOUSE MURDER.

Man Dies From Result of Blow From Billiard Cue.

Windsor, Nov. 30.—John Reddins of Maidstone Cross, died at Hotel Dieu here Saturday morning. His death is said to be the result of a blow on the head with a billiard cue at a roadhouse near the city three weeks ago. There is a large indentation in the top of the man's skull. An operation was performed, and a clot of blood removed from the brain, but the patient's life could not be saved. The man accused of hitting Reddins is across the line, and the police department of this city refuse to divulge his name.

AWFUL LOSS OF LIFE.

Several Hundreds of Fishing Junks Go Down Before Typhoon.

Victoria, B.C., Nov. 30.—Advices were received from South China, by the Athenian, of the loss of thousands of lives as a result of the destruction of several hundred fishing junks in a typhoon, off Canton. The havoc was awful when the gale swept down on the Chinese vessels.

Canada's Attitude.

Paris, Nov. 30.—Delegate Miller of Canada, who is here with the British M.P.'s visiting the members of the French Arbitration Board, in a speech referred felicitously to the bonds uniting Canada and France.

Especially important is attached here to Mr. Miller's words, because of the suggestion they contained that the British colonies might not accept the operation of the Anglo-French arbitration treaty in questions directly affecting them.

Woodstock, Nov. 30.—News was received in the city Saturday morning of the unfortunate death of Harvey Readhead, son of Edmond Readhead, of Bond's Corners, who was killed in the Canadian Pacific Railway at Swift Current, Man., on Thursday evening last.

WINTERING BEES.

An Apiculturist Reviews Conditions Necessary to Success—Ideal Bee Cellar.

In successful bee-keeping, the hive, the strain as well as variety of bee, management at all times, is a necessary consideration, and the bee-keeper who can view with comparative indifference competition. But the bee-keeper can only be truly master of the situation when he has given the fullest consideration to the "wintering problem."

The wintering problem is a solved problem for bee-keepers; we can winter bees with as great certainty as any other stock, writes R. P. Holtermann, Brant Co., Ont. In fact the bee-keeper who is content to bring hives out of winter quarters with bees in them, has a purpose and ambition lower than he should have. I have some 400 colonies of bees to winter, and in wintering, the first question, I ask myself is, what is my aim in wintering? To bring colonies out alive? Surely, but much more. To bring not only colonies, but individual bees through winter with the least loss of vitality and at the expense of the least consumption of stores.

How is this to be accomplished? First, every colony should have a laying or rather a fertilized queen. There should be bees enough in each hive to withstand the cold of winter; a less number of bees can be wintered inside than out.

Having the bees and queen, the next important consideration is the stores. They should have well-ripened honey or granulated sugar syrup. Plenty of this should be given as soon as the brood hatches from the combs, generally by September 20th, and in every case before settled cold weather. During winter the bees should be left entirely undisturbed. Honey abstracts moisture from the atmosphere, and when the bees cluster or on the stores and keep them warm, this is prevented. It is well then to so contract the hive in accordance with the numerical strength of the colony that the warmth from the cluster keep the stores from absorbing moisture. Any one interested in bee-keeping and bee-keepers, laments to see hives in September and October with wide open entrances, and the bees still on the hives. Economy begins right here; remove the supers, contract the hive with the least displacement of the order of the combs in the brood chamber, and contract the entrance of a sting colony to 4 or 6 inches.

If wintered outside, a colony should have not less than 25 pounds of stores for winter and spring, if in the cellars, less will answer, although bees can use the remaining stores to immense advantage in spring. An 8-frame hive should weigh 55 to 60 pounds; if it weighs fifty, I should leave them unless the combs are old, therefore heavy, and there is much pollen in the combs, reducing the amount of honey. This article is not supposed to treat upon the matter of feeding bees for winter; however, a proper mixture is granulated sugar 2 parts, water 1 part by measure boiled to make a syrup and fed rapidly. For outside winter, the packing should be dry forest leaves; chaff draws mice, and sawdust is too compact. Four inches underneath, six or eight at the sides, and 12 to 14 inches above the left half of the latter, added after settled cold weather. The packing should be put in firmly, but not too compactly.

My practice has been to allow the foul air laden with carbonic acid gas and moisture to pass off at the top of the hive, slowly passing through the packing.

Keep Them Dry and Clean.

Do your best to make the lane through which the cows must come to the stable at milking time dry and clean. Cattle do not enjoy wading through mud a foot deep, and it is not well for them to do either. Clean feet afford every cow comfort. Comfortable cows give the most milk and that which is richest.

Variety of Snow Crystals.

Nature's infinite variety is well illustrated in the collection of photographs of snow crystals made during the past 20 years by Mr. W. A. Bentley of Vermont. He has now more than 1,000 photographs of individual crystals, and among them no two are alike.

CANADA DESIRED IT

Hon. Mr. Foster Delivers His Speech on Preference.

FARMERS NEED NOT FEAR.

Germany Had Right Through Over the Preferential Tariff Policy of Canada—Disagreeable Surprise Over the New Zealand Preference—Varying Opinions By Organized Labor Bodies—Canada's Position.

London, Nov. 28.—(C.A.P.)—Hon. George E. Foster made his first London address yesterday. He said it was not possible to have reciprocity between Britain and the colonies on the free trade basis. Canada desired the preference earnestly, and it would attract more emigrants from America. Under the present arrangements 2,000,000 able Britons had been lost to the Empire in less than twenty years. The colonies, as consumers of British goods, compare with other countries as 20 to 1.

Important Army Order.
The Army Office has issued an order that in future all frozen mutton supplied to the army shall come from the British colonies only.

On one of the leading morning papers of London, two writers have been compelled to leave because they refused to write in support of Chamberlain's policy.

German Invasion of Britain.

A prominent German manufacturer says that German manufacturers so strongly believe in the success of Mr. Chamberlain that negotiations are already on foot to purchase land in this country so as to be ready to lay down plants in the event of hostile duties being imposed against German goods.

Mr. Wyndham's View.

George Wyndham, speaking at Edinburgh yesterday, said in the matter of manufactured articles, he would rather see England the fountain than the sink. He would prefer to do a brisk business with his brothers over the seas and unify the Empire than to exist as islanders on the suzerainty of other countries. He said the free traders were losing ground in their constituencies.

Kent and Sussex farmers in session at Tunbridge Wells yesterday endorsed Chamberlain's fiscal policy.

Capt. Williams, in command of the Monterey, stranded off Newfoundland, lays the blame partly on the French officials and the strong undercurrent. The fog signals were not given, owing to the lack of coal in the lighthouse.

Mr. Sykes, Medical Health Officer of St. Pancras, declares that asphalt is the most healthy street paving.

Farmers Need Not Fear.

The Hon. T. A. Bragge, addressing his constituents at Rye yesterday, said that farmers need not be anxious that Chamberlain's policy would raise the cost of agricultural machinery.

The Parliamentary Committee of the Trades Union Congress contradicts Chamberlain's assertion that the condemnation of protection is by leaders and not by the rank and file.

The African World announces that the first South African blast furnace for pig iron opened in February wants the Transvaal Government to concede a bounty after the example of Canada.

Sir John Colomb, M.P., speaking at the National Union Conservative Association meeting yesterday, said that Britain should be careful in giving a preference to see what she got in return.

A new labor party has been formed to support Imperial preferential trade. It is known as the Imperial Labor Federation.

Makes Germans Mad.

The Berlin Tages-Zeitung attacks the German Government for its weakness in dealing with the preferential tariff policy of Canada. The paper says Germany must play with the utmost rigor the game against Canada, South Africa and New Zealand. New Zealand's preference has created the most disagreeable surprise throughout Germany. The Zeitung says it is impossible to ascertain the damage done to Germany.

DEFENDS LANSLOWNE.

Premier Balfour Speaks, and Blames Liberal Government For Deliberate Policy of Starving the Army.

London, Nov. 28.—Premier Balfour, presiding at the annual banquet of the United Service Club last night, delivered a speech which was devoted entirely to the reforms instituted by the War Office and which avoided the fiscal question. He said he hoped that the War Office Advisory Committee would quickly evolve a satisfactory result from its investigations. Mr. Balfour defended the Secretary of State for War, who, he said, had to face a more complex problem than that now before the War Minister of any other nation, on account of the vast scope of British territory.

He blamed the Liberal predecessors of the present Government for their deliberate policy of starving the army, which policy had resulted in the difficulties experienced in the South African war, notwithstanding the efforts of the present Government, which did its utmost to bring the army up to an efficient standard. He contended that the army as framed by the Unionist Government operating through Lord Lansdowne and Lord Wolseley, had performed a feat in South Africa that no nation had ever attempted, or had ever carried out, but, he said, no enthusiastic gratitude had been displayed to those who were responsible for this result. If the army in the condition in which it had been left by Lord Rosebery's Administration, said the Premier, had to go through the South African campaign, it would have met with inevitable disaster.

Mr. Balfour said it was not his intention to apologize, because he did not consider that an apology was necessary, but when he found Sir Henry Campbell-Bannerman and Lord Rosebery denouncing the present Government's military policy and thought of their own conduct of military affairs, he "felt his gorge rise." He thought that for very shame the members of the Rosebery Government would have preserved a discreet silence. He did not wish to minimize the magnitude of the miscalculation which had been made in South Africa, but it was a miscalculation of which the whole military profession was alike guilty, if guilty was the word, and it was not due to the maladministration of the War Office.

In regard to the future, Premier Balfour said he did not believe that a large army was required for home defence. The great military problem was defence of the large Indian frontier against the great, and he was glad to think, friendly Empire of Russia. For that reason he emphatically replied to those who wanted Lord Kitchener in London at the head of the army that the Himalayas was where the General ought to be.

In conclusion, the Premier maintained that conscription never had been and never could be used to defend outlying possessions. In the ultimate resort Great Britain must depend upon the free will of a free people.

LIVE STOCK AT CHICAGO.

Domestic Leads in the Number and Quality of Their Animals—Canadian Entries Number 2,175.

Chicago, Nov. 28.—Canadians are much in evidence around the big pavilion where the International Live Stock Exposition opens to-day. Hundreds of stalls hold the fine animals from all parts of the Dominion, and the Maple Leaf and the Union Jack are gracefully entwined amid the decorations. While Ontario and Manitoba have the largest number of exhibits from Canada, the Dominion generally is well represented. The sheep of Canada are here in the largest number, but carriage and harness horses, heavy draught animals and blooded cattle are well represented from Canada.

Over 13,000 Exhibits.

In the number of animals and in their high-bred quality, exporters freely admit the Dominion leads. There are over 13,000 exhibits from all parts of the world. W. S. Ferguson of Scotland, who is here to judge the bullocks, goes hence to the Guelph show to act in that capacity. Many of the exhibits here are to be sent to Guelph, and many of the officials from other countries will go with the crowd to Guelph following the close here next week.

Hon. Mr. Dryden, Hon. Sydney Fisher, Mr. Hodson, and other Canadian officials are expected to participate in the opening to-day. Many Governors of states are here and live stock associations from many sections of the world will hold meetings during the Exposition. The Secretary of Agriculture for the United States is here, and said last night that he expected to be in Guelph with several other American officials. He added that his inspection of the Canadian animals filled him with amazement. He knew Canadian breeders were alert, but he did not think they were so far in the lead of the boasted blooded hardy stocks of the States.

The Canadian Entries.

Toronto, Nov. 28.—As representing the Dominion Shorthorn Breeders' Association, there left this morning for the western metropolis President William Linton of Aurora, Robert Miller of Stouffville, Arthur Johnston of Greenwood, W. D. Platt of Hamilton, W. G. Pettit of Freeman, and Henry Wade, secretary of Toronto.

The grand total of entries on all stock to be shown on the hoof is smaller than in 1902, but the difference is almost all in fat sheep. The total figures of the exhibits are promised for this and last year are:

	1903.	1902.
Breeding Cattle.....	831	898
All-fat steers.....	249	215
Breeding sheep.....	384	877
Fat sheep.....	248	637
Breeding swine.....	348	361
Fat swine.....	115	95

Grand totals.....2,175 2,583

Draught Horses.

There is an entry list of 418 in draught horses and the best of types are expected. Canadian entries are: Clydesdales—Graham Bros., Claremont, Ont.; 6; J. J. Davidson, Balsam, Ont.; 3; Robert Davies, Toronto; 6; Hodgkinson and Tisdale, Beaverton, 3.

Shires—Morris and Wellington, Fonthill, Ont., 2.

Prize Cattle Killed.

Crown Point, Ind., Nov. 28.—In a blinding snowstorm here Thursday, a valuable herd of Shorthorn cattle, consigned from Ohio to Chicago, where they were to be exhibited at the live stock show, were killed. The loss is estimated at $50,000.

Protest at the Soo.

Sault Ste. Marie, Nov. 28.—A protest was filed yesterday with T. H. Murray, registrar of the High Court of Justice here, against the election of C. N. Smith to the Legislature. General charges of all kinds of bribery, corruption and the use of undue influences are made, and disqualification is asked as well as unseating. The petitioners are Thomas Johnston, T. A. Hand and J. S. Mullin.

50 Boats Frozen Up.

Syracuse, N. Y., Nov. 28.—Fifty boats on the sixty mile level of the Erie Canal were caught in the cold wave, and are frozen in. They contain $1,000,000 worth of merchandise, principally lumber and coal. The State tug is at work east of Syracuse attempting to break up the ice.

WAS HANGED AT 8.02

Frith, Who Was Cool and Collected, Made No Confession.

HOW HE MURDERED BAILEY.

Story of the Cold-Blooded Murder of June 27 at Royal Navy Yards at Esquimaux, B.C.—Told Police Constable That He Killed Bailey—Murderer and Victim Members of Same Masonic Lodge.

Victoria, B.C., Nov. 28.—Alfred Frith was hanged at 8.02 yesterday morning by Hangman Radcliffe. The arrangements were carried out in perfect order. Frith was cool and collected. He made no confession.

Story of the Murder.

Alfred James Henry Frith murdered Frederick James Bailey, first-class naval storekeeper at the Royal Navy yard at Esquimaux, on the morning of Saturday, June 27, five months ago. Frith had been discharged from the naval yard, where he had been employed as a subordinate of Bailey, and told friends that he believed Bailey had been undermining him. Frith was preparing to remove with his family to Vancouver, and had asked Bailey for some packing cases. They had gone to the storehouse in the naval yard to get these, and after putting some outside the door at one end—a door which looked on the inside—they were proceeding toward the other door through an alley of stacked up ropes, stores, etc., Bailey in the lead, when Frith drew a revolver, a heavy bull-dog of 38 calibre and shot Bailey down from behind, the bullet entering at the base of the skull and scattering Bailey's brains. Leaving the corpse in a pool of blood in the storehouse, Frith locked the door, threw the key away and walked down to the naval wharf, where he threw the revolver into the harbor. It sunk in the ice and search divers failed to recover it. Then the murderer walked out of the yard, and meeting a police constable whom he knew went with him to a saloon in the naval village and they had a drink together.

Told a Police Constable.

Frith said: "I've killed Bailey," but the officer thought he was not serious, and did not believe him. Then, when the constable was about to board a street car for the city, the murderer said: "You'd better stay around here, Dan, there may be something interesting. The car was waiting, and as the conductor started to ring the bell, Frith said: "Dan, I might as well tell you now I've killed Bailey."

The constable, Dan Campbell of Esquimaux, left the car, but he was still incredulous. "Where's the body," he asked. Frith replied: "You'll find out later on."

Then while Frith went home to his residence near the naval yard the officer went to the yard and enquired if Bailey was missing. It was a holiday in the yard, and there were few men at work. Bailey could not be found, and gradually, it was learned that he had gone toward the store-room with Frith, then a marine saw the body through one of the store-room windows and the door was forced.

Frith had gone home and eaten breakfast, saying nothing to his wife or family, though at the trial witnesses for the defence stated that he acted strangely, drawing a razor near his child's throat menacingly—he had shaved himself after breakfast—and speaking of wishing he had killed his daughter's young man. He put a flower in his buttonhole and took his four-year-old son on his knee and waited. Then, while his wife went on with her routine work the officer came.

An Invitation to Jail.

"Frith," he said, "you'd better take a walk with me." The murderer understood. They went to the city by street car, and Frith made a confession to the superintendent of police, in which he claimed that Bailey had rushed at him with a club after some talk about undermining, and he shot him in self-defence. Examination of the building, though, failed to reveal anything that could be used as a club, and the appearances all went to show that Bailey had been shot down in cold blood.

Both murderer and his victim were Masons, members of the same lodge. Both left wives and families. Throughout the trials and until a few days before his execution Frith acted with remarkable nonchalance, but toward the end felt his position keenly.

Indians Kill Japs.

Vancouver, B.C., Nov. 28.—The Provincial Police have received word from Rivers Inlet from the Rev. Dr. Whittington of the murder of two Japanese by Indians. The crime is understood to have been the outcome of friction between the Northern Indians and Japanese excited by the latter replacing the Indians in the salmon fisheries.

Another Murder at Fernie, B.C.

Fernie, B.C., Nov. 28.—Ed. Meril is held on a charge of the murder of a Finnlander named Andrew Johnson, who died from the effects of a wound received in a drunken row a few days ago.

Sir Robert Boak Resigns.

Halifax, N. S., Nov. 28.—Sir Robert Boak, President of the Legislative Council, has tendered to the Government his resignation of that position. Sir Robert's resignation is due to his increasing years and the fact that his duties as President at the approaching session would be too heavy a strain. Sir Robert retains his seat in the Council. He has been President of the Council for 25 years, having been appointed on March 21, 1878. He was first admitted to the Council in February, 1872, so that his public service in the Council has now covered 31 years.

It is with deep regret that we have to report the death and funeral of Mrs Dupuis, nee Bella Campbell, daughter of Mr Donald Campbell, blacksmith, of this place. Mrs Dupuis was ill only about a week, and a particularly sad feature of her illness was that her husband, who was absent in Manitoba, was only able to arrive here after her death. She died on Sunday morning and was buried in the cemetery here on Tuesday afternoon.
The funeral was attended by a large number of sorrowing friends and relatives.
Mrs Dupuis, by her bright manner and kindly ways, had endeared herself to the hearts of all who knew her and she will not soon be forgotten.
The sorrowing friends have the heartfelt sympathy of the entire community in their sad affliction.

THE DEATH ROLL.

ISAAC SARGISON.
After an extended illness, Isaac Sargison passed away at his home, 36-3rd Lancaster, on Thursday, Nov. 26th.
The late Mr. Sargison, who was widely and favorably known throughout the county, was 63 years of age at the time of his death. He was a son of the late Richard Sargison, and had lived in the 3rd Con. Lancaster for many years.
Besides his widow, he leaves two sons and five daughters to mourn his loss. They are, Isaac, Marion, Janet A. and Virginia at home, Mrs. Clarence Hinman and William at Joilette, and Hannah in Montreal. Besides these, he is survived by one brother and two sisters, Richard in Carberry, Man., Mrs. Jas. Hope, Glen Robertson, and Mrs. Duncan Macpherson, Montreal.
On Saturday, his funeral took place to the 7th Con. Cemetery, service being conducted by Rev. A. Graham, assisted by Rev. Kenneth McDonald.
Messrs. R. J. Sangster, Jas. Fraser, Jas. Sangster, R. J. McIntosh, Jno. D. McCuaig and Jas. Hope, were pallbearers.

LAWRENCE COSGROVE
There died on Thursday, Nov. 26th, at the residence of his son-in-law, Mr P Fitzgerald, 10-9 Char., a native of Ireland, but a gentleman, who for a number of years was a prominent citizen of Alexandria. We refer to Mr Lawrence Cosgrove, whose death was announced in last week's issue of the News.
The late Mr Cosgrove was born in Ireland, but came to Canada many years ago, settling in Alexandria. He was 85 years and 3 months of age at the time of his death, which was preceded by an extended illness.
Besides his widow, the deceased leaves four children to mourn his loss. They are Mrs Patrick Fitzgerald, 10-9 Char., Mrs M Fitzgerald, 5-1 Kenyon, James and Michael in the Soo District.

The funeral took place on Saturday, to St Finnian's Cathedral and Cemetery, where Requiem High Mass, for the repose of his soul was sung by Rev Father Foley.
The pallbearers were Messrs H Duggan, Kenneth Connor, Joe Murphy, Duncan Macpherson, M. Donovan and T O'Neil.

MRS. DAN D. MCGILLIVRAY
It is with much regret that we chronicle the death of Mrs Dan D McGillivray, which occurred at her father's residence, Dougald McKinnon, 25-3 of Lochiel, on Nov. 25th, at the early age of 27 years and 3 months.
She had an attack of bronchitis in September, 1902, from which she never fully recovered although all that medical skill and care could do for her was done, it turned to that dreaded disease, consumption.

She was of a kind and loving disposition, and her death will cause a void that will be hard to fill.
Besides her sorrowing husband and two small children, she leaves to mourn her loss, her father and mother, five brothers and two sisters. She was fully reconciled to her Heavenly Father's will, and knew it was better to depart and be with Christ.
The funeral took place on Friday at 1.30 p. m., to St Columba Church and Cemetery, service being conducted by Rev D Mc Kenzie.

The pall bearers were her four brothers, Hugh A, John D, Willie J and Dougald, and John D McMillan, from Glen Sandfield, John J McIntosh, Alexandria.
Her chosen hymn at her dying hour was—
The hour of my departure's come,
I hear a voice that calls me home;
At last, Oh Lord, let trouble cease,
And let Thy servant die in peace.

Contributed.

She had a robust constitution and enjoyed excellent health all during her long life. She was a member of the Baptist Church and a devout and Christian woman.

The funeral which was held at her late home, on Saturday, Nov. 26th, was very largely attended by friends who came to pay their last tribute of respect to the departed one. The service was conducted by the Rev Jas Fraser.

The pall bearers were D R McLaurin, J C McLaurin, R H Cains, D P L Campbell, Peter Rankin and Duncan McKenzie. Interment took place at Breadalbane cemetery.

St. Andrew's Banquet.

Held Monday Night—Most Successful in Gleggarry's History.

The annual banquet of the St Andrew's Society of Gleggarry, was held in the Grand Union Hotel on Monday evening and was the most successful in its history. The attendance was good—the speeches and music inspiring—while the dinner prepared by mine host Cameron fully sustained the reputation of the ordinary department of the Grand Union.

Around the banquet hall were hung national and patriotic flags, pictures and plaids, while cut flowers were much in evidence on the table.

True to time, honored custom, Piper M McRae, of Dunvegan, followed by Messrs J F McGregor and Norman McRae, bearing the Cross of St Andrew, and haggis, made a tour of the dining room, after which, dinner was in order, with President J Lockie Wilson presiding.

During the evening, fraternal greetings were received from Toronto, Cornwall, Ottawa and Montreal, and appropriate replies sent.

The toast of "The King" was the first in order, and was proposed by the chairman. Following the singing of the National Anthem, the health of the Governor General was drunk, all joining in singing "He's a jolly good fellow."

Hon. Dr. McMillan made a most appropriate reply to the toast "The Day and all who Honor It." "Canada Our Home," was proposed by D A McArthur, in a neat speech and replied to by Messrs E H Tiffany and Jno C Christie of Apple Hill. The following toasts were then proposed by the following:—"Agricultural Interests," Mr Angus McDonald; "Commerce," J T Schell, M.P.; "Manufacturing," W D McLeod, M.P.P.; "Financial Interests," J T Schell, M.P. The following named gentlemen had their names coupled with the above named toasts:—Messrs R R Sangster, Donald McCaskill, Col. D B McLennan, Colin McRae, Angus R McDonald, Wm D McCrimmon, D K McLeod, D A McArthur, J A C Hnot, J F McGregor, J A McRae and Jas Martin.

Vice President McGregor proposed, "Our Sister Societies," which brought responses from Mr J A C Huot and E H Tiffany, Esq. "The Learned Professions" was proposed by Mr Angus McDonald and replied to by Dr J T Hope, Hon Dr McMillan and Mr Tiffany. "Our Parliamentary and Municipal Institutions" which was proposed by T W Munro, was also responded to by J T Schell, M.P., W D McLeod, M.P.P. and Mr Angus McDonald. Vice Chairman A A McKinnon proposed the "Press," Messrs W A Remmer of the Gleggarian and T W Munro of the News, spoke in reply.

"The Ladies" proposed by Vice Chairman R R Sangster, found champions in Dr J T Hope, Jno C Christie, W D McCrimmon and T W Munro.

During the evening, the proceedings were enlivened by pipe selections by Pipers M J McRae and Dr Hope, along with Gaelic, English and French songs by Allan McCrimmon, Hon Dr McMillan, Angus R McDonald, J A C Huot and T W Munro. "Our Host and Hostess" was proposed by President Wilson, who spoke in a congratulatory manner regarding the preparations made by Mr and Mrs Cameron.

The singing of "Auld Lang Syne" and the National Anthem brought this most successful gathering to a close.

Farmers' Institute.

Successful Meetings at Apple Hill and Morth Lancaster.

The Farmers' Institute meetings held at Apple Hill on Nov. 30th, were a grand success. Sixty or more interested farmers attended the afternoon session.

In the evening, three hundred and fifty persons packed the hall to the doors.

The afternoon session was opened by President A. McPhadden calling upon Mr. R. H. Field, of Addison, to lead the discussion, having for his subject, "The Care and Growth of the Dairy Cow." A few of the many good points brought, was the necessity of using a pure bred sire of one of the dairy breeds, to grade up the herd. Strong objections were made against the violent crossing in the breeding of animals. A farmer having a grade Ayrshire or Holstein herd, should continue to breed pure bred Ayrshire sire for the former and a Holstein sire for the latter.

In the raising of calves for the dairy herd, it was essential to feed from a perfectly clean pail, also avoid heating the milk over 98 degrees, for the feeding from swill pails and the over-heating of milk caused the derangement of the delicate digestive organs of the young animals, resulting in unthrifty and unprofitable stock. Mr. Field practiced feeding his herd a meal ration while on grass, giving about three pounds of mixed grains per day. As to the care of milk, aeration should be carried on away from the vicinity of barnyard, pigpens, or any place from which it would suffer contaminous odors.

Mr. G. R. Cottrell, of Milton, addressed the meeting on "Poultry for Profit." Discussing the most servicable poultry house, he said it should be an expensive building, with plenty of light. If the house was inclined to be cold, place curtains before roosting quarters, that would assist in keeping fowls warm at night.

Although there were about forty-five classes of fowls, there were about three utility classes. But in his opinion, a farmer should keep one variety and only one, and that should be a general purpose fowl, either a Plymouth Rock, Wyandotte or Buff Orpington.

In the selection of a sire to head flock, avoid one with a long narrow head, but choose one that is short in head, wide between the eyes, with curved beak, legs well set apart and a good plumb breast.

The evening session was of a social nature. Besides the splendid addresses delivered by the delegation, the following ladies and gentlemen cheerfully assisted in making the programme a success: Mr. J. C. McNaughton, baggage selections; Miss McDonald and Mr. Jones, violin; Mrs. Johnston, Miss M. E. Clark, Mr. D. Clark and Mr. J. D. McRae, quartette; Messrs. D. and W. Clark, songs; Miss Lily McRae, recitation; Mr. Johnston pleased the audience with a number of gramophone selections.

Reeve McNaughton and Mr. John Christie expressed themselves as being well pleased with the very successful meeting. It being the first Institute meeting ever held in Apple Hill.

Over sixty became members of the Institute. The meeting was closed with the National Anthem.

The North Lancaster meeting, Dec. 1st, was attended by over fifty of the best farmers of that vicinity.

Mr. R. H. Field, of Addison, led the discussion on the following subjects: "Purity of the Grass Seeds we Sow," and "Eradication of Noxious Weeds."

Afterwards a general discussion ensued about the "Breeding and Feeding Dairy Cows." After two hours of answering questions, Mr. Field sat down, and Mr. G. R. Cottrell, of Milton, then addressed the meeting on the "Keeping of Poultry for Profit." By the questions asked, there seemed to be a growing interest in poultry in the district.

During the evening session, the hall was filled with young and old, who listened attentively. They must be congratulated on the good order kept. Mr. Field gave his address, "Farming as an Occupation." He brought out very prominently that the farmers formed about seventy per cent of the population of our country, and that a farmer, to take his place and have justice meted out to him in its legislation, and therefore, the distribution of its wealth, must of necessity make a study of his business, and not only know the how, but the why. Keeping everything in its place and doing everything in its time will be of great assistance in the education of a young family.

Mr. Cottrell gave a talk on the "Raising and Marketing of Poultry." Miss Flora Ann McDonald and Mr. J. R. McDonald were repeatedly recalled and rendered music on the organ and violin.

Short addresses were given by Messrs Jas. Esdon, Finlay Cattanaach, D. J. McLennan and D. C. McRae.

Alexandria's Greatest Store.

WHY IS IT?

If our Monday Bargain Days are fakes as some of our competitors would make you believe, why is it that the crowds who visit us on those days are getting bigger each week? Why is it that the people who have been in one Monday are seen to be back the next? Why is it that every person goes away pleased? Why is it that some of the very merchants who cry fake have on more than one of our Bargain Days sent to our store for goods and bought them for less money than they were paying wholesale houses? Why is it that at least eight persons out of every ten who live in Alexandria come to trade with us? It is not the people who come here on Monday who are faked, but the ones who don't. For our next Bargain Day.

The little people will be talking of, and watching for Santa Claus and his reindeer and his sleighfull of Toys, and Presents. The Dolls, and Jangling Jacks, and Drums, and Trumpets, and Guns, and Pianos, and all the rest of the many good and beautiful things, will be in demand.

Our store is now a regular fairyland of Toys and Presents. Everything to charm and delight the hearts of young and old is here. Car loads of Toys, mountains of Candies, and Nuts, and Fruit and good things to eat. Oceans of good, useful gifts for all the year round. Something for grandpas and grandmas, father and mother, sister and brother, and the wee toddlers. No one has been forgotten. And then our dear old friend Santa Claus himself, will as usual, make our store his headquarters and stay for a day or two in order to meet all his little friends. We will tell you more in detail next week. Meanwhile we advise you to call early and make your selection. Don't wait until the rush, when mayhap you cannot be served as you would wish. Call now. If you don't want to take the articles with you we will be pleased to set aside for you.
