Second Glengarry Highland Games At Maxville Saturday Attracted Fine Crowd Of Twelve Thousand

Very Successful Annual Event Run Off Without A Hitch

Improved Accommodations Drew Much Praise As Pipes Skirled And Dancers Whirled In View Of Everyone At Games

Pipes skirled and dancers whirled at Maxville, Saturday, as the second annual edition of the Glengarry Highland Games was presented to an admiring 12,000 people who came from near and far and who went away smiling. Though the attendance was far below the more than 20,000 at last year's Games, it was a much more satisfactory gate for the sponsoring societies who had provided greatly improved accommodations and who saw their organization work prove more than adequate.

There was seating for more than 4,000 and plenty of good vantage points for the remaining standees who could follow comfortably every phase of the day's activities. This was in decided contrast to the first annual Games last year, when more than 20,000 milled about the grounds impeding the programme, which could be seen by only a few.

The day's activities got underway in the late morning when preliminary events of the Highland dancing were run off. By one o'clock there were more than 10,000 on the grounds to witness the colorful march past of the massed bands, which marked the opening of competition.

An impressive moment saw the large audience stand to attention as members of the Argyll & Sutherland band of Hamilton played the "Lament to the Argylls," specially written in memory of the members of that fine band killed in a bus accident at Toronto in early January.

The games were officially opened by Lt.-Col. W. J. Franklin, M.C., V.D., of Ottawa, Sergeant-at-Arms of the House of Commons, who was introduced by the chairman of the Games committee, Major A. A. McDonald, reeve of Alexandria. The address delivered by Colonel Franklin appears in another column of this issue.

Miss Jean MacLeod, of Toronto, sang the ballad "Glengarry Highland Games," written by Ken MacRae, of Apple Hill and Toronto, and followed with a fine rendition of the ever popular "Road To the Isles."

Major McDonald then turned over the announcing duties to the capable hands of Frank Ryan, of Ottawa, and the lengthy programme of dance events, piping competitions and athletic events got underway. Three stages had been erected in the large enclosure and there was little time lost in staging the various events, each of which had its admiring audiences.

By five o'clock the way had been cleared for the popular band competitions and these were completed in time for the parade of the massed bands at six o'clock. Six colourful bands were on parade of the expected twelve and though the committee was disappointed in the non-arrival of several bands which had been counted on, the high quality of the show staged by the bands more than made up for the lack of numbers.

On review were the bands of the 48th Highlanders, of Toronto; the Argyll & Sutherland Regiment, of Hamilton; the General Motors group, of Oshawa; the Air Force bands from Toronto and Montreal, and the S.D. & G. Highlanders. The prized Glengarry trophy for first place in March, Strathspey and Reel was won by the crack band of the 48th Highlanders, while honours in the Slow March went to the fine Argyll's band. Showing marked improvement over last year was the General Motors band, of Oshawa, which won several trophies.

Entries in the Highland dancing classes numbered 167, considerably more than last year, and they came from Toronto, Detroit, Montreal and many other points as well as from Cornwall and Glengarry. Gladys Forrester, of Toronto, captured the MacNeil Memorial trophy for adult dancers, while Lola Shaw, of Detroit, took home the C. J. McDougall trophy for 12 and under, as well as the Zorra Society Cup for Ontario aggregate.

The MacEwen Cup for dancers 13 and under was won by Jean MacInnes, of Maxville, while another popular Maxville lass, Connie Kippen, took honours in the junior piping, when she won the McPherson trophy for march, strathspey and reel, and the Pipe Major Geo. Montgomery cup for slow marching.

Maxville village was a blaze of colour as bunting, flags and emblems greeted the incoming thousands from every

Jottings On Saturday's Games

All ages were represented at the Games, but the most appealing and probably most sought by hordes of amateur photographers were three youngsters in full Highland costume. Boyd Chisholm, 4, son of Mr. and Mrs. Fletcher Chisholm, Cornwall, sported a complete piper's costume in the brilliant MacLeod colors. A miniature set of pipes rounded out his eye-catching costume. Patricia Walsh, 3, of Cornwall, in a more subdued tartan, was teamed with him for many snapshots.

Taking part in the junior piping was 12-year-old Billy Gilmour, of Toronto, who won the junior boys' trophy. A mass of freckles and an engaging grin, made him definitely photogenic.

Souvenir programs, souvenir spoons and other attractive emblems had a ready sale at an attractive booth near the main entrance.

The 1949 Games were truly representative of the whole county in their sponsorship. The hard working men of Maxville and the Kenyon Agricultural Society had working with them at every point representatives of the St. Lawrence Valley Agricultural Society from Charlottetown and Lancaster townships. Members of the two societies worked well in double harness and their joint sponsorship of the Games was a happy thought.

Walter Taillon, of Cornwall, was the lucky winner of the 1949 Pontiac, drawn for at the opening concert. The Chamber of Commerce, sponsor of the car draw, report a very successful sale of tickets under direction of H. K. Carleton.

A. S. McQueen, of Dunvegan, was the lucky winner of the refrigerator, which was given as a door prize on the advance sale of tickets. Mrs. Ben Villeneuve, of Maxville, won a $100 cash prize for selling the largest number of tickets.

Presentation of trophies and prizes was made at the evening concert before packed stands. Featuring the concert was the Old Time Fiddlers' contest, won by Bruce Ross, of Lancaster Township.

Pipe Major Jock Wilson, of Hamilton, was the best piper on the grounds. He won the Macdonald trophy for his piping in the open march event, as well as the Bob Revie cup. He recently came over from Scotland.

The Martintown tug-of-war men finally found opposition from a mixed crew of Hamilton bandmen and district heavies. The Gamble trophy stayed with Martintown after some high class tugging.

An old Alexandria boy, Eddie Robillard, of Windsor, base drummer with the Detroit band, wants to see the Games in Alexandria soon and he wants his famed band to be in attendance. He was here again, even though his band could not make the trip.

A full day's events wound up at a big dance in Jubilee Rink, which attracted a large crowd.

The locale of next year's Games is still in doubt, but officials declare they will definitely be held on the Saturday preceding August's civic holiday.

Lost Brother At Edmonton

Rev. R. J. MacDonald, Alexandria, and Mr. James A. MacDonald, Green Valley, received word Monday of the sudden death of a brother, Mr. Eugene MacDonald at Edmonton. The husband of the former Mary Ann Kennedy, Mr. MacDonald died quietly in his sleep, Monday morning, as the result of a heart attack.

The funeral was held on Wednesday at Edmonton.

Mark Golden Date At Maxville

Mr. and Mrs. Henry S. MacEwen happily celebrated their golden wedding anniversary on Monday, Aug. 1st, at their residence on Marlborough street, Maxville.

During the afternoon from 3 until 5:30 o'clock, and in the evening from 6 o'clock until 10:30, many relatives, friends and neighbours called to offer congratulations and good wishes to Mr. and Mrs. MacEwen. Tea was served during the afternoon and evening from a beautifully laid dining table centred with a three-tier wedding cake, flanked on the sides with silver bowls of summer blooms. Mrs. Stewart Begg was in charge of the dining room.

Mr. and Mrs. MacEwen received several cheques, a $5.00 gold piece, and beautiful gifts, also telegrams, letters and cards.

Mr. and Mrs. MacEwen were married at the Presbyterian Manse, Maxville, August 1st, 1899, by Rev. J. Cormack. Mrs. MacEwen was the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Begg, of Gravel Hill. From the time of their marriage they resided on a farm in the Fifth Concession of Roxborough, moving to their present home on Marlborough street in Maxville in 1923.

Mr. and Mrs. MacEwen had six children, four sons and two daughters. One son, Arthur, was killed at Central Butte, Sask., in 1925; Albert MacEwen resides in Thorold, Ont.; William in Kingston; Ross in Cornwall; Mrs. J. D. LaFleur, of Finch, and Miss Bertha MacEwen at Maxville. There are three grandchildren, Miss Shirley McEwen, of Oshawa; Miss Joyce McEwen, of Kingston; and Miss Lynda LaFleur, of Finch.

Mr. and Mrs. MacEwen were assisted in receiving their many guests by their family. Mrs. MacEwen was attired in a midnight blue silk crepe dress and wore a corsage of gold coloured baby-buds and fern.

Besides friends from the town and district, there were present many from Cornwall, Brockville, St. Anne de Bellevue, Cataract, Kingston, Gravel Hill, Thorold, Montreal and Ottawa.

A letter was received from Rt. Hon. W. L. Mackenzie King, expressing his congratulations and good wishes.

Mrs. K. A. Gollan Dies At Toronto

An active missionary worker, Agnes H. Gollan, widow of Rev. K. A. Gollan, who once filled the pulpit of Kenyon Church, Dunvegan, died Saturday at the Montgomery Nursing Home, Toronto. She was aged 84.

Born in Calcutta, India, Mrs. Gollan came to Canada in 1897, settling in Manitoba before the family came to Ontario. She resided at Dunvegan, Morewood, Lucknow, Rosemount and Callenden, where her husband filled charges.

Surviving are three sons and three daughters.

Lochiel Team Football Champs

Lochiel became the new Football Champions of Glengarry, when they tied the last game against Dalkeith, 1-1, on their own grounds last Friday evening, to take the final round 3-2.

In other years, Lochiel was often close up, right in there fighting for the championship, but somehow, somehow they just couldn't come through. This year, they played great ball and could not be denied. They are indeed worthy champions, and we extend our congratulations. The Glengarry champions will now advance into the Ottawa and District play-offs for the Angus H. McDonnell Shield, emblematic of the Ottawa Valley Championship.

Dalkeith made the finals a real championship affair. They put up a surprising fight of it, and deserve great credit for their fine display and good sportsmanship.

In the final game last Friday, a good crowd was in attendance, and had plenty to cheer for. Lochiel scored through Ewen MacPhee, in the opening minutes, but Dalkeith came back in the second period to even it up, G. Goulet getting the equalizer. Both sides had some dangerous close-in chances, so the game and the series was in doubt until the last minute.

The line-ups: Dalkeith — D. MacLeod, goal; Levac and C. MacDonald, fullbacks; C. MacDonald, Fraser MacLeod and MacLennan, halfbacks; Ellis MacLeod, G. Levac, Alex MacLeod, Rene Brisbois and K. MacLennan; spares, Gordie MacLeod, MacLennan.

Lochiel — Hay, goal; Leo Davidson, Alfred Davidson, fullbacks; A. Quesnel, H. Hay, A. Fournier, halfbacks; F. Quesnel, W. MacLeod, Ewen MacPhee, Harvey Ranger, G. MacMillan, K. Hay, forwards; spares, A. Quesnel, MacMillan.

In the Greenspon Cup series, Glen Gordon and McCrimmon took four games to declare a winner. The home and home series ended 3-3. The third game was a 1-1 tie, but in the fourth, Glen Gordon came through with a 3-0 victory. Glen Gordon thus earned the right to advance into the final round against Lochiel, present cup holders. This series is booked for:

Sat., Aug. 6th — Lochiel at Glen Gordon.
Mon., Aug. 8th — Glen Gordon at Lochiel.

The Junior Series Three teams have intimated their intention of entering competition — Lochiel, Dalkeith and Greenfield.

Lochiel and Dalkeith will play a home and home series with goals to count. The winner of this series will then engage in a home and home series with Greenfield.

The league is putting up a nice cup to be emblematic of the Glengarry Junior Championship. So come on, you young fellows—and be the first to

J. D. MacDonell Dies At Butte

Death again entered our ranks on June 16th, 1949, this time removing from our community and from his membership in the Rutte Pioneers' Club, Mr. John D. MacDonell. The late Mr. MacDonell was born in St. Raphael's West, Ont., in 1873, and was a son of Donald MacDonell and Janet MacDonell. He came to Butte, Montana, in 1893, and was connected with the Copper Street Livery Stables and school board. He later joined the Butte Pioneers' Club, February, 1931, and went into business at the Big Four on South Main, where he was located until his death.

He was predeceased by his son, Donald, and also by his wife, the former Lucy Ryerson, who died in 1943. Surviving relatives are two daughters and their husbands, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Maloney and Mr. and Mrs. Con. O'Connell, of Portland, Oregon; one brother and three sisters: Angus D. MacDonell, Mrs. M. A. McDougall and Mrs. A. F. McPherson, residing at St. Raphael's West, Ont., and Mrs. F. Cuggy, of Montreal, Que. Two grandchildren, Donald O'Connell and Myrna K. Maloney, of Portland, Oregon, and several other relatives also survive.

Funeral services were conducted Monday, June 20th, 1949, at 9 o'clock, from Duggan Merrill Mortuaries, proceeding to St. Joseph's Church, where Requiem High Mass was celebrated by his pastor at 9:30. Interment was made in the Holy Cross cemetery.

Opens Business

Mr. D. N. McRae, who had been associated with the Graham Creamery Co., is this week going into the feed business in his building immediately north of the C.N.R. tracks. He will handle all types of feeds.

Cornwall Seniors Playing Here

Cornwall Seniors come to Glengarry Gardens, Saturday night, to provide the opposition for Alexandria Maroons, who won and lost against Caughnawaga-Lachine last week end.

In Saturday's game at the Gardens, Maroons took an early lead of 4-1 and held the margin despite a determined drive by the visitors in the last frame. Final score was 19-17 for Maroons.

The return match at Lachine, Sunday night, witnessed a very rough first half in which three Alexandria players, Bern Lalonde, Norm McMillan and Lee McCormack were cut. The Alexs threatened to quit at half time unless there was stricter refereeing and more lacrosse was seen in the final half. The final score was 14-7 for the Lachine combines.

Special Services At St Elmo Church

Gordon Family Is Represented At Re-Dedication Service

A unique gathering taxed to the utmost the capacity of Gordon Church, St. Elmo, both morning and evening on Sunday in observance of the 85th anniversary and re-dedication services, held on that date.

The pastor, Rev. H. A. Doig, B.A., of St. Andrew's Manse, Maxville, had charge of the services and had with him as guest preacher a former college classmate, Rev. W. Scott Duncan, B.A., of Queen Street East Church, Toronto.

Miss Jean MacLeod, famed Scottish singer, of Toronto, was the guest soloist and charmed her hearers with sacred solos in both English and Gaelic. Special musical numbers were rendered under the leadership of Miss C. MacRae, A.T.C.M., with the organist, Mrs. J. A. Urquhart, presiding at the console.

Rev. Mr. Duncan preached inspiring sermons on "The Portrait of the Christian" at the morning service and "The Portrait of the Christian Community" at the evening service.

Mr. Doig read from early records the steps taken for the erection of this church in 1864 and narrated briefly the arrangements for its redecoration and re-dedication this year. He read a telegram from Dr. King Gordon, of Winnipeg, conveying congratulations and good wishes from "The Ralph Connor Family" here. He also voiced a very gracious welcome, on behalf of his congregation, to Miss Marjory Gordon, who, with several friends came from Winnipeg to represent the Gordon family at the morning service on this very special occasion, and who, by special arrangements, was privileged to occupy the pew formerly occupied by the Gordon family during his ministry here almost a century ago.

Gazing through the many pages of the church register, on which worshippers inscribed their names, on Sunday, it was found friends were present from Nova Scotia to Saskatchewan and the Middle States, proof of the inspiration and ever-widening influence of those early pioneer forefathers who laid the foundation for Christian principles in a goodly land.

The church has been completely redecorated, new carpets have been laid, a pulpit gown has been placed there and all financial obligations have been met.

The beautiful flowers placed in the church for this occasion, were anniversary gifts from Whittaker Bros., Florists, Cornwall; Scrim's Florists, Ottawa; and Mrs. Scott, Riceville.

Juveniles Enjoy First Win

Alexandria's Juvenile Maroons won their first game of the season at the Gardens, Monday night, when they won 7-5 over the St. Regis Indian youngsters. Showing steady improvement in recent games since Howard Kennedy and the Kinsmen took them in hand, the young Maroons well earned their victory and they are now playing a brand of lacrosse which rates better support in the cheering sections.

At the end of the first of the two twenty-minute periods, Maroons held the lead with a score of 5-3. Scoring for the Indians were B. Roundpoint with two to his credit and singles were netted by Beauvien, Baker and W. Roundpoint.

Marcel Lanthier and Bern Massia each blinked the light twice for the home team. Ostrom, Roy and Marcoux scored the remaining three goals for the Maroons.

Line-ups: St. Regis Indians — Goal, Delorme; defence, David, Thompson; rover, McDonald; centre, B. Roundpoint; attack, W. Roundpoint, I. Seymour; subs, Beauvien, Davis, Baker, P. Seymour, Pendergrast.

Alexandria Maroons — Goal, Leroux; defence, Dolan, Lanthier; rover, Laporte; centre, M. Gelineau; attack, Marcoux, McKinnon; subs, R. Bellefeuille, Beaulne, A. Bellefeuille, Massia, B. Gelineau, Roy, Ostrom, Courville. Referee—Gabriel Poirier.

Etiquette for Canadians

—BY—

Claire Wallace

A swimming party is one kind of entertainment where the host or hostess will be thanked for things not done. For example, a kind but thoughtless person could go out of his way to make sure the guests have lots and lots to eat, and then rush around making sure that everyone goes in for a long swim immediately. Result: Cramps and possible drowning.

In the same way, don't insist that people swim when they say they don't want to. They may be too tired to enjoy it or to swim in safety; perhaps they don't feel well and would like to stay out of the water without having to give a full explanation of their disorder.

A kind invitation to swim will probably be appreciated since it makes people know they are wanted and may uncover a couple of shy people who have been afraid to put themselves forward. But it should never turn into nagging insistence.

Lots of people think beaches are great places for loud laughs and invigorating horseplay, and water-ball or baseball may be taken along for those who feel that way. Others think beaches are best used for just relaxing, sun-bathing, reading and being alone. If that's the case, don't spoil a person's day by trying too hard to show him a good time.

Take along your own supply of sun lotions, matches, reading matter and towels so that others won't feel obliged to administer to your needs.

In the sense that etiquette is primarily a matter of consideration of others, avoid dripping water on recumbent sunbathers and kicking up sand which may get into hair or eyes. Never leave empty bottles of lotion or pop on the beach; glass is a great hazard for it is easily broken. It's a good idea, too, to pick up any paper you may have had; a clean swimming area adds to the enjoyment of the party. It's good etiquette to make sure that all are within the rules of the beach. Don't be like the little boy who hung his clothes on the sign saying "Deep Water," and then waded in and drowned.

QUESTION AND ANSWER ON ETIQUETTE

Question: Should we allow our domestic servant to invite her friends to our home?

Answer: Most certainly! Any other procedure will just help drive her out to possibly dangerous places. Co-operate to make her friends welcome occasionally and see that they are well fed and entertained without interfering too much.

Readers are invited to write Claire Wallace about their etiquette problems. Address Claire Wallace, care of The Glengarry News, Alexandria, Ont. Replies will appear in this column.

Under the Fur Seal Agreement with the United States, Canada will receive approximately 13,000 seal skins this year. This is the Dominion's 20 per cent of the annual take from the seal herds of the Pribilof Islands in the Bering Sea, west of Alaska.

The average Canadian yield of maple sugar generally amounts to about 2,600,000 gallons, in terms of syrup.

Largest Helicopter, XH-16, Being Developed for USAF

Largest helicopter ever to be built and capable of carrying the biggest load and with the longest range ever achieved by a rotary wing aircraft is currently being developed by the Piasecki Helicopter corporation, Morton, Pa., states the United States air force.

Designated the XH-16 by the USAF, the huge transport helicopter follows the tandem-rotor configuration pioneered by Piasecki and already proven so successful in the ten-place "Rescuer" tandem-rotor helicopter now in production for the navy, marines and coast guard.

In fact, the huge XH-16 has a smaller prototype in the XHJP-1, an all-metal twin-rotor helicopter which Piasecki has developed and built for the navy and which has made a number of successful flights. The air forces' XH-16 is actually an "enlargement" of the XHJP-1 in general dimensions and streamlined appearance.

To give an idea of the tremendous size of the USAF's new development, the XH-16's all-metal aerodynamically clean fuselage will compare in general shape and dimensions to the body of the familiar four-engine Douglas C-54 airliner.

Marking a radical innovation in rotary wing aircraft, the XH-16 features the use of a large, quickly detachable capsule which just about doubles the payload of this "truck-and-trailer" of the air.

95 Out of 100 Accepted For Life Insurance Risk

All but five out of every 100 applicants for life insurance were accepted in 1947, the Institute of Life Insurance reports.

Analysis of 1947's company reports on ordinary insurance policy issuance shows that 95 per cent of all applicants were issued policies. Of the total issued, 90 per cent were standard rate policies and 10 per cent rate policies.

Chief cause for the 5 per cent not qualifying for either standard or extra rate policies was the broad category of diseases of the heart, arteries and kidneys. Nearly half of all the impairments preventing issuance of policies were in this category.

Physical reasons combined accounted for over three-fourths of those who did not meet qualifications. Chief causes of these were: cardiovascular-renal, between 40 per cent and 50 per cent; medical history, 20 per cent; overweight or underweight, 5 per cent. Less than 5 per cent were for occupational hazards and the balance were for other underwriting reasons, including application for too much insurance in relation to finances, location of residence, or habits regarded as harmful.

Bindweed Seeds Bide Time

Seed of bindweed has long been known to remain viable in the soil for many years. This long life has been an important factor in making this weed one of the farmers' most tenacious pests. Tests in recent years by the U. S. department of agriculture at the Hays station in Kansas show how the seedlings pop up in cultivated land long after the established plants have been eradicated. According to F. L. Timmons of the bureau of plant industry, soils and agricultural engineering, in a 14-acre field that had been cleared of bindweed in 1921 there was an average emergence of five plants per square rod in 1941, 20 years later. These were removed and scattered plants have been coming up each year since, including 1947. All of these seedlings came from seeds in the soil in 1920 or earlier.

Home-Canned Tomatoes

Home-canned tomatoes are a very important source of vitamins and minerals, as well as a tasty and appealing food. Tomatoes have long been recognized as an important source of several vitamins and minerals, particularly ascorbic acid or vitamin C. Because ascorbic acid cannot be stored in the body, it is best to supply it daily for the best of health. Winter meals have often been found low in this vitamin unless special care is taken to use vitamin C rich food. When the amounts of vitamin C in a person's diet are low he will not necessarily be ill, but will feel more fit if he eats sufficient food containing ascorbic acid. And that is where the home canned tomatoes come in.

Free Farms of Future

Managed forests or tree farms are the lumber industry's objective. There must be a definite end to the supply of old-growth and forests raised under management are the only possible source of raw material when the virgin forest is gone. "Tree farm" is the name for an area of forest land that will be used for continuous forest production. It is a business enterprise and will be managed as such. It will be improved and given better than the average protection from fire and other forest enemies. A seed supply, planting, or other method of restocking will be provided above the legal requirements. Full use of land which is best suited to timber growing is the objective of good management.

Opening Address By Col. Franklin At The Games

Mr. Chairman, Mr. President, Ladies and Gentlemen:

Being with you today to open this great Highland gathering — "The Glengarry Highland Games" — is an honour and privilege which I deeply appreciate.

I am most happy to add a word of welcome to those present, many of whom have journeyed from distant points, including our great neighbour south of the border — the United States.

There are many good reasons why today all roads lead to Maxville and this historical old county. No other locale in Canada is quite as appropriate as Glengarry with its many traditions both civil and military: The early settlement by Highlanders from Scotland, mostly disbanded soldiers of famous regiments, in 1783, these were stirring times and because of the hardships endured have given much inspiration to the annual gathering of many clans, such as the McLeod's; the gallant deeds by regiments furnished all wars since and including 1812-13; and the many great statesmen, soldiers and athletes who have made their contribution. I may mention Ralph Connor and Rev. Alexander Macdonell, the "warrior bishop." To name a few of our great athletes, Big Rory MacLennan, on the hammer, establishing in his time a world's record. Other outstanding and powerful men: Big Jim MacDonald, Duncan Neil MacDonald and Bob Stirling, all excelled with shot put and tossing the caber. Then we have those great track, lacrosse and football stars, Dr. Will MacDiarmid, Joe Corbett and the Rayside brothers.

Coming to recent years, much has been accomplished with respect to the training of young pipers and dancers. You shall see competing today many fine bands, among them our own of the Stormont, Dundas and Glengarry Highlanders, whose motto is "Dileas Gu Bas" (faithful until death); and of course you shall see the young stylist, Miss Connie Kippen on the pipes. She is a product of our local school and has a great future. In addition to furnishing a band with the famous overseas battalion in 1940 the reserve battalion could muster as many as 30 pipers, young and old. Some of our pipers, Pipe Major John A. Stewart and Jimmy McNaughton, have 40 years service to their credit. Schools are in progress and a generous Counties Council has always measured up well in providing funds for this most worthy cause to ensure the continuity of the Highland spirit which is desired by us all.

Talking or spirit, I should like to take a second of my time to tell you one on a Scotsman: A Presbyterian minister received a bottle of cherry brandy in the mail. It was anonymous and after waiting for several weeks for his friends to mention it he decided to say a word from the pulpit on Sunday. He said, "I am very grateful to the person for sending me the cherries, and for the spirit in which they were sent."

Before the day is over you shall have witnessed or sampled many types of spirits, but in the final summary you will all agree that the Highland spirit is not excelled by any other group or race in the world.

I am proud to claim Glengarry as my native county and I feel I can speak with some qualification by reason of my association with two wars and having commanded local regiments for some ten years. As a result it has been my good fortune to acquire a first hand knowledge of the character, hospitality and loyalty of the people.

Great credit is due the very able and energetic committee, and in fact the Town of Maxville for having revived the Highland gathering after a lapse of some fifty years. This year, I am told, you shall see many improvements in the administrative arrangements and no stone has been left unturned to present a good programme which should send you home saying "Thank you, Glengarry, for an enjoyable day," and we should like to say to you in return: "Hit it an ah vline"; come next year and help make a bonny day, we want your support.

Baby Show Is Feature At Ex.

Babies come in to their own during Exhibition Week at Ottawa's Lansdowne Park, August 22-27, when the annual Baby Show will be held under the direction of the Capital's leading child specialists.

An extensive prize list has been prepared and special silver mugs will be awarded to the highest scoring boy and girl.

Classes in the Baby Show are as follows:

Boys and Girls, 6 to 12 months, Tuesday, Aug. 23rd, 2.30 p.m.

Boys and Girls, 12 to 18 months, Wednesday, Aug. 24th, 2.30 p.m.

Boys and Girls, 18 to 30 months, Thursday, Aug. 25th, 2.30 p.m.

Twins, 6 to 30 months, Wednesday, Aug. 24th, 3.30 p.m.

The Baby Show has always been a leading feature of the Central Canada Exhibition. Over 200 babies took part in the event last year and the Ottawa Fair officials expect the total this year to reach the 300 mark.

Dr. Fred W. Jeffrey, child specialist, will be in charge of the Baby Show. Assisting him will be 18 Ottawa doctors and 17 nurses. Miss Frances M. Lyons, R.N., will act as supervisor.

Apart from the many prizes offered, the Baby Show enables children entered to have the benefit of a thorough medical examination at no expense.

All competitions in the Baby Show will be held on the second floor of the Grandstand building. Prizes will be awarded from the Baby Show department stage, Friday, August 26th, at 5 p.m.

It was emphasized that entries for the Baby Show must be in by August 15th. Parents may write to the Central Canada Exhibition Association, Lansdowne Park, for entry forms.

Records show more delinquency in Canada among children of British parentage than among children with parents born in Canada or elsewhere in the world.

Let's Talk Things Over

Money doesn't go a long way in these days. That's what a friend said to me the other day. My reply was that it all depended on how he spent it, and I told him that I could put him in the way of securing a sizeable estate, say $10,000, for a down payment of a few dollars. What is more, even if he were to die anytime soon after the first down payment, the whole estate of $10,000 would belong to his family without the spending of another penny.

And, let me tell you, many large estates of several thousand dollars have come to the rescue of Sun Life beneficiaries following a first and only payment of a few dollars by a husband and father who realized the uncertainty of the future but knew how to make the best use of savings.

Let's talk things over—today!

DOUBLE RING CEREMONY UNITES MARIE CLAIRE MAYER AND GILLES CHENIER

In a double ring ceremony in Sacred Heart Church, Alexandria, Saturday, July 16th, Marie Claire Mayer, youngest daughter of Mrs. Aime Mayer and the late Mr. Mayer, became the bride of Mr. Gilles Chenier, eldest son of Mr. and Mrs. Louis Chenier. Rev. Leo Leblanc, C.S.Sp., former teacher of the groom at St. Alexander's College, Limbour, Que., officiated.

Miss Huot was at the organ and the hymns were sung by members of the Lacordaire Anti-Alcoholic Movement of Alexandria, the bride and groom and the attendants being members of this movement. "Panis Angelicus" was very effectively rendered.

Pink and white summer flowers and ferns were used in decorating the main altar, while white peonies adorned the lateral altar where the bride, assisted by two members of the Sodality of the Children of Mary, read the Act of Consecration prior to the blessing of the nuptial vows.

Given in marriage by her uncle, Mr. Joseph Ropelle, of Montreal, the bride was wearing a beautiful gown of white satin with fitted bodice and long sleeves ending in points over the hands. The back fullness of her skirt draped gracefully into a short train and her floor length embroidered veil was held by a coronet of net and satin trimmed with small pearls. She wore a rhinestone necklace, the gift of the groom, with matching earrings and bracelet and she carried a cascade bouquet of white gardenias and red roses.

Her only attendant, Miss Denise Chenier, sister of the groom, chose a dress of white organza with bouffant skirt and short puffed sleeves over yellow taffeta. Her white lace bonnet hat was trimmed with yellow ribbon and natural white daisies and she carried a bouquet of white daisies with background of matching satin ribbon.

Mr. Guy Legault, of Montreal, was best man.

Among out-of-town guests were Rev. Paul Guay, C.S.Sp., of St. Alexander's College, and Mr. Gregoire Landry, of Buckingham.

Immediately following the ceremony, a reception was held at the home of the bride's mother, where a buffet-style breakfast was served. The table was beautifully decorated with white streamers, while a small dome of white crepe paper and wedding bells was suspended from the ceiling above the three-tiered wedding cake. Rev. Leo Leblanc proposed the toast to the bride.

The happy couple left early in the afternoon by motor on a wedding trip to the Laurentians. For travelling the bride chose a suit of cream gabardine with navy blue accessories and corsage of pink carnations and fern.

On their return, July 26th, a reception was tendered them at Green Valley Pavilion, where some 400 relatives and friends gathered.

Prior to her marriage, Mrs. Chenier was tendered a shower at her home, attended by some thirty of her girl friends. The bride-elect was crowned with roses by one of her friends while another presented an automatic toaster.

Mr. and Mrs. Chenier will reside in Montreal, where the groom is an office employee of the Northern Electric Company.

CEREMONY IN VERDUN OF INTEREST

In a double ring ceremony in St. Thomas More Church, Verdun, Que., on Saturday, July 2nd, at ten o'clock, Letta Veronica Phillips became the bride of Arthur Brown. Rev. Father Fredrickson officiated.

Finnian and Francis, twin brothers of the bride, served the Nuptial Mass. Mr. Tobin played the wedding music. A cousin of the groom, Mr. T. Edmonds, a McGill graduate, most effectively rendered "Ave Marie," "On This Day, Oh Beautiful Mother," and "Panis Angelicus." Peonies, iris and fern decorated the church. White satin bows marked the guest pews.

Given in marriage by her brother, Edwin, the bride chose a gown of traditional white satin fashioned with a fitted bodice, with triple Bertha collar, tiny buttons down the back, and lily point sleeves. The skirt, with its front panel of Chantilly lace, was accented with fullness at the hipline. Her tulle illusion veil was held by a tiara of seed pearls and rhinestones. She carried a bouquet of cascade roses and baby's breath knotted with satin ribbon and wore a three strand pearl necklace, the gift of the groom.

Mrs. Monica Charbonneau, cousin of the bride, as matron of honour, was garbed in a floor length gown of pale pink sheer, over matching taffeta and a halo of flowers.

Mrs. R. Brown, sister-in-law of the groom, as bride's matron, wore floor length lavender sheer with brocade satin bolera and a halo of matching flowers. Her sister, Miss Luella Phillips, as bridesmaid, was in an ankle length Elizabeth blue slipper satin. Her bandeau was tulle and carried-me-nots. The three attendants carried identical fan shaped bouquets of sweet peas and roses with satin streamers to match their gowns.

Playing the role of flower girl, little Miss Carol Brown, the groom's niece, was dressed in Heavenly blue sheer, with smocked yoke and full length skirt, and carried a Colonial bouquet of mixed flowers.

Mr. Hubert Brown was best man for his brother, while his other brother, Richard Brown, and the bride's brother, Harvey Phillips, acted as ushers.

Immediately after the ceremony the bridal party, consisting of more than one hundred guests, motored to La Salle Citizen's Hall, where a full course dinner was served. Rev. Father Fredrickson gave the toast to the bride, to which the groom ably responded. A veterans' orchestra was in attendance during the dinner hour and for dancing in the afternoon.

The tables were lovely with seasonal cut flowers, the bride's table being centred with a four-tier wedding cake and silver embossed place cards. Pink and white streamers with white bells were used to decorate the hall. For the banquet the ushers were Gregory Phillips, Vernon Phillips, Kenzie Best and Stanley Harris.

At four o'clock, Mr. and Mrs. Brown left for Quebec and Eastern points. Travelling, the bride wore a cream gabardine suit with navy accessories and a corsage of Talisman roses and maiden hair fern.

A reception was tendered them in Greenfield Parish Hall, on Friday, July 8th. Sid Plumadore's orchestra supplied the music.

Given in her honour, prior to her marriage, was a series of showers. Mrs. Monica Charbonneau held a cup and saucer shower; Mrs. R. Brown gave a miscellaneous shower, and her co-workers in the Bell Telephone Company also gave a shower in her office, which one hundred and thirty-five girls attended.

The groom's fellow workers presented him with a William Rogers triple solid silver set of flatware.

Hello, Homemakers! This year's Woman's World at the Canadian National Exhibition is indeed electrified. The products of the range and refrigerator will be in the spotlight. Men, along with teen-agers, and you, the women, are invited to enter the competition. You will find the food contests "as easy as pie." Honestly though, you may win $100 cash for your apple pie on September 7th, or by submitting a week-end budget for five people on September 10th. Then, too, there is a $50 prize for the ham and two eggs you can cook for the Judge on August 31st, or the salad plate you can prepare for them on September 8th. By the way, there are second, third and fourth prizes too. Here is what you do:

Send the letter stating competitions you wish to enter before August 15th. The address is Mrs. Kate Aitken, Woman's World Exhibition, C.N.E., Toronto.

On the day of the scheduled competition in which you wish to compete, you will go to the second floor in the Coliseum to Woman's World. Check your registration, name and address on application, and be available to take over the project. Everything will be ready for you. There will be an electric range ready at the flip of the switch, and all the necessary equipment, as well as the ingredients.

The competitors will be judged on the speed of assembly, the ease of handling the equipment, the quality of the prepared food, and the artistry of the dish. For example: The ham should be lifted into the pan with the fork, the pan should be carried on the level, the grease should be drained off before the end of the cooking, or the ham should be lifted to a piece of paper towelling on a plate, to drain off excess fat. Then an egg should be broken into a saucer and slipped into the water — first one egg, then the other. Reduce the heat to Low and cook with a cover or by basting frequently. Transfer to plate with ease and care.

In regard to the salad, the ingredients will be in the refrigerator for you. Trim and prepare quickly. Think of your colour combinations as you shake the washed greens loosely in a towel. Give consideration to food value as well as the quality of the salad ingredients. Do your job just as you would at home and enjoy it. Wish you all could win.

On the day when the big prize is for budget menus, you go into the room with only a few ideas in mind. As you are given your entry blank and a price list of the seasonal foods, check them over and write down menus for Saturday night supper, Sunday breakfast, dinner and supper. Economy is the key note. Consider the following points:

A meal should be different in texture, that is, salad with custard dessert — never, cream soup and blanc mange on the same menu. A meal should have variety in foods, that is, raw tomatoes and apple pie — never, tomato juice and raw tomatoes.

A meal should have a difference in flavour, that is, a Spanish Omelette and a fruit cup — never, liver and onions and spice cake.

A meal should have variety in colour, for instance, glazed carrots and lime jelly — never, cauliflower and bread pudding.

A meal should have good digestive foods, for example, roast chicken, and oodled apples — never, fried pork chops and spicy pie.

The day's meals should include milk or milk dishes, one serving of meat, fish, poultry or eggs, one serving of potatoes, two servings of vegetables — one raw and one coloured, one serving of citrus fruit juice or raw tomatoes, four to six slices of whole wheat bread or a whole-grained cereal product.

Now, plan your menus and plan to win.

There is an easy baking item you can make and deliver on September 7th, before 11 a.m., D.S.T. It is Apple Pie — without spice. Try your favourite recipe in a 9-inch pan or test our suggestion on the judges. Don't forget to put your name on a piece of adhesive tape and stick it to the pie pan, as well as fill out your entry blank.

Fluffy Desserts

By Consumer Section
MARKETING SERVICE

Dominion Department of Agriculture
Light fluffy desserts, made with eggs or whipped cream, are general favourites to top off summer meals. Cream or eggs, when used as a base for chilled or frozen desserts, give a lightness and smoothness unobtainable with any other ingredient.

Unfortunately for those who must pay strict attention to counting calories, rich desserts are taboo but, if counting calories is not an unhappy pastime in your family, many delightful treats are in store for you.

Since whipped cream is usually a main ingredient in rich desserts, it is important that certain points be observed when whipping cream. Who hasn't, at one time or other, found cream that just would not whip?

First and foremost the cream must be high enough in butter fat (testing at least 30% fat), otherwise it won't whip. In addition, the cream should be at least twenty-four hours old. Too fresh cream does not whip well. Then too, not only should the cream be well chilled but the bowl and beater also.

Cream should be whipped just until stiff and dry. Over-beating frequently results in the cream turning to butter or curdling. When sugar, colouring or flavouring is added to whipped cream it should be added, a little at a time, after the cream is quite stiff.

The following recipes, recommended by the home economists of the Consumer Section, Dominion Department of Agriculture, are just right for giving that party air to a family meal or for tickling the palates of your most epicurean guests.

Blueberry Whip

- 3 cups blueberries
- 1 cup water
- 1/3 cup sugar
- Dash of salt
- 2 teaspoons vinegar
- 1 tablespoon gelatine
- 1/4 cup water
- 1 cup whipping cream.

Cook blueberries and water for three minutes. Crush berries and force through a sieve. Add sugar, salt and vinegar, stirring until sugar is dissolved. Soak gelatine in the 1/4 cup water for five minutes; then dissolve in hot blueberry mixture. Chill and, when the mixture begins to thicken, fold in the whipped cream. Pour into one large mold or six individual moulds that have been rinsed in cold water. Chill until firm. Serve, topped with additional whipped cream and chopped nuts. Yield: Six servings.

Peach Mousse

- 1 teaspoon gelatine
- 2 tablespoons cold water
- 1 cup milk
- 1/2 cup sugar
- Dash of salt
- 1 teaspoon vanilla extract
- 1/2 teaspoon almond extract
- 1 cup peach pulp
- 1 tablespoon lemon juice
- 1 cup whipping cream.

Soak gelatine in the cold water for five minutes. Heat milk and dissolve the gelatine in it. Add sugar and salt. Cool. Add vanilla and almond extract and allow mixture to partially set. Blend peach pulp and lemon juice and fold into first mixture with whipped cream. Place in freezing trays or mechanical refrigerator and freeze, or place in mould, cover with waxed paper and tight-fitting cover and pack in ice and salt (6 parts ice to 1 part salt). Let stand 4 to 6 hours. Yield: Six servings.

C.P.A. STARTS AUSTRALIAN SERVICE

The traditional Hawaiian "alo" greets passengers at Honolulu on Canadian Pacific Air Lines' new Empress route to Australia. In lower picture above, the Empress of Sydney rests in front of the Aloha control tower at Honolulu Airport during 30-hour stop which gives passengers an opportunity for rest and sight-seeing in beautiful Hawaii. The idea of the C.P.A. Australian service is to travel by day and sleep by night on the 8,000-mile route, and other pictures above show how this is done. Upper left, Stewardesses Pamela Hookham, of Sydney, Australia, and Helen McCracken, of Vancouver, pause in their sight-seeing during overnight stop at Fiji to chat with a native at Nadi Airport. Centre left, some 20,000 feet above the broad Pacific, passengers enjoy full course meal, with W. J. Turnbull, Canada's Deputy Postmaster General, choosing a filet mignon, while Grant McConachie, president of C.P.A., looks on. Seated across the table from them are Gray Turgeon, Vancouver, and Air Vice-Marshal A. T. N. Cowley, Director of Air Services, Department of Transport. Upper right, passengers on the first flight are entertained by R. E. Dale, Acting Canadian Trade Commissioner, Sydney, and Mrs. Dale. GLENGARRY COUNTY.

Calfhood Vaccination Campaign

Bangs Disease (or Contagious Abortion) caused greater cattle losses than any other disease in this county in 1948.

Medicines and drugs are powerless in its control and should an animal contract the disease she harbours the organism for life.

Vaccination of heifer calves any time between 4 and 8 months of age is the only effective means of control.

Vaccination is cheap insurance as Vaccinated heifers are resistant to this disease.

75% of the calves born in Glengarry county in 1948 were vaccinated. Let us co-operate and do 100% in 1949.

Each Veterinarian in Glengarry county has been allotted a district and will call on all farmers in his district after July 15th for the purpose of vaccinating calves. Charge, 75c per head.

Young leopard frogs, thousands upon thousands of them, invaded Alexandria last week for five days, and by their very numbers made walking and driving unpleasant. Each night the street was covered with them as the frogs headed from the Mill Pond to green fields.—Provincial Constable R. H. Hawkshaw, of Cornwall, arrived last week end to succeed Constable E. Soubliere here. The latter goes to Ottawa.—Mildred McRae, 10, daughter of Mrs. Wm. McRae, McCormick's, made the trip alone, in late July, when she went by train to visit her father in Marquette, Man.—Mrs. A. M. Franklin has left Maxville to reside in Toronto.—John Norman MacLeod, of Dalkeith, was badly bruised recently when he fell off a load of hay.—A native of Dunvegan, Donald James McCuaig died in Toronto Wednesday. He had served as district superintendent of motive power and car equipment of the C.N.R. at Toronto.

Cowan and Cheney, Alexandria's representatives in the open doubles' competition of the Eastern Lawn Bowling Tournament at Ottawa, won their first round match against Angrove and Woodman of Kemptville by a 16-9 score.—A member of one of the pioneer families of this historic county, Mrs. Falkner, wife of Dr. Alexander Falkner, of Lancaster, formerly of Williamstown, died on July 25th at the venerable age of 82 years.—Miss Edith McLeister left on Monday to accept a position as stenographer on the staff of the Head Office of the Royal Bank of Canada, Montreal.—Miss Isobel MacLeod, of Dalkeith, was elected vice-president of the Kemptville Agricultural School Alumni Association at the annual meeting of that body held at the school on Saturday.—Attending the summer school for clergymen in session at St. Anne de Bellevue are: Rev. D. M. MacLeod, Alexandria; C. K. Mathewson, Kirk Hill; W. H. Cramm, Apple Hill; F. J. Vowles, Bainsville, and G. Watt Smith, of Vars.

Messrs. A. A. McMillan, McCormick, N. D. McLeod and J. A. Grey, Dunvegan; Neil McLeod, Laggan; D. D. and W. A. McGregor disposed of her handsome home, corner of Bishop and Kenyon Streets, to Mr. A. W. McMillan.

The cigarette is an outlaw in Minnesota. The new state law prohibiting the sale went into effect August 1st and it is now illegal to put them on the market.—A real estate deal consummated this week was the purchase by Mr. David Courville, hardware and furniture dealer of Vankleek Hill, of the Crystal Block from Messrs. P. Leslie & Son. Mr. Courville will take possession about Sept. 15th and our citizens will learn with regret that Mr. Leslie and his son contemplate going to Ottawa, where they will open business.—Miss Bessie Porter, stenographer in the office of Messrs. Youth's Self-Governing Unit Slashes Delinquency in City

Children in Pittsburgh's "city within a city" are saving the big folks about $25,000 a year. They do it by reducing false fire alarms and by curbing juvenile delinquency in other ways. "Hill City," as the project is known, is nestled deep in Pittsburgh's predominantly Negro hill district—referred to in sociological reports as a "blighted area." Governed by the youth of the district, under the supervision of Howard C. McKinney, founder of the agency, the "city" has its own mayor, council, judges, district attorney, police and a counterpart of every department and bureau in Pittsburgh's municipal government. City officials say the self-government process has worked well. For instance, in addition to the $25,000 saved by the reduction in false alarms, shoplifting in Pittsburgh stores has been reduced about 63 per cent, gang activities have been cut 96 per cent and vandalism more than 60 per cent.

Main purpose of Hill City is "to make the children feel they are not outcasts of society and that America offers them a future even though they are Negroes."

Any neighborhood child can join Hill City for 15 cents a year. No other charges are made. When entertainment is given, admission is never with money, but by some article of food, however small and cheap.

Cotton Plays Dual Role As Cool and Warm Fabric

Paradoxical as it may seem, cotton is one of the warmest, as well as coolest, fabrics.

Certain fabrics feel warm against the skin while others have a cool feel. This "feel," however, has been proven to have absolutely no bearing on the warmth that a fabric will provide. Fabrics which have raised fibers on the surface do not make good contact with the skin and therefore feel warm. Smooth fabrics have a cool feel because they do make good skin contact. Because most cotton fabrics are of the smooth surface type, an erroneous impression has been created that cottons are suited only to warm weather use.

Scientific research has revealed that it is the construction, thickness and finish of a fabric, rather than the kind of fiber, that determines heat transmission.

Recognizing these facts, the army adopted light-weight, wind-resistant cotton garments in place of heavy woolen overcoats for field service. These tightly constructed cottons, when used over a softer and more resilient undergarment, were shown to provide more warmth and comfort than the heavy overcoats.

It has been recognized for some time that lighter clothing is more healthful, but the army is the first to apply this scientific principle on a wide scale.

In Beautiful Switzerland

Scenically Switzerland is a spectacular showcase of snow peaks, quiet lakes, green hills, Graustarkian villages and resorts. There are enormous differences in altitude, ranging from the low point of 633 feet above sea level along Lake Maggiore in the Italian-speaking Ticino, to the soaring 15,203-foot spire of the Monte Rosa, in the Canton of the Valais. Wherever you go there are busy mountain railroads, funiculars and chair lifts. Hotel staffs speak English, French, German or assorted Swiss dialects. The tourist can go skiing on the Jungfrauoch in mid-July or relax in winter along the Riviera-like retreats along Lakes Lugano and Maggiore. Even the cities are fascinating places. In Zurich, Geneva, Berne and Basle, the picturesque old sections of town rub elbows with broad avenues lined with shops, theaters and modern office buildings.

Prime Need of Babies

All babies are born calcium poor because bones must be soft and flexible to survive birth; the newborn baby has not only a smaller amount but also a smaller percentage of calcium than the normal, fully developed body. Once safely born, however, the body needs to catch up rapidly in calcium to develop normally. Milk is rich in calcium to supply this need. In order to grow normally the child must increase the amount and percentage of calcium in his body at the same time that his body weight is increasing rapidly. So his need for calcium is greater than his need for other body-building materials.

New York State Indians

Iroquois Indians, entering the state of New York apparently from the West and Canada, settled in the area from the Mohawk valley to Niagara shortly before the beginning of European settlement. Forming by Iroquois confederacy about 1670, they drove out the Algonquin tribes who preceded them in the state. They then conducted a series of wars which made them rulers of Indian tribes extending to Florida on the south and the Mississippi on the west. Making up the confederacy were the Mohawks, Oneidas, Onondagas, Cayugas and Senecas.

Veterinarian Group Warns Of Lead Poisoning of Dogs

Whatever may be done with that old broomstick, don't let Fido use it as a plaything.

This warning, based on newly-published research on the problem of lead poisoning in dogs, is issued by the American Veterinary Medical association.

"Federal law requires the use of non-poisonous paint on children's toys," the A. V. M. A. explains. "But this doesn't apply to the paint used on household articles, walls and woodwork."

"In many cases, lead poisoning has been found responsible for fatal cases of fits in pet dogs. And the source of the lead has been traced to paint and other lead-containing items in the dog's otherwise healthful home."

The research report tells of six typical cases of lead poisoning of dogs. Five were fatal.

"In one case," the A. V. M. A. reports, "the dog's favorite toy was a well-chewed, red-painted broom. In another, the dog had been eating flecks of old paint from the outside walls of its home which was being repainted. Another victim came from a kennel where the woodwork had just been painted."

Source of the lead was not determined in the other cases, but post-mortem examinations showed the presence of poisonous amounts of the metal.

Mockingbird, Famed Mimic, Is Moving North and West

Mockingbird, loveliest of America's feathered singers, traditionally associated only with the magnolias and cypresses of the South, is moving northward. In recent years it has been reported in southern Canada and has become well known in New England, according to Alexander Sprunt Jr., ornithologist of Charleston, S. C., in a bulletin issued by Smithsonian institution.

"It has," he says, "undoubtedly been increasing its range northward and westward in recent years. It now is well known in New England and as far west as Knox county, Illinois, and parts of Iowa (Monroe county)."

The bulletin records that a pair of mockingbirds nested as far north as central Alberta during the summer of 1928. This is the most northerly point from which the bird has been recorded on the continent.

The mockingbird is famous chiefly for its ability, probably unexcelled among North American birds, to imitate the song of other birds, but it also has a remarkably sweet song of its own. It is recorded that one mocker could imitate 39 bird songs, 50 bird calls and the notes of a frog and a cricket.

When Planting Roses

One first step for the person who is to start a rose garden is to decide where the roses should be planted and how many plants should be ordered and then prepare the beds so plants can be set on arrival. Proper location of a rose bed is of utmost importance. Sunlight and drainage mean a great deal to the successful life of a rose. Full sunlight is desirable, although roses will flourish in sunlight half to two-thirds of the day. Since roses do their best in a fertile, well-drained soil, it will pay the amateur planter to choose a site in which (a) the soil is not too heavy for adequate drainage into the subsoil and (b) water does not tend to collect. It is also important not to place roses in an area in which competition from other plant roots is present.

Causes of Farm Fires

Fires cause several thousand deaths and injuries to farm people besides untold hardship and suffering each year. Most farm fires are due to eight preventable causes: (1) Defective chimneys; (2) Sparks on combustible roofs; (3) Inadequate lightning protection; (4) Carelessness with matches; (5) Spontaneous ignition; (6) Improper use of gasoline and kerosene; (7) Unsafe stove and furnace installation; (8) Misuse of electricity and appliances.

When Thinning Paint

When thinning a paint, varnish or lacquer product, it is exceedingly important to use the right kind of thinner, and then only according to the directions of the manufacturer, which usually are found printed on the containers of his products. For example, it would be absolutely wrong to use a lacquer thinner in house paint, or turpentine as a thinner in lacquer. If there is any doubt as to what to use, sound advice can be obtained from your paint dealer.

New Pig Disease

A puzzling paralysis has been blamed for many of the pig losses caused by an acute type of disease in baby pigs in the past two years. This disease is called hypoglycemia. It strikes pigs one to three days old and spreads rapidly through the litter. It is associated with a shortage of sugar in the blood, and most cases have been thought to occur because the newborn pig failed to nurse properly or because the sow's milk was insufficient.

Right To Appeal Oleo Bill Given By Privy Council

LONDON, July 27.—The Canadian Federation of Agriculture today was granted leave by the Judicial Committee of the Privy Council to appeal from a judgment of the Supreme Court of Canada that the Parliament of Canada has no power to prohibit manufacture of butter substitutes.

Lord Porter, announcing the decision, said the Law Lords were of the opinion that the appeal should go forward "expeditiously."

To Be Heard in Autumn

A Privy Council official said later the appeal probably will be heard during the Autumn.

The Federation's application for leave to appeal from the Supreme Court judgment was made by Frank Gahan, formerly of London, Ont. It was opposed by B. McKenna for the Attorney-General of Quebec and by Miss M. P. Hyndman, of Toronto, for the Canadian Association of Consumers.

Gahan contended there was ground for appeal in the fact that there was "much difference of opinion" among the Justices of the Supreme Court regarding the validity of Section 5-A of the Dairy Industry Act.

Despite these differences, the Supreme Court had upheld the section insofar as it prohibited the importation into Canada of oleomargarine, margarine, butterine or other butter substitutes.

The court found, however, that the section went beyond the power of the Dominion Parliament in prohibiting the manufacture of such substitutes.

Gahan said the Parliament of Canada had since 1886 prohibited the manufacture and sale of butter substitutes with the exception of a period during the First World War when the sale of oleomargarine was permitted as an emergency measure.

Miss Hyndman, opposing the application, said the judgment delivered by the Supreme Court, Dec. 14th, 1948, was a firm and effective answer to an important constitutional question.

McKenna said there was no valid reason in law why the judgment should be disputed.

Seeking Outlets For 30,000,000 Pounds Of Butter

Government experts today were deep in thought, trying to find a solution to a problem that has hit the government for the first time since confederation.

It is how to dispose of steadily-increasing accumulations of top-quality butter which the government has been purchasing during the last three months under a price-support program to keep the wholesale level at 58 cents a pound.

These accumulations, stored at various centres across the country, now total more than 42,000,000 pounds and the expectancy is that when the production season is over in September, they will have reached almost 60,000,000 pounds.

Cost $30,000,000

Besides storage costs, the government so far has spent more than $24,000,000 buying up the surplus butter and expects to spend at least an additional $6,000,000 before production slows up and the supply situation tightens.

Some of the experts believe the government will have little trouble disposing of the butter, selling the product in carload lots at 58 cents a pound to any buyer that offers to take the product off government hands.

They recall that at this time last year when private industry stored butter, surplus stocks amounted to 30,000,000 pounds and Canada was forced to import 15,000,000 pounds during the winter months to meet a critical shortage.

However, margarine since has made its legal appearance on the Canadian market and some of the demand for butter has been absorbed by the butter substitute which has been selling at lower prices than butter and forcing the butter price down.

Expect Loss

This had led other government experts to doubt whether the accumulations can be disposed of easily without a slight government loss.

But they add that the whole question of disposal and price will depend on demand and availability during the coming Fall and Winter months when Canada has to depend on storage accumulations to fill consumer requirements.

Ottawa Girl Loses Three Fingers While On Vacation

Marilyn Argue, seven-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Argue, 133 Holland avenue, Ottawa, met with a painful accident recently while she and her parents were holidaying at the farm of her grandmother, Mrs. R. E. Argue, and her uncle, Edward Argue.

Keen to be of assistance in the hay-making operations, Marilyn's hand became entangled in a heavy pulley. She was rushed immediately to the Arm-prior and District Hospital, where it was found necessary to amputate three fingers on her left hand.

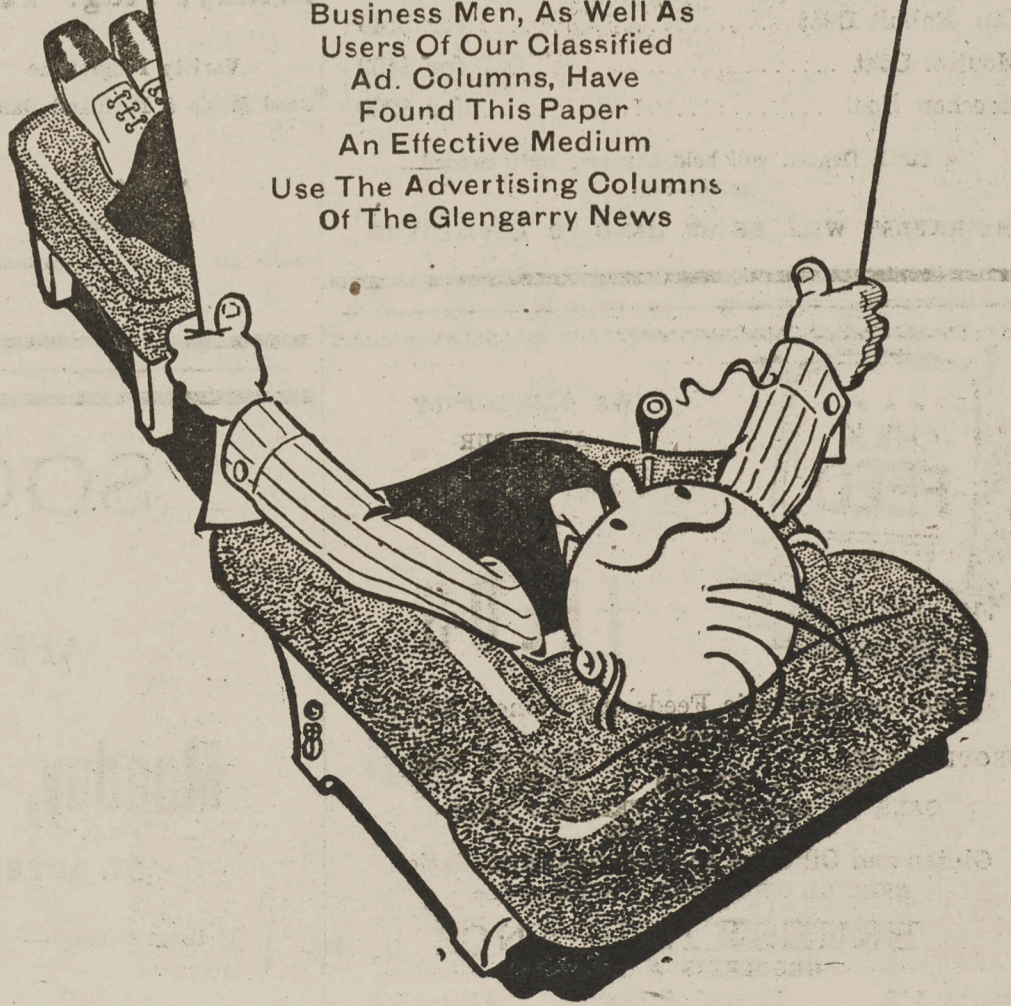

The young girl, who spends vacations frequently with her grandmother, is well known in the district. She is now recuperating at her home in Ottawa.

Miss Marilyn is also a granddaughter of Mrs. D. K. MacLeod at Dunvegan, where she spent her babyhood days with her mother (the former Ruth MacLeod), while her daddy was in the Air Force services. Her winsome ways won for her many friends, young and old, who wish for her a speedy recovery.

Historic St Mary's Church At Williamstown Marking 100th Year

When St. Mary's Roman Catholic Church staged its annual outdoor social on the spacious grounds in front of the attractive stone structure Wednesday, July 27th, special significance was attached to the much anticipated show.

For it officially marked the 100th anniversary of the building of the church. It was in 1849 that the last stone was placed and the church was opened to meet the religious needs of a scattered congregation.

One of the oldest churches in the United Counties, St. Mary's has a rich and colourful history. Its cemetery, well-tended and carefully trimmed, bears the last remains of some of the great Scottish, Irish and French families of another era—families who hewed civilization out of what was then a wilderness.

Parish priest is Rev. A. L. McDonald, big, jovial and amazingly familiar with the history of Glengarry. Born in Alexandria, Father McDonald can recall much of the folklore treasured by residents of most Scottish communities.

Early Days

Roman Catholics of earlier days in the Williamstown area were served by the substantial church at St. Raphael's. Most of the people were United Empire Loyalists who came to Glengarry from the Mohawk valley under the leadership of the great Sir John Johnston. Sir John called Williamstown after his father, William Johnston.

First pastor at St. Mary's was Rev. Francis McDonagh. He was succeeded by Rev. I. J. McCarthy, who in turn was succeeded by Rev. C. H. Gauthier. He later became Archbishop of Kingston and of Ottawa. It was while Father Gauthier served at St. Mary's that the small chapel still standing at Martintown was built.

Father McDonald came to St. Mary's in 1928. Since that time he has devoted himself to constantly improving the church, its grounds and the religious activities of its parishioners.

Church Redecorated

Redecorated in 1915 and 1916, the church has been untouched since that time. Minor repairs and alterations have been carried out occasionally but for the most part the building is unchanged. The outward appearance has not been altered since 1916.

The church serves about 265 families in the Williamstown district. It seats 650 people. The interior is spotless and shines with the subdued gleam of most sacred edifices. Pride of the parishioners, and of Father McDonald, is the manner in which the church itself and the grounds are maintained in perfect condition.

"Credit for this must go to the wonderful spirit of co-operation which exists in the parish," Father McDonald said. "So many people have stopped to remark on our well kept cemetery and the spotless interior of our church. The Catholic Women's Guild with its many committees has done and is still doing a wonderful job in this connection."

Convent Erected

At one time an excellent convent existed near the church. This was erected in 1865 by the Sisters of the Congregation of Notre Dame, Montreal. It burned, however, in a disastrous fire in 1892.

The church's centenary has been celebrated quietly and no special plans have been made for the occasion. Special spiritual exercises were observed in late June when a week-long mission in French and a similar mission in English were sponsored.

The cemetery almost tells the story of the church for those who have a nodding acquaintance with the history of Glengarry. Some of the great families who settled that part of the country were buried in the neat plots.

There are tombstones marking the graves of the Fraser's—Colonel Archibald and Colonel Alexander. There are the McLellan plots, making the last resting place for that great family which gained fame in the lumbering business of Western Ontario. There is the grave of D. R. MacDonald and of Angus "Registar" MacDonald—so called because of the position he held in Williamstown many years ago.

And, too, there are the graves of great French settlers. The Cashion family, the Roussin's, the Gadois family and those who bore the proud name, Daoust are buried here. They were all part of Glengarry in the days of horse and buggy, simple pleasures and a happy, busy people.

Manor House

When Sir John Johnston brought his people to Williamstown he built what still is known as the Manor House. This is one of the oldest continually inhabited houses in Ontario. It was later bought by Hugh McGillis, who donated the land upon which stands the present St. Mary's Parish House and cemetery. He died in 1848. Four years later, when St. Mary's was built, a grateful congregation placed a marble tablet on the inner church wall directly over his grave.

Hugh McGillis's brother, John, took over the home. His daughters and sons married prominent people in various parts of the country. The building was later bought by Farquhar McLennan, well known barrister who passed away last year.

The Manor House is now owned by Lionel Devaux. Additions have been made to the original building, but the first part of the structure still stands. It nestles in a grove of pine trees, secluded, peaceful and silent guardian of an almost forgotten period in Williamstown's history. Directly across the road stands St. Mary's Church, fittingly enough erected on land which once echoed to the tramp of the feet of the builder of the Manor House.

Church Interior

The interior of St. Mary's seems to welcome the visitor. Light shines through two huge stained glass windows on either side of the main altar. One of these windows is believed to be the first of its kind in the world, for it bears the faces of the Canadian Martyrs. It was installed and blessed on the very day on which the martyrs were canonized in Rome. It is dedicated to the memory of John Chisholm and his parents—another family which helped write "Little Scotland's" history.

And so St. Mary's celebrates its 100th anniversary. And there is an air of peace and simplicity in the unassuming observances of this event. Perhaps this is as it should be. For St. Mary's was erected by simple people whose faith helped build the nation that is Canada.

Railway operating expenses and revenues registered an all time high in 1948. While operating expenses went from $683,045.372 to $798,474.125, an increase of 16.9 per cent, revenue increases aggregated $866,548.950, a rise of only 11.6 per cent.

Miss M.A. Fraser Dies At Lancaster

The many friends of Miss Mary A. Fraser were grieved to learn of her death, which occurred at her home, 4th Concession, Lancaster, on Sunday morning, July 17th. Her health had been impaired for a number of years although she was able to be about her room until a month ago. Her Christian faith helped her to bear her infirmities with resignation and patience and she possessed a cheerful disposition which was admired by those who knew her, as well as by the ones entrusted with her care. Her life was distinguished by unselfishness; her own welfare and comfort were always the last consideration and she possessed a gift for being friendly and making friends. She celebrated her 94th birthday last February.

Born in the 2nd of Charlottenburgh in 1855, Miss Fraser was the daughter of the late Peter Fraser and his wife, Catherine McLennan. She was the last surviving member of a family of six.

The past seventy years of her life were spent at the Ross homestead, 4th Concession, Lancaster. She was a member of St. Andrew's Presbyterian Church, a valued Life Member of the Glen Gordon W.M.S., and also a W.C.T.U. member.

Left to mourn her loss are two sisters-in-law, Mrs. Rod P. Fraser, of Ingelw, Man., and Mrs. F. W. Fraser, of Lancaster; Miss Rebecca Grant, a constant companion for a number of years; three nieces and four nephews, Mrs. R. Douglas, Melville and Pierson of Edmonton; Mrs. James Doak and Alex Fraser, of Ingelw, Man.; Miss Margaret Fraser and Ross Fraser, on the homestead; also several grand-nieces and nephews.

The funeral was held on Tuesday afternoon from her home, where a short service was conducted by her pastor, Rev. Norman F. Sharkey. The cortege proceeded to St. Andrew's Church, Lancaster, where Rev. Mr. Sharkey paid special tribute to her Christian life, taking as his scripture lessons, passages from 14 chapter of St. John, 21st Revelations and 39th Psalm. Hymns sung were favourites of the deceased, "The Lord's My Shepherd," and "The Sweet Bye and Bye."

The pallbearers were R. S. Wightman, James Wightman, Arnold McPherson, George McCallum, John R. Fournier and Clark McLennan. Flower bearers were E. L. McNaughton and William Clarke.

The floral tributes were a wreath, Mrs. F. W. Fraser and Margaret; basket, Mr. and Mrs. Ross Fraser and Muriel; sprays, Mr. and Mrs. Donald Finlayson, Miss Rebecca Grant, Mr. and Mrs. William Nye, Victoria, B.C., and Mr. and Mrs. Harry Nye, Ottawa. Friends from a distance were Mr. and Mrs. Donald Finlayson, Smiths Falls; Mrs. Helga Balkwell, Winchester; Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Levac, Montreal; Mr. Levac and Mrs. Joe Lalonde, River Beaudette; Mr. J. W. Clarke and Miss Muriel Kennedy, Maxville; Mr. and Mrs. Joe Sauve, East Front; Mr. and Mrs. D. J. Upton, Mrs. R. D. McNaughton, of Cornwall; Mrs. Katie Morrison, Miss Martha Dewar and Roddie Dewar, of Dalhousie.
