MAJOR SHOWN STRONG SUPPORT FOR AUGUST VOTE

Glengarry M.P. Named Candidate By Representative Meeting

Second Liberal To Be Nominated To Contest New Glengarry - Prescott Riding In Federal Election Called For August 10th

W. J. Major, M.P., Glengarry, was given strong evidence of support in the August 10th federal election at a nomination meeting in Vankleek Hill, Thursday of last week, which unanimously selected him as Liberal candidate in the new Glengarry-Prescott constituency. Nominated but two days earlier by another group also terming themselves the Glengarry-Prescott Federal Liberal Association, was a second Liberal candidate, Raymond Bruneau, M.P., Prescott, in the last House.

Both are definitely in the field on a Liberal basis at this time.

Thursday's convention drew well over 500 Liberals to Vankleek Hill and there were strong representations from both counties. So large was the crowd that it was found necessary to move the meeting from the town hall to the parish hall, which also proved inadequate to seat everyone. A fine representation of 69 of a possible 74 Glengarry delegates was registered, with 81 of 96 Prescott delegates reporting on the first call.

The meeting was orderly throughout and efficiently conducted and was without expected fireworks. The only strong references to the Bruneau candidature came in the address of J. O. Gour, M.P., Russell, who characterized him as "not a responsible person". In contrast he termed Mr. Major the better man, a solid type who was highly regarded by the government at Ottawa.

Nominated with Mr. Major, were Dr. D. J. Dolan of Alexandria, president of the Glengarry Liberal Association, and Roland Pilon, president of the new two-county federal association. Both withdrew their names in favor of Mr. Major who was declared the unanimous choice of the meeting.

Sharing the platform with officers of the association were three members of the Commons who had come to lend Mr. Major their moral support. They were Leo Gauthier, M.P., Sudbury; George McInraith, M.P., West Ottawa and parliamentary assistant to Hon. C. D. Howe, minister of trade and commerce, and Mr. Gour of Russell. All three concluded their talks with appeals for the active support of Mr. Major's candidature.

Also present was J. C. Allen of Ottawa, president of the Eastern Ontario Liberal Federation, and who had been the object of much criticism and not a little name-calling at the Bruneau convention. Mr. Allen did not speak.

Approved by the meeting was a resolution passed at a recent meeting of the association executive. It would amend the constitution to permit the addition of two more vice-presidents from Prescott County. Appointed were Henri Proulx of L'Orignal, and Noel Berthiaume, of Hawkesbury, who is president of the association supporting Bruneau.

In accepting the candidature, Mr. Major expressed his thanks to those who had withdrawn in his favor and he had warm praise, too, for those responsible for the organization and conduct of such a fine, orderly nomination meeting. He termed it a good augury for his campaign that the whole Glengarry-Prescott riding should be so thoroughly represented at the convention.

Fourth Degree K. of C Held Dinner Dance

A large number of the members of Bishop Alexander Macdonell General Assembly Fourth Degree Knights of Columbus, their wives and lady friends motored to the Village Inn, Massena, N.Y., last Thursday evening to enjoy a formal dinner dance.

Faithful Navigator Sir Knight Josephus Filion welcomed the Sir Knights and their ladies, expressing the wish all would enjoy themselves to the fullest extent.

Grace was offered by the chaplain, Sir Knight Rev. Francis Lefebvre, and the following toasts were proposed: to the President of the United States, by Sir Knight P. C. Bergeron; to the Queen, by Sir Knight N. J. Battista; to the Pope, by Sir Knight Rev. A. L. Cameron.

The entertainment was under the direction of the chairman, Sir Knight George Bergeron, assisted by Sir Knight James Algure.

Bruneau To Retire?

Speculation that Raymond Bruneau will fail to qualify as a candidate in the forthcoming federal election in this riding was raised by an article in Le Droit, Ottawa daily newspaper, Saturday. The item suggested that Mr. Bruneau would be offered another post by the government and that officials of the National Liberal Federation might be asked to intervene.

This could be a feeler put out so as to get public reaction, a practice commonly indulged in by governments.

Quizzed at a press conference, Friday, on the situation in this new constituency, Prime Minister St. Laurent would only say that it was "most unfortunate".

Discuss Possibility Of Hospital Here

Members of Alexandria Legion Branch, at their regular meeting here, Tuesday, discussed the possibility of spear-heading a campaign to establish a hospital in Alexandria. The present High School buildings are being eyed as a possible hospital plant.

It was decided to try and arrange a meeting of groups and individuals from the town who might be primarily interested in such a project. It will be held at the Legion Clubrooms, Friday, July 3rd.

Named The Dog And Won It

Colombe Tourangeau, 13-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Tourangeau, R.R. 1, Cornwall, formerly of Alexandria, is the Ontario winner of CBC television's name the dog contest. For her entry of "Sunshine" as the name of a Cocker Spaniel, Colombe wins the dog. The contest was on CBC's Small Fry Frolics.

A.H.S. Boys Set Out Monday On Week's Bus Tour To New York

Four days of sight-seeing and other entertainment in New York City lie ahead for 35 boys from Alexandria High School. They leave Monday morning for Manhattan, Brooklyn and the Bronx, on the third annual bus trip organized by Lorne Whelan of the AHS staff.

Travelling with the boys will be Mr. Whelan and Peter Sloan of the teaching staff, and Louis Shepherd, who will be piloting one of his school buses.

New York has many sights the boys plan on seeing and a professional guide's services have been secured for Wednesday when a comprehensive tour of the city will be made. The Statue of Liberty will be seen and the boys like the prospect of a 5-mile scenic ride on a Staten Island ferry for the big price of 5 cents. There will be visits to the United Nations building, Wall Street, Chinatown, the Bowery and many other points of interest. That evening Broadway's night life will be observed.

The view of the city from the Empire State building is on Thursday morning's schedule and for many of the boys that afternoon's program is the big attraction, a visit to the Polo Grounds to see the New York Yankees and Chicago White Sox playing big league baseball. If that isn't enough for one day, a trip to Coney Island should fill their cups. That, too, is planned.

Brooklyn will be visited Friday morning before the bus heads home-

Col D. C. Cameron Director Of Infantry

Col. D. C. Cameron, D.S.O. and bar, a native of Lochiel, has been appointed director of infantry at headquarters, Ottawa, in a move which brings him from Camp Borden. There he had been serving as commandant of the Royal Canadian School of Infantry.

Army headquarters at Ottawa made the announcement late last week.

Colonel Cameron, 42, succeeds Col. Donald Forbes, D.S.O., of Sydney, C.B., who is going to Germany as a military attaché. Lt.-Col. Peter R. Bingham, D.S.O., who recently brought the 1st battalion, Royal Canadian Regiment, back from Korea, is promoted to the rank of colonel and will succeed Colonel Cameron at Camp Borden.

The new director of infantry, who twice won the D.S.O. while commanding the Hastings & Prince Edward Regiment in Italy during World War II, is a son of Mrs. R. W. Cameron of Alexandria.

Transferred To Scotland

From Uruguay to Scotland is quite a distance and quite a change. Ignatius Lloyd MacDonald, who has been visiting his brothers, J. Daniel MacDonald, Glen Nevis, leaves with Mrs. MacDonald and infant son, tomorrow, to take up residence in Edinburgh. They will fly out of Dorval Airport, making the trip in ten hours.

Mr. MacDonald, who had spent several years in Montevideo with the North British Rubber Co., has been transferred to Scotland.

His favorite paper will follow him c/o North British Rubber Co., Castle Mills, Edinburgh 3.

ward. Somewhere in the busy schedule, somehow, there has to be squeezed in a visit to the Roosevelt home at Hyde Park.

The tour gets underway at 10 a.m. Monday and it is planned to reach Albany that evening, travelling via the Roosevelt Bridge at Cornwall. An early start Tuesday will bring them to their goal by noon and allow for a preliminary tour of the city that day before Wednesday and Thursday's heavier schedules.

New York hotels or motels along the way won't benefit too much from this tour. The boys will pitch their own tents each night making use of parks in the big city if possible.

Scheduled to make the trip with Messrs. Whelan, Sloan and Shepherd are the following students:

May Cheese Tops 28 On Cornwall Exchange

The cheese exchange at Cornwall met Monday for the first time in several weeks when 10,954 boxes of April and May cheese was sold. Some went to buyers and some to the Ontario Cheese Producers' Marketing Board.

April white amounted to 2,807 boxes. It went to buyers at 27 9/16 cents a pound, plus one quarter cent for waxed. Some went to the Marketing Board at 27 1/2 cents. April colored cheese numbering 188 boxes was disposed of in the same manner at the same prices.

A total of 7,753 boxes of May-made white went to buyers for 23 1/16 cents with an extra quarter-cent for waxed. Colored, numbering 206 boxes, went to buyers for 23 1/2, while the Marketing Board got some at 28 cents.

Buyers included Olive and Dorion, George Hodge and Sons, and Lovell and Christmas.

The exchange will meet Thursday in the old council chambers at 4 o'clock.

War Dead Honored At Williamstown

Residents of Williamstown and Charlottenburgh Township paid tribute to those who served and gave their lives in two World Wars, when a light gray, granite war memorial was unveiled beside the Township Hall, Sunday afternoon.

While a blistering-hot sun beat down on silent faces and sometimes tearful eyes, Major J. A. M. MacNeil, of the Stormont, Dundas and Glengarry Highlanders — a native son of Williamstown who served his country with distinction — called on a lady, Mrs. Dan A. McDonell, who sent five sons to war, and a padre recently returned from active service to unveil the impressive monument erected by the Williamstown Community Club.

The observance began with a parade from the High School to the square led by four veterans carrying the colors of Claude Nunney, V.C., Branch, Lancaster, and Glengarry Branch, No. 312, Apple Hill, of the Canadian Legion. Then came the members of Lancaster, Apple Hill, Cornwall and Alexandria Canadian Legion branches in their blue berets and wearing their medals, under command of Legionnaire John McLaren of Lancaster. They were followed by the High School cadets and the S.D. & G. pipe band.

The cadets — both boys and girls — Legionnaires and S.D. & G. officers snapped to the salute as a new Union Jack was broken out from the staff over the square for the first time by war-veteran Parade Marshal Rene Rozon, and the pipes greeted the colors with "Bonnie Dundee". From the throats of a choir of Williamstown Public School pupils came the strains of "Canada, Canada Proudly We Hail Thee".

Capt. Norman F. Sharkey, of St. Andrew's Presbyterian Church at Lancaster and veteran of the Second World War and post-war service with the 27th Brigade, assisted Mrs. Dan R. McDonell in drawing aside the flag draped over the monument.

The bright sunlight emphasized the brilliance of the word "Remembrance . . ." as the red, white and blue folds of the Jack fell away. Mrs. McDonell sent five sons on active service and four returned.

As the staff flag moved slowly to half-mast, Major MacNeil, as master-of-ceremonies, called for two minutes' silence. It was broken by the notes of the Last Post and Reveille from the bugle of Percy Smith of Cornwall. Pipe - Major Bert Sutherland piped a lament.

A wreath for the Silver Cross Mothers of Canada was laid at the foot of the cenotaph by Mrs. Helen Daoust of Williamstown; for the Legion by Dennis Lynch of Lancaster, and for the Highlanders by Capt. L. J. McCoshan, another Williamstown native, S.D. & G. quartermaster. Following the wreath-laying the school children sang the hymn "Now Thank We All Our God".

Fitting words of remembrance and dedication were voiced by Rev. D. A. Kerr, St. Raphael's parish priest and a former Glengarry's R.C. chaplain; Rev. G. W. Irvine of Williamstown United Church, and Rev. N. F. Sharkey of Lancaster.

Other speakers were John McLennan, Charlottenburgh township reeve, and Ernest Algure, Com-

Maxville Fair Is On This Week-End

Exceptional entries in Holsteins promise the biggest Black & White day in the history of Maxville Spring Show which is this week's big attraction. Ayrshire, Jersey and Beef breeds are also well represented but the Holstein show promises to be something extra special. Heavy horse classes promise to be very good and there will be at least two 6-horse hitches and two 4-horse hitches. Light horses will be more numerous than ever with several exhibitors from Ormstown and Lachute vying.

Harness horse racing entries are well filled and the biggest Hall exhibit in the Fair's history is promised with several new exhibitors showing. Machinery demonstrations are also greatly expanded.

Visitors to the Fair on Friday and Saturday will be struck by the "new look" of the grounds with their memorial arch at the entrance and a complete painting and pruning job on the buildings, grandstand and grounds. Dr. Don Gamble, president, and several of his more active directors are mainly responsible for the many improvements to plant that have been made.

On the entertainment side there will be the midway including ferris wheel, airplane ride, a chair ride for the kiddies, etc. Several booths are being manned locally, by the Maxville Curling Club ladies, the Alexandria Kinsmen and other organizations.

Hot meals will be served both days by local women's organizations.

General Amusements Co. of Canada will provide grandstand entertainment both nights and there will be light horse classes Friday night with a special innovation Saturday night — a poor man's horse and outfit class, slightly out of this world. It will be complete with clowns, we hear.

As usual, Fair activities will close with a big dance in Jubilee Rink.

Green Valley Home Changes Hands

The old home of Mrs. James Emberg, Green Valley, and the large lot fronting it on Highway 34 have been purchased by Leo Lajole, Green Valley. Mr. Lajole plans only to renovate the house for the present.

Jet Pilot Met Duke Of Edinburgh

When the Duke of Edinburgh recently visited the RCAF's No. 1 Fighter Wing at North Luffenham, England, one of the 24 F-86 Sabre jet pilots he chatted with was Flying Officer Norman MacKeracher of Calgary.

A news photo of the incident appeared in the Calgary Herald and a copy has been received by Mrs. Peter McNaughton, Green Valley, from her brother in Eston, Sask. Mrs. Colin MacKeracher, mother of F/O MacKeracher, resides at Eston. Her late husband was a son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Dan MacKeracher, Green Valley.

Flying Officer MacKeracher and his bride visited in Glengarry some five years ago while he was stationed at Dorval airport.

Men Of D. Company To Sharpen Shooting

Some ten members of "D" Company, S.D. & G. Highlanders, under Sergt. Gilbert Sauve, leave Alexandria at noon, Saturday, to join other members of the unit for a week-end of target shooting at Connaught Ranges, Ottawa. The Reserve Army men will get practice on the 303 rifle, the Bren gun and the Sten during their Sunday on the range.

Sold Share In Meat Business

Albert Vachon today completed the sale of his share in the butcher shop he recently opened in partnership with Oscar Joannette. Mr. Joannette will continue the business on his own, we understand. Mr. Vachon proposes going into the droving business.

Leo Ladouceur, 40, Former Alexandrian Killed In Crash

Resident Of Glen Walter Instantly Killed Monday Night, When Car Crashed Into Transport On Highway 2

A native of Alexandria, Leo Ladouceur, 40, of Glen Walter, was instantly killed Monday night when his car crashed head-on into a transport on Highway 2 on the stretch of road bordering the Soulanges canal. The victim was reportedly en route to visit a sister and was driving eastward, alone, when the accident occurred.

His car is reported to have crashed head-on into a transport about midway along the 12-mile canal stretch, east of Coteau, Que. The car was wrecked.

The son of Mr. and Mrs. Hermine Ladouceur, now of Cornwall, deceased was born at Alexandria and attended the local schools before moving to Cornwall, where he had since resided. He was employed for 20 years with Canadian Cottens and had recently started work at Howard Smith Paper Mills.

His widow and nine children survive, as well as his parents, two brothers and seven sisters.

Mrs. Ladouceur is the former Stella McNamara of Cornwall. Three sons and six daughters mourn his loss: Gerald in the Canadian Army at Regina; Percy and Michel, and Anita, Shirley, Norma, Jeanette, Diana and Eva, all at home.

Other survivors include two brothers and seven sisters: Ernest and Floyd, Cornwall; Mrs. Percy Miller, Mrs. Gerald Carriere, Mrs. Aldema Pigeon, Miss Lucienne Ladouceur, all of Cornwall; Mrs. E. C. Sinema, Ottawa; Mrs. John Messervie, Asbestos Mines, Que., and Mrs. Rene Boisvenue, Alexandria.

The funeral is being held Friday morning, leaving the Miller Funeral Home, Cornwall, at 8:30 o'clock for the Church of the Precious Blood, Flanagan's Point. Interment will be in Flanagan's Point cemetery.

Alfred Man Takes Over Gas Station

Simeon Tourangeau of Alfred, on Monday took possession of the White Rose Service Station and Garage which he last week purchased from A. W. Trotter. The deal included the Service Station and upstairs apartment as well as the garage in rear.

Mrs. Tourangeau and their two children will join him here next week when Mr. and Mrs. Trotter expect to remove to an apartment on Lochiel street. Mr. Trotter's plans are indefinite, though he will remain in Alexandria. He has not been in the best of health for the past few years and expects to undergo an operation in the near future.

Mr. Tourangeau will be welcomed to the business life of this community. He has had 19 years' experience in garage work at Alfred and Hawkesbury, which should well equip him for his new business.

Kinsmen Bungalow Won By St. Johns Man

A St. Johns, Que., resident, Romano Tozzoli, was winner of the Coronation Bungalow drawn for Saturday by the Kinsmen Club of Montreal. He held lucky ticket No. F-21950. Of the ten consolation winners, nine were from the Montreal area and one from Amos, Que.

Though no Glengarryman was lucky enough to be among the winners, a sizable sum of money stayed in local Kinsmen Club coffers from the sale of the tickets. It will go for service work in this area.

:: LEGION ACTIVITIES ::

The regular general meeting of the Alexandria Branch was held at the Legion Clubrooms on Tuesday night. In spite of the heat and heavy work of our former members there was a fair crowd present.

Deputy Zone Commander Fred Deer reported on the coming Zone Picnic for all veterans in the Zone to be held on Sunday, July 19th, under the sponsorship of the Apple Hill Branch. This will be a basket picnic and there will be treats, games and races for all the children. The picnic will be held at Charlottenburgh Park.

The treasurer, H. B. Nyman, presented a very good financial report or Coronation day, which showed a fine profit.

A discussion took place on calling a meeting of all clubs and organizations in the county, as well as the doctors, dentists and municipal officials and other prominent citizens. It was unanimously passed that we contact all these citizens as soon as possible to attend a meeting to discuss the possibilities of starting a hospital for Alexandria and district.

A Korean Veterans' reception will be held on Wednesday, July 8th, at the Clubrooms. We ask anyone in the district to contact the Legion if there is someone we have not heard about who has recently returned from Korea.

The Clubrooms will be open on Saturday night for members and their friends.

GIVE OUR REGARDS TO OLD BROADWAY

Thirty-five thrilled Alexandria High School boys head for the big town, Monday, on a six-day bus trip to New York City. Judging by their itinerary they plan to see everything from the Statue of Liberty to Chinatown; including Mickey Mantle and the Yankees at the Polo Grounds.

We can't help thinking we were born 25 years too soon. And then again there was no Lorne Whalen around to organize such tours when we were in search of learning. Good travelling and a safe return, boys.

A CAMPAIGN WITHOUT PARALLEL

Federal voting is set now for August 10th, but for the Glengarry voter this election will be something entirely new and different. For the first time in our history Glengarry will not have the opportunity of selecting a Member to the House of Commons exclusively its own. Now we are joined with neighboring Prescott and a whole new set of circumstances confronts us.

We face, too, the unheard of situation of two candidates each of whom will be appealing to the voters as the "official" Liberal standard-bearer. In Glengarry, we think, the choice will not be difficult. W. J. Major will have solid support, if we are to judge from the fact that 69 of 74 possible delegates from Glengarry journeyed to Vankeek Hill to attend the convention which nominated him. In contrast only ten or so Glengarrymen were at the Bruneau convention, by report, and only one or two of those could be classed as Glengarry Liberal functionaries.

Major is a known quantity in Glengarry, a long-time worker in the Liberal fold who can depend on the solid support of Liberal party workers. That he will have the support, too, of old-line Liberals in Prescott is indicated by the large turnout of Prescott county delegates and others to the convention which nominated him.

Mr. Bruneau, on the other hand, is almost unknown in this county and he faces the opposition of Liberal officials with whom he refused to work sympathetically in integration of the new riding association. Prescott is more of an unknown quantity, but there, too, the opposition to his candidature seems solidly based and widely shared. He is not considered a true-blue Liberal by many of the most active party workers and they have pledged their support to Mr. Major.

At this early stage in the election his position appears very favorable. But anything can happen in a campaign. There is no word yet of a Conservative choice of candidate and that could adversely affect either Liberal nominee's vote. There could even be a third-party candidate to change the picture.

It all adds up to an interesting campaign, one without parallel in Glengarry's recent history.

A HOME FOR THE RAINBOWS

Word out of Lancaster of plans for a big Community Centre will be welcomed not only by residents of the immediate area but in a particular way by sports enthusiasts of this whole area. The community hall will be of value more to citizens of the Lancaster district but the arena, the curling rink and the playing field should prove a fillip to area sport in many fields.

Lancaster has indeed a topnotch hockey team year after year in spite of its lack of a covered rink. Its fans have demonstrated an unusually warm support of their team even when that cheering section had to travel to Alexandria to see Rainbow 'home' games. Now the Rainbows will have the advantage of playing in their own hometown which will be a definite 'break' for their supporters and will undoubtedly do much to develop young players capable of filling the places of ageing stars.

With an arena at Lancaster, the way will be open for further development of a compact four-town league comprising Maxville, Vankeek Hill, Lancaster and Alexandria. And it would not necessarily be confined to hockey. All four towns will have curling rinks, too, and ball diamonds for the development of baseball and softball. Badminton is another possibility. Completion of the community-centre scheme at Lancaster will give Glengarry the facilities needed for a comprehensive county-wide sports program such as was envisaged by Don Gamble of Maxville, a few years ago.

The Lancaster plan is an ambitious one. It will cost a tidy sum. But spread over the whole area it is realizable without individual contributions having to be too big. Former residents of the Lake St. Francis shore and summer visitors of this day can be expected to help out and Government grants will cover a considerable part of the cost.

As a memorial to the large number of village and township citizens who have served in two wars, the appeal is a worthy one which should find wide support. Lancaster is fortunate, too, in having a young and vigorous Legion Branch, with strong leadership, to head the drive.

All Glengarrymen will watch with interest progress of the plans. The campaign should have their material as well as moral support.

EDUCATION ASSISTANCE FOR PENSIONED

Pensioned children of men whose death was attributable to service in World Wars I or II or in Korea are now eligible for financial assistance for higher education in Canada. The help is available through the Children of War Dead (Education Assistance) Act, which becomes effective July 1st.

Under the Act a monthly allowance of $25 is payable during the period, up to four academic years, in which a graduate of a secondary school pursues a full-time intra-mural course. In addition, tuition and other fees may be paid on the same basis as applied to veterans in university training.

The education may be in a Canadian university, a teachers' college, school of nursing or provincial technical school.

Any Glengarry High School graduate eligible may secure further information or an application form from the nearest office of the Department of Veterans Affairs at Veterans Welfare Services Branches.

Canada Prepares To Deal With Disaster

ARTICLE IV

WHAT YOU CAN DO ABOUT THOSE BOMBS

Your life may depend upon how you act if your community undergoes air attack, according to federal civil defence authorities. In their popular handbook, "Personal Protection under Atomic Attack", the experts give some basic rules for action before, during and after a raid, and it all boils down to knowing what to do and how to do it.

The information in the preparedness manual is related to other material issued by Ottawa for distribution through the provinces and municipalities to all Canadians, in the hope that, being forewarned, they will escape death or serious injury even under assault with the most modern war weapons. For, say, the authorities, there are ways of protecting yourself and, if they possess trained and equipped emergency services, whole communities can minimize the effects of disaster, whether enemy-inspired or of such natural occurrence as fire, flood, quake or explosion.

WITH WARNING When an air raid warning sounds you may expect at least five minutes grace before disaster strikes, if the raid takes place. If you are near enough to a public shelter, go there quickly. If you don't think you can make it, hurry to any nearby cover, such as a large building. Don't rush — speed is essential, but undue haste could cause panic.

In the shelter, lie down flat near an outer wall or strong column. Press your face into folded arms, to protect your eyes. Don't leave the shelter until you know that it is safe to do so.

If you are driving, park well off the road, so as not to impede disaster services, then go to shelter.

Inside, go with your family or fellow workers to a shelter, if one has been provided, or duck under a table, bed or bench. If there is time, close and shutter windows. Anyway, keep away from glass, which will most certainly be shattered in a blast. Other details on what to do will be found in the government manual which, if you are a civil defence worker, will be given to you by the local Civil Defence services and which, anyway, you can purchase at nominal cost at a bookseller's.

WITHOUT WARNING If there is a sudden flash and you are caught outdoors, throw yourself down—anywhere, even in the gutter. Drop close to a big building, if you are near one. If you are driving, stop as safely as you can, turn off the engine and drop to the floor of the vehicle. Keep your face down and cover your head, even if only with your arms.

IN INSTITUTIONS Special instructions have been issued by provincial and local authorities to such institutions as schools, on what to do in an emergency. Schools will be particularly safe places under air attack. Most of them are strongly built and have extensive protected lower areas. Teachers will know how to shepherd pupils to safety if there is warning and will have rehearsed the children in dropping under desks and covering up, if there is no time to reach a shelter.

Big firms, like department stores, hotels, etc., have co-operated with civil defence authorities in planning what to do in an emergency. They will try to shelter transients who rush in off the street for cover, as well as provide for their own staffs and patrons.

AFTER A RAID Official publications like "Personal Protection under Atomic Attack" advise against rushing outside immediately after a raid. There may be lingering radio-activity about and there is always danger from collapsing buildings, exposed wires, etc. Even if you are caught outside when the blow comes, it is wise, say the experts, to "stay put" for awhile, until you are sure that danger is past and you may move safely.

There is also special advice from the civil defence experts concerning use of food and water and of public utilities, such as electrical and plumbing fixtures, after a raid. It is all contained in the pocket-sized manual, which is available to all.

Perhaps the most important advice in the government's preparedness booklets deals with measures to be taken to prepare the home, the office or the factory against a blast. The books contain detail on the construction of air raid shelters, such as one may construct in the ordinary basement or in the back yard.

Busy Towns

The town cry from Atlantic to Pacific is the same. Too much for municipal government to do with too little money.

The plain truth is that municipalities across Canada have too much to do, says The Financial Post. They are providing services which provincial or federal government should undertake completely; things like children's aid, homes for the aged, unemployment relief and housing, perhaps even hospitals. The day is long since passed when a town could pay for the keep for a founding child for a year for $25 or when any one municipality could cope with unemployment.

Most of the provinces are now working on new definitions of provincial and municipal functions. The fruits of their efforts cannot come too soon.

May they remember as well in their deliberations that while there may be three levels of governments to spend tax money, there is only one person to pay it, adds The Post.

The Commonwealth Miracle

(The Ottawa Journal)

Mr. St. Laurent tells London reporters that Commonwealth Prime Ministers at their London Conference were "so much of one mind" on world and Commonwealth problems there was no need for formal resolutions not even for formal communiques.

What a striking illustration of the Commonwealth's miracle!

Here was a conference at which nine states were represented. One of them, India, is a republic. Two more, Pakistan and South Africa, may soon become republics. Not all are in the sterling bloc — Canada for example — nor are all members of the sterling bloc within the Commonwealth, such as Iraq and Jordan. South Rhodesia, at the conference, is not even independent, but what in Britain's loose political terminology, is called a "self-governing colony".

Yet all meet together, exchange opinions on different matters, turn up with "one mind" on the greater world issues, having a common bond.

Oceans of ink were used to describe the significance of the Coronation, the power of the Crown. Nothing revealed its significance — and its miracle — more than this London conference of Commonwealth Prime Ministers.

Saskatchewan's Hospital Bill

(Selkirk Enterprise)

The cost of operating hospitals in Saskatchewan in 1951 was 63 per cent higher than in Manitoba. Such are the facts as set forth in the preliminary annual report of Canadian hospitals for 1951 just issued by the Dominion Bureau of Statistics at Ottawa.

In Manitoba, the cost per head of population worked out at $11.60. In Saskatchewan, hospital expenditures soared to $18.90 per head. Saskatchewan has a government-run system of compulsory hospital insurance. Manitoba has not.

Explanation for the substantially higher cost of hospitalization per head of population in Saskatchewan is revealed by the DBS report as being administrative overhead of the government-run plan. Commission on tax collections alone amounted to $153,283. Salaries, publicity, rent, and other factors contributed to Saskatchewan's high hospitalization costs.

The main reason that Saskatchewan hospital cost figures are so out of line with those of Manitoba, or for that matter with those of any other province except British Columbia, which also has a government-run hospitalization scheme, is that Saskatchewan hospitals, aware that the provincial government will always foot the bill, tended to keep patients as long as they could, whether the patients were in need of hospitalization or not.

The only conclusion that can reasonably be drawn is that hospital care can be provided more efficiently and at lower cost under private hospital insurance schemes than when hospitalization is at the rate-payers' expense.

With Our Rambling Reporter

By ED

EDITOR'S NOTE — When Tom Johnston rambled off to Arnprior last week-end he left us with quite a problem — how to fill this column of his which has been so popular a feature of the paper during the last two years. It had us worried, but to our Rambling Reporter the answer was obvious — any Tom, Dick or Harry can write that guff, said Tom. Not quite convinced, but in desperation, we acted on his advice.

Several Toms were approached, but they were afraid they'd be too caty. So we asked the Dicks we knew. Both of them were quite willing to give us a sentence, a long one, but not the kind we were seeking. Harry wasn't any more helpful. Harry couldn't carry any more, he claimed.

So, in desperation, we've turned to Ed. He didn't want the job, said he had plenty to do without trying to be entertaining, and who could fill Tom Johnston's shoes anyway? But we soft-soaped him a little and buttered up his ego and finally he agreed to try it out.

It's easy, we lied; we've watched Tom in action. He used to sit on an old box in the back office with pencil poised and head hanging and all of a sudden he'd be scratching away as if a ouiji board was pushing his pencil along. In no time at all his column was down in black and white and, sometimes, a paragraph a little off-color to add spice to his rambblings.

Of course we knew there was a lot more work to it than that, but Ed was our last resort and we had to convince him.

He's going to try it out, but he'll be the Rambling Reporter in name only. "There was only one of those", he opines, "and, besides, my feet hurt." He's going to do his rambling from the depths of an easy chair; won't cover so much ground, he agrees, but then who could keep up with Tom Johnston anyway.

We hope you'll bear with Ed.

Almost as inevitably as day follows night, here comes Eaton's with an Alexandria order office only weeks after Simpson's-Sears opened up. It's a free country, still, and we wouldn't want to be accused of a desire to restrict trade. But it might be timely to remind our readers that these department store offices will contribute little to the progress of our town. Dollars spent with your home-town merchant stick around at least a little longer, help build up the community, ease your municipal tax bill. Buy at home, from your local merchant, as much as possible.

One of our junior executives gave us this one and it's a timely thought, with examinations looming large.

Seems the teacher told his class to write a composition about a baseball game. One lad, perhaps a little lazier than his mates, thought it quite a chore and took a dim view of the whole thing. But suddenly he brightened up, finished his treatise with a flourish and handed it in.

When the teacher opened the paper he found but six words: "Game called on account of rain."

If we were a Senator McCarthy we'd be hot on the trail of those reds in the Post Office department responsible for making such a perfect job of de-glamorizing our Queen. That Coronation series of stamps could only appeal to a collector who especially prizes freak issues—like the animal series which preceded this one.

It's a clear-cut case of treason and we'd suggest the engraver should get a long sentence in Kingston penitentiary. There he can take a post-graduate course from someone who made money the fast way.

Now there's a fight every night on television — just like the good old days in Alexandria's bars, before the "Indians" were put on the Indian list.

Somebody missed a good bet. The first sod was turned on our new $600,000 High School last week, not by the Chairman of the Board, the principal of the school, a trustee or one of our civic dignitaries, but by a big, impersonal power shovel. What an opportunity for someone to get his picture in the paper. Are there no politicians in the crowd?

If you gag on this one, it's probably because we got it off a bubble-gum wrapper one of our "printers' devils" was good enough to save: "Your grandson has very fine manners, Mrs. O'Toole, he just opened the gate for me." "Oh, that's nothing, he does that for the cows every evening."

A KINGDOM AND THE HORSE

Listening to broadcasts of the Coronation or watching it on a TV screen, one got the feeling that this wasn't only the big day in the life of our Queen. It was as well an occasion when the horse once again came into his own.

Our poor equine friends have had it tough in this mechanical age; they have seen the tractor and combine replace them on the farm, the car and truck on the road, the power winch in logging operations. They have been relegated to a place of secondary importance, have seen their numbers dwindle alarmingly as the slaughter house received them in droves to fashion horseburgers, filets of filly, stallion steaks and such.

Some farms are still being run on horse power and there are still farmers who appreciate the horse, but with many of our equines there was the definite impression that they were just being worked to death in order to provide the wherewithal for a tractor so that they could be relegated to the scrap heap.

There was still a place for the (Continued on Page 3)

show horse, the jumper, the racer, if he was classy enough. Horse racing was still the king of sports; the racetracks were drawing ever larger crowds and harness racing was coming back into its own. But in the equine world, even among the thoroughbreds, an inferiority complex had developed. Even Man-o-War's progeny were now convinced the crowds were through the tracks not to see fine horse-flesh in action but in the vain hope of winning a fast buck.

Old Dobbin was in the doldrums; the steeplechasers at Epsom were feeling down.

Then came the dawn.

A Queen was to be crowned and all the panoply of a Coronation had to be arranged. Since time immemorial, since the Knights of the Round Table first rode out, the drum of horses' hooves had resounded on London's cobbled lanes on state occasions. A Queen could ride to her crowning on a gun carriage, perhaps; the Royal Mile could be covered by taxi in much less time, but tradition demanded that the state coaches be brought out of mothballs, the saddles be cleaned of their cobwebs in readiness for today's knights of the realm.

The call went out for horses; carriage horses to pull the royal coaches, horses with knee action—but not too much spirit — to carry the princes and potentates who cared ride the Royal Mile. The farms and stables of England responded nobly, but still there was the cry for more horses. Europe was combed and our Mounties brought their own equines across an ocean. There were weeks of grooming and training, rehearsals with noise-making machines and, at last, the great day.

A Queen and her Consort, her courtiers, too, were all decked out in their ermine and purple. Millions lined the Royal Mile and thrilled to the splendor of it all despite a dampening rain.

But what would it have been without the horses? And will there be enough of them left when young Charlie comes to his crowning?

Ottawa Players To Strengthen Alexandria's Newly Named Dodgers

Such popular Ottawa lacrosse stars as Bill Milks, Matt Anthony, Bartolotti and Journeaux are expected to be wearing Alexandria livery Saturday night, as the locals get further strengthening in preparation for their game against the league-leading Cornwall Island Indians. 'Biel Poirier of Hawkesbury may also be out on the floor for his native town.

The Hawkesbury entry folded last week, thus releasing the Ottawa players for service with the Alex-three-team league and from now on lacrosse fans are promised a top-flight brand of play. They undoubtedly will back the progressive spirit of team officials with increased support at the box office.

Reinforced by several Cornwall players including Carson, Lebrun and Ross, the Alexandrians still showed some weak spots, Saturday when Cornwall Samsons invaded the Gardens to snatch a 10-6 victory. It was a fast, hard-fought battle with several slug-fests to whet the appetite of those fans who like fistcuffs.

The Samsons started out with a rush, scoring five goals without a reply in the initial period. The locals fought back in the second canto, outscoring the Friendly City men two to one to cut their lead to a 6-2 margin.

Cornwall added two in the third frame with only one reply from the Glengarrians and salted the game away in the final period with two more counters while the last ditch drive of the locals fell short with only three markers.

George Sinfield was the pacesetter for the visitors, rapping home three tallies. Tony Wheeler was next with two goals while Wilson, Steer, K. Wheeler, Pecore and Faubert each collected singles.

Art Ross was top goal-getter for the Alexandrians, blinking the light three times. Gus Lebrun with two and Masee with one completed the loser's total.

Cornwall Samsons — D. Green, D. Fawthrop, G. Sinfield, MacMillan, Wilson, Faubert, T. Wheeler, K. Wheeler, L. Pecore, D. Steer.

Alexandria — D. Terrance, Gus Lebrun, Red Carson, S. Abraham, A. Ross, C. McCormick, C. MacDonald, N. Gauthier, J. Dolan, A. MacDonald, R. Masee.

At Cornwall Island on Sunday, the local aggregation absorbed an 11-4 setback at the hands of the redmen. Missing were their Cornwall reinforcements.

andrians. Now known as the Alexandria Dodgers since the personnel of Mac's Motors interested themselves in reviving lacrosse here, the local entry should have no weak spots from here in. It will be drawing its player strength from Montreal, Ottawa, Cornwall, Hawkesbury and this district. The local players who have shown promise are to be retained for further seasoning.

Strengthening of the local club should make for a better balanced

Dan Fisher Buried Here Tuesday

The funeral of the late Dan Fisher, whose death occurred at Montreal, Saturday, was held Tuesday morning from the Marcoux & Morris Funeral Home to St. Finnan's Cathedral and cemetery. In his 83rd year, Mr. Fisher died at the home of his son, Ursel Fisher, with whom he had been residing for some months.

A native of the Fassifern area, Mr. Fisher had survived the great Halifax explosion of 1917 in which his wife received injuries which a year later resulted in her death. He and his two sons were less seriously injured in that World War I blast when an ammunition ship exploded in Halifax harbor.

A son of Donald Fisher and his wife, Isabel Cameron, Mr. Fisher had resided in Halifax for many years before returning to Alexandria more than 25 years ago. He operated a barber shop for a time and, later, a taxi business, retiring some five years ago.

The many friends who called at the Funeral Home or who were present for the last sad rites evidenced the high regard in which he was held.

Surviving are his two sons, Clayton Fisher of Kenora, and Ursel Fisher, Montreal, as well as three grandchildren and three sisters: Mrs. Lachlan Dewar, Cornwall; Mrs. Mary Belcher, Montreal; Mrs. Jack O'Halloran of Chamcook, N.B.

The largely attended funeral was held Tuesday morning from the Marcoux & Morris Funeral Home, here, to St. Finnan's Cathedral and cemetery. Rev. John D. McPhail, rector, chanted the Requiem Mass, and the prayers at the graveside were recited by Rev. D. B. MacDougall of Cornwall. Rev. A. L. Cameron was also in the Sanctuary.

The pallbearers were: John A. Cameron, Francis O'Halloran, Cameron Belcher, Grant Kennedy, Bernard Grant and D. L. Dewar.

Among relatives present from Montreal were Mrs. Mary Belcher, Miss Doris Belcher and Cameron Belcher, Mr. and Mrs. Francis O'Halloran, Mr. and Mrs. Ursel Fisher, Mrs. Bernard Larose. Many were present as well from Cornwall and other district points.

Evidences of regret and sympathy were the many floral pieces, Mass cards and messages of condolence received.

Geo. D. McDonald Harrison's, Dies

Mrs. J. D. McPherson, Elgin street, Alexandria, will have the sympathy of many friends in the death of her father, George D. McDonald of Harrison's Corners, which occurred on Tuesday evening. A prominent farmer in Stormont county, Mr. McDonald died as the result of a stroke suffered that morning.

Mr. McDonald had been in his usual health all day Monday and arose on Tuesday morning, performed some duties about the home and partook of breakfast. Shortly afterwards he suffered the stroke, his death coming as a severe blow to members of his family and many friends.

Born on the homestead where he died, Mr. McDonald followed farming all his life. He was a son of the late Mr. and Mrs. D. D. McDonald, his mother's maiden name being Elizabeth McDonald. He passed his 82nd birthday last September 3rd, and was an active man for his age.

He is survived by his wife, the former Miss Anna Grace McDonell,

Getting ideas from a china egg

In days gone by, many a farmer's wife had faith in the china egg as a "starter" for reluctant hens. It was supposed to suggest to them that laying eggs was a good idea. A "nest egg" in the Royal Bank is a good idea, too. It is a strong inducement to you—to save more. As deposit follows deposit, you watch your savings grow. Then, almost before you know it, saving has become a habit... and a useful one. Build up your nest egg at the Royal Bank. There's no prettier picture than a healthy looking bank book.

FARM IMPROVEMENT LOANS are available for many useful purposes. Ask for our booklet on the subject at your nearest "Royal" Branch.

Encourage your children to have a nest egg, too. Our booklet "Financial Training for your Son and Daughter" describes a practical plan for teaching your children how to handle their own financial affairs. Ask for your free copy at any branch.

End Cheese Price To Be 30 Cents Less Handling Costs

A 30-cent end price for 1953 cheese less handling charges can be expected by Ontario producers, a delegation which visited Hon. J. G. Gardiner, federal minister of agriculture at Ottawa, was told Saturday.

William Legault of Moose Creek, fieldman with the Ontario department of agriculture, introduced the delegation made up of 25 area producers and manufacturers. They met both Hon. Mr. Gardiner and Hon. Lionel Chevrier, minister of transport.

Purpose of the delegation was to clear up misunderstanding of the federal government announcement as to a 30-cent floor price.

First matter dealt with was the 1952 carryover of 5,500,000 lbs. of cheese held by the Marketing Board. Under the Co-operative Marketing scheme payment had been made of 24 cents with the Provincial Government guaranteeing 6 cents a pound making a total of 30 cents. On December 31st the Marketing Board was holding 5,500,000 lbs. unsold and balance of payment to producers could not be made until this amount was sold.

Following the meeting of producers at Finch a few weeks ago, federal officials agreed to take the balance of 1952 surplus from the Marketing Board at 30 cents and negotiations are now under way to arrange matters so producers can get a payment on 1952 cheese, though not necessarily a final payment.

Regarding the federal government announcement of a 30-cent end price for cheese in hands of the Ontario Marketing Board, October 1st, 1953, this amount will be paid less carrying charges with an initial payment of 24 cents a lb. on all cheese purchased by the Marketing Board and sold through the medium of Cheese Exchanges, which is the legal process of selling cheese.

At the end of the cheese year a further price of six cents, less handling costs, will be paid the producers.

In Canada there are 98 products being marketed under similar schemes, including Western grain, which is proving satisfactory to the producers.

Dalkeith Holstein Makes 970 Pounds Fat

One of the largest Record of Performance tests completed in Eastern Ontario is that recently completed by Orchard Gore Rag Apple Phoebe, a member of the purebred Holstein herd of A. M. MacLeod, Dalkeith. As a six-year-old she produced in 365 days on twice-a-day milking 20,213 lbs. milk containing 970 lbs. fat, average test 4.80 percent but-terfat.

"Phoebe" was Reserve Grand Champion female at the Glengarry Black and White Day in 1952 and has been classified as "Very Good" in Selective Registration. She has a yearly record as a three-year-old on twice-a-day milking of 641 lbs. fat from 14,813 lbs. milk. Her sire, the "XX" bull Montvic R. A. Emperor Johanna, sired the first prize Senior Get-of-Sire at the Glengarry Black and White Day in 1952 and the second prize senior get. at Ottawa Winter Fair in 1948. Her dam, Orchard Gore Snow Queen, was the Grand Champion female at Glengarry Black and White Day in 1947 and the winning four-year-old at Ottawa Championship Show in 1947.

Kemptville School Farmers' Day, 24th

Farmers of Ontario, particularly those from the Eastern section of the province, will have a real opportunity to see practical demonstrations of some new methods and machines on "Farmers' Day" being held at the Kemptville Agricultural School on Wednesday, June 24th.

From 10 a.m. until 4 p.m. the school, in co-operation with the Eastern Ontario Soil and Crop Improvement Associations, will present a varied program which will demonstrate the latest developments in modern farm procedures.

Included in the busy day will be demonstrations on important farm subjects including tile drainage, open ditching, dynamite ditching and fence row and brush removal. A soil sampling demonstration will also be featured.

During the afternoon, following a welcome by Principal A. M. Barr, and J. D. MacLeod, Chairman of the Crop Improvement Association, there will be a review of livestock and demonstrations of forage harvesting and storage, hay drying methods, grass silage and the stack silo.

A special program of interest to farm women has also been arranged.

New Calfhood Vaccination Policy

Speaking at the Annual Field Day of the Hamilton District Cattle Breeding Association held June 10th at Hannon, W. P. Watson, Livestock Commissioner for Ontario, announced that his Department is preparing to put into effect a policy under which calfhood vaccination for Brucellosis may be made compulsory in any Ontario township, where two-thirds of the cattlemen ask for it. Legislation covering this policy has been passed and only a few details remain to be worked out before it will become effective.

The new policy provides that a Township Council must appoint a committee to administer a compulsory program of calfhood vaccination if two-thirds of the cattlemen in the county petition for it. Inspectors to see that vaccinations are carried out must be appointed by the Council. The Ontario Government is prepared to bear the major share of the cost of this program although details of the plan for reimbursing the Township Councils have not yet been worked out.

According to Mr. Watson, calfhood vaccination as a means of preventing losses from brucellosis (also variously known as contagious abortion and Bang's disease) has steadily grown in favor with cattlemen throughout the province, until last year 177,000 or 33 percent of all the female calves born in the province were vaccinated. In many localities, this practice has been followed almost 100 percent. Mr. Watson was of the opinion that the new policy would greatly reduce the annual loss of income to Ontario cattlemen caused by brucellosis.

Mr. Watson also announced that under the terms of a co-operative agreement reached between his Department and the Record Performance Branch of the Dominion Department of Agriculture at Ottawa, purebred herds would no longer be tested for production under the DHIA plan operated by the Ontario Department of Agriculture. The testing of these purebred herds would be made under the supervision of the Record of Performance Branch, which is the official method of testing cattle in Canada.

Solar stove

IN INDIA, scientists have worked out a way to cook food by sun-power. A polished aluminum bowl suspended above a cooking pot directs the sun's rays to a mirror, which reflects the heat to the bottom of the pot. It sounds a bit complicated to us — but the fact is that the solar cooker turns out a meal as fast as a 300-watt electric stove.

It's just one more indication that food and aluminum go together — in containers, utensils, foil and in the equipment used by the dairying and food processing industries. Aluminum Company of Canada, Ltd. (Alcan)

Glengarry M.P. ...

(Continued from Page 1) tion and he promised a hard, clean campaign with victory. Touching briefly on his record in the House of Commons, Mr. Major declared he had supported consistently anything having to do with the remuneration of the farmer. Reviewing the cheese situation, he reported members from rural ridings in Ontario had done everything possible to bring the problem to the attention of the Cabinet. He was not satisfied with anything short of 30-cent cheese and thought possibly another delegation would go to Ottawa on the week-end to have the price question clarified. For the benefit of Prescott residents, Mr. Major reviewed his long service to his township, which he had left in very good financial condition, and to the Glengarry Liberal Association.

The Sudbury member, Mr. Gauthier, described how Mr. Major had taken his place in Parliament with other outstanding Liberal members from Ontario, and he praised the member's "sage judgment". The Liberal Government which had aided and preserved Canadian prosperity should be returned to office. He asked farmers to consider the effects of tariffs such as a Progressive Conservative administration might impose.

Mr. McIlraith said that national unity always was a leading Liberal objective. No other party could offer a comparable policy for the development of the nation. Liberal trade policies meant prosperity on the farm. Mr. Gour praised Mr. Major's qualities as a member and declared the return of a Liberal Government with the policies best suited to Canada was essential. In withdrawing his name, Dr. D. J. Dolan pointed out inaccuracies in the reports emanating from the second association. He had been accused of being one of a three-man clique, yet he could tell the meeting that he had only met one of his supposed fellow-conspirators on two occasions, both public meetings. Anyone should be able to come into a convention and let the delegates decide who is wanted, Dr. Dolan declared, and certainly Mr. Bruneau should have had no fears of a fair chance when a majority of the delegates were from his own county.

Roland Pilon of Ste Anne de Prescott, association president, was chairman of the meeting. In withdrawing his candidature, Mr. Pilon called for wholehearted support of Mr. Major by every true Liberal in the joint riding.

Acting as a credentials' committee were the two secretaries, Marcel Bourgon of St. Isidore de Prescott, and Eugene Macdonald, Alexandria; the treasurer, C. P. Butler of Caledonia Springs, and Campbell Fraser of Alexandria.

Many of these will damage your silver—many of them will actually leave marks and holes on stainless steel blades. (More about this next week).
