MacLeod Bros., Dunvegan, Again Top Point Winners At Annual Seed Fair

Large Attendance At Maxville Show Sees Near-Record Exhibit Of Seed — Myles MacMillan Was Champion Exhibitor

W. A. and Duncan MacLeod, Dunvegan, again were high point winners at the Glengarry Seed Fair held last weekend in Maxville Community Hall. In winning the Eaton silver tray the MacLeod brothers scored four first places as well as several other high ratings. Myles MacMillan, McCrimmon, showed the grand champion exhibit, in commercial Timothy, to take the Simpson Sears silver tray.

The Seed Fair drew a near-record entry of seed samples and there was an unusually large attendance at Friday afternoon's program, which included several addresses and a closing auction of seed lots by J. Y. Humphries, ag. rep.

Placing and judging of entries was conducted Thursday and that evening Frank Newman, consulting forester for the Ontario Department of Lands and Forests, gave an illustrated lecture. During Friday afternoon W. N. Ewing of the Wm. Ewing seed firm at Vankleek Hill, discussed varieties and availability of seed supplies. J. W. McRae, fieldman for the Crops, Seeds and Weeds Branch of the Ontario Department of Agriculture, discussed the value of improved seed. Professor P. H. Wright of the Ontario Agricultural College in Guelph, gave an address on farm economics. Prof. Wright stressed the virtue of balance in farm investment and farm activities. In particular, he mentioned that the farmer's investment in machinery should not exceed 15 to 18 per cent of his whole investment. The farmer should balance his activity too. "It is not good to become a first-rate crops man and go along with the same old low producing dairy cows", he remarked, "farm improvement should be well rounded, with better crops, better equipment, and better livestock equally important."

John D. MacLeod of Dunvegan, president of the Glengarry Soil and Crop Improvement Association, acted as chairman.

In addition to the top awards of silver trays to MacLeod Bros. and Myles MacMillan, there was the Maxville Feed & Seed Co. special for forage seeds, won by Mr. MacMillan; the Glengarry Farmers' Co-op special in registered and certified oats classes to MacLeod Bros.

A grass seeding machine went to Alfred Beaudette as exhibitor of the best hay samples and a supply of steel fence posts to MacLeod Brothers for showing the best registered oats.

Fitzgerald Acclaimed Maxville Reeve

James Fitzgerald received an acclamation to the office of Reeve of Maxville at a nomination meeting held Friday night, March 29th, in the Maxville Community Hall. The meeting was made necessary through the tragic death by drowning of Reeve William A. MacEwen, who had served in that capacity for many years.

William R. MacEwen, eldest son of the late reeve, was elected by acclamation to fill the vacancy on village council left by Mr. Fitzgerald.

There were no other nominations. A fair turnout of villagers attended the meeting. Other members of village council are Hugh Smith, M. L. Casey and John D. MacRae.

Constable Foster Posted To Maxville

Constable Stewart E. Foster, with Ontario Provincial Police at Lancaster for the past five years, has been put in charge of the new detachment which the OPP has opened at Maxville.

Cst. Foster will be responsible for the policing of the village, and the townships of Lochiel and Kenyon as well. His duties began April 1st. The one-man detachment will have an office in the hotel at Maxville.

A native of Peterborough, Cst. Foster was in the Royal Canadian Air Force before joining the OPP. He will take up residence in Maxville as soon as he can find suitable accommodation for his family.

Draw Will Be For Weekly Prize

Alexandria Richelieu Club members will soon start to sell tickets on a drawing in connection with their second annual Trade Fair in June. The prize: a cash sum of $25 per week for one year.

Tickets have been printed, it was reported to the membership at the bi-weekly meeting Monday night. The drawing will take place on the last night of the exposition.

A committee composed of Rene Gauthier, Dr. Robert Morel, Roger Roy and Lionel Poirier, was formed to arrange for a Ladies' Night, either on Mother's Day or the Monday following it, when wives of the members will be special guests at a dinner.

It was decided that the monthly draw for $100, discontinued during the winter, will be resumed in July.

Old Cornwall Industry Moving To New Site In Charlottenburgh

One of Cornwall's oldest industries, Cornwall Brass & Iron Foundry, announced yesterday that it has purchased a 20-acre tract of land in neighboring Charlottenburgh and will build a factory on the city's border. The move is dictated by lack of room for expansion at its present location on Sixth street.

The new site is part of Lot 18, Concession 2, Indian Lands, immediately south of the deBellefeuille crossing on the Boundary Road, where the CNR line crosses Cornwall's eastern boundary. The plant will have frontage on the CNR right-of-way as well as easy access to Highway 2 when the Boundary Road is extended this summer south to the front of the township. Township officials announced yesterday that such an extension of the Boundary Road between city and town-

Dalkeith Line Of CNR May Be Closed

The CNR is considering closing up its Dalkeith and Vankleek Hill stations, as it eliminates the sole train on the Hawkesbury-Glen Robertson run.

The fate of the line is being mulled at Toronto as the result of a report made recently by officials who came down to study the operations of the line as to costs and receipts.

Only one train traverses the track, a daily mixed freight that leaves Hawkesbury for the Glen every morning and returns at night, with the exception of Sundays.

If the train is taken off, it would mean the end of the CNR depots at Dalkeith and Vankleek Hill. About 10 persons would be involved — the two agents and the section gang.

Hawkesbury would continue to be served by the line from St. Eustache. It appears that a freight making a weekly run between Frontiere, Que., and Hawkesbury, would be changed to a daily, and consumers would get the same good service.

If the change were made, it more than likely would go into effect when the schedule changes to Daylight Saving Time, April 28th.

Col. Roy Was One Of Last Veterans Riel Rebellion

Military honors were accorded the late Colonel Maurice Alexandre Roy, M.V.O., at his funeral held Monday morning at 10 o'clock from the Vallee Funeral Home, Park Ave., Montreal, to St. Viateur Church in Outremont. The Union Jack covered the casket and the Canadian Army was represented by two officers.

At the graveside in Cote des Neiges cemetery, a bugler sounded the Last Post and Reveille.

Col. Roy, who was in his 98th year, was one of the few remaining participants in the Riel Rebellion of 1885. His military career spanned 35 years and he commanded a company of the 65th Regiment sent to assist General Middleton's troops in the Northwest uprising.

He served as commander in four Army districts — St. Johns, Quebec, Montreal and British Columbia, where he was the first French-speaking officer to command forces there.

He was later attached to the staff of the Prince of Wales, who later became George V. He commanded the composite Canadian regiment which represented Canada at the Coronation of George V in 1911. He was officer commanding in Quebec when the city celebrated its tercentenary.

The military tradition was carried on in the family when Col. Roy retired from the Army after the First World War and became associated with the real estate business.

His son, Major Robert Roy, also a First World War veteran, was joint recruiting officer for Montreal district in the Second World War. His three grandsons were also in the forces. Jean Roy, who served with the RCAF, was killed in action.

Born in Montreal, September 23rd, 1859, Col. Roy was attracted to Army life at an early age. He enlisted in 1880 and after five years became a permanent staff officer. Well known in Montreal business circles, he was vice-president of the Craddock Simpson Co. Ltd., real estate brokers, at the time of his death.

Col. Roy was well known in Alexandria, where he had visited frequently with his daughter, Mrs. Donald A. Macdonald and Mr. Macdonald.

Mrs. Macdonald and daughter, Miss Claire Macdonald, of Ottawa, were in Montreal for the funeral, which was also attended by Alex G. Maclaren and Eugene Macdonald of Alexandria.

Chief mourners in addition to Mrs. Macdonald were three sons: Major Robert Roy, Henri and Joseph Roy of Montreal. Another son, Maurice Roy, of Edmonton, Alta., was unable to be present through illness. His son, Douglas Roy, of Edmonton, was present.

A wealth of floral tributes surrounded the casket and the family received many other evidences of regret and sympathy in his passing.

Lancaster Man Killed At Whitby

A native of Lancaster, Hubert Leroux, 27, of Oshawa, was killed Sunday in an auto accident near Derryville, Ont. Two brothers, Leo and Vincent Leroux, reside in Lancaster.

The accident victim is survived by his father, Emile Leroux; his wife, the former Katherine Godin, and one son. His mother predeceased him.

Besides his brothers in Lancaster, he leaves another, Raymond Leroux of Oshawa, and five sisters: Mrs. Robert Fink (Geraldine), and Miss Susan Leroux of Hudson, N.Y.; Mrs. Raymond Ravary (Lorraine), Oshawa; Mrs. Garfield Heard (Ethel), and Miss Dora Leroux, Cornwall.

The funeral was held in Oshawa in Holy Cross Church, with burial in St. Gregory's cemetery.

New Hotel Owner Takes Possession

Arthur Contant is more accustomed to meeting Alexandrians on the lacrosse field and hockey rink, but this week he is greeting them at the Ottawa Hotel, which he took over on Monday from the former owners, Magny Lemay and his sons.

It was back in the 1920s that he crossed sticks with the local boys, coming out from Cornwall with his hometown team to mix it up with Alexandria. Some of the names that come back from his days as an athlete here are Marcoux, McCormick, Gagnier, Lalonde, Weir and McDonald. Then in the 1930s, he often returned to referee box lacrosse when it was revived in town.

Until 11 years ago, Mr. Contant was a successful electrical contractor in Cornwall, giving up his business in 1946 to open a hotel in Russell. He remained there for three years, and then purchased Ernie's Hotel on Cornwall's West Front. The deal with Mr. Lemay went through this winter, after Mr. Contant sold his business, which is in the path of the Seaway and Power Development, to Ontario Hydro.

He plans to renovate and refurbish the ladies' and escorts' beverage room, and this is just the start of a renovation program in the 20-room hotel, he said. There will be no changes in the hotel staff.

The new owner is a member of the Knights of Columbus and formerly held membership in the Cornwall Lions Club. A sports enthusiast, he likes to talk hockey and play golf. Mr. and Mrs. Contant (she is the former Rose Villeneuve of Moose Creek) will live in the hotel. Associated with him in the business here will be his son, Hubert, now of Cornwall, who will be manager. He will move to town as soon as he can find a house for his wife and family.

Jack's Shoe Shop Guttled In $20,000 Fire Last Night

Three Business Places And Two Upstairs Apartments Damaged As Main St. Block Hit By Stubborn Fire

Damage estimated at $20,000 to the Boisvenue business block, corner of Main and St. Paul streets, included gutting of Jack's Shoe Shop in a fire last night which saw most of the town in darkness for a three-hour period. Bell Telephone service to some 40 Main street customers was also interrupted when a cable burned, but it was restored this morning by a Bell gang that worked through the night.

The fast-spreading flames and heavy smoke also threatened the lives of two occupants of upstairs apartments. Patrick R. McDonald, living over the Shoe Shop, was lead to safety down a smoke-filled stairway by Joseph E. Macdonell. Mrs. McDonald was out at the time. Thomas Charlebois, occupying the south apartment, also had to be helped out of a smoke-filled apartment.

Businesses affected by the blaze in addition to Jack's Shoe Shop, were the Central Meat Market, operated by Oscar Joannette, and the Chez Monique Beauty Salon of Mrs. Aurald Bellefeuille.

The entire contents of Jack's Shoe Shop were a total loss and Mr. Libbos estimates his loss at $5,000, only partly covered by insurance.

Mr. Joannette was busy today starting to repair and clean up the fire and water damage in his shop, and he expects to reopen Saturday. Meals in his walk-in cold storage were not affected by the blaze and he estimates loss of food stuffs at $2,000, covered by insurance.

Damage was mostly from smoke and water in the Beauty Salon, from which all equipment was removed. Mrs. Bellefeuille estimates loss there at $500.

Considerable loss by fire, smoke and water was suffered in the McDonald apartment and to a lesser extent by Mr. Charlebois.

Donat Boisvenue, owner of the block, estimates his loss at some $10,000 in the stubborn blaze which he helped to fight as a member of the Fire Brigade. The firemen had an 8-hour battle in quelling the flames which had worked into the walls. Their all clear came at 4:30 this morning, though three men remained on duty till 7:30.

A faulty oil stove in Jack's Shoe Shop was responsible for the outbreak. Mr. Libbos had returned to his shop last night to catch up on his work. He had lit the stove only minutes before he found the whole rear room in flames. After futile attempts to control the blaze, he turned in the alarm shortly before 8:30 o'clock.

The oil-fed flames were shooting high into the sky before the brigade could get its hoses into play, and the fire had reached telephone and light poles to cause interruption of both services. Within a short time the blaze was under control, but there followed a long battle to root out fire behind the stone-sliding covered walls.

Couldn't Hear Elvis For The Screamin' Dames

Three of Alexandria's young set, Jack McDougall, R. D. Chisholm and Charlie McDonald, motored to Ottawa last night to see Elvis Presley perform before thousands of 'teen-agers' in the Capitol City. Here's the reaction of one of them, verbatim:

"What did you think of Elvis last night?"

"A real screwball."

"Did he get a big reception?"

"Those girls went crazy."

"How did you like his gold suit?"

"O man, the most."

"Was his show good?"

"It would have been a good show if you could have heard him; those dames were screaming their heads off."

The case rests.

Gardiner Speaker At Meeting Here

Hon. J. G. Gardiner, Minister of Agriculture, will be among the speakers at a meeting to be held Friday night in Alexander Hall here, in the interests of Raymond Bruneau.

A similar meeting was held at Hawkesbury last week, when Hon. Milton F. Gregg, V.C., Minister of Labor, and Senator Sarto Fournier were heard. Mr. Gregg congratulated Mr. Bruneau on his recent renomination and praised him for the new federal building he had brought to Hawkesbury.

Mr. Gregg noted that Mr. Bruneau was studying law at the University of Ottawa and when he was called to the bar he would then be a member of two very important bodies in the country — the Liberal party and the Bar Association. Mr. Gregg felt Mr. Bruneau's law studies would help him in many ways in representing his constituency in the Commons.

Mr. Gregg was introduced by Harold Stimson of Alexandria and Henri Gauthier, president of the Caledonia Township Liberal Association.

Bilingual Pupils From Outside County Cop Top Prizes At Concours

All the prized top trophies in the annual Concours de Français went out of the county this year, as bilingual pupils from St. Albert, Casselman and Moose Creek garnered the biggest share of marks at the contest held here Saturday.

The Concours draws competitors from all over the inspectorate of J. Alexandre Deschamps of Alexandria, whose territory takes in part of Glengarry and Russell and a small area of Stormont.

The highest average was scored by Jeannine Cayer of St. Albert, who was presented with the trophy donated by His Excellency Most Rev. Rosario Brodeur, D.D., Bishop of Alexandria. Miss Cayer also won the Rev. E. Houde Trophy for top marks for girls in the urban schools section.

Examinations, both oral and written, were conducted at Perpetual Help School here, and the winners' names were announced and trophies presented before a large gathering in Sacred Heart parish hall.

In the urban section, among the boys, Guy Genier of Casselman, took the trophy donated by Father Guindon.

Miss Gilberte Bazinet of Moose Creek, and Pierre Bourgeois of St. Albert, received highest marks in the rural section, Miss Bazinet receiving the Father Rollin Trophy and young Bourgeois the Msgr. P. E. Brunet Trophy.

Two cups in individual subjects went to local pupils. Michel Chénier of St. Joseph's Boys' School, took first in diction in the urban section and received the FFCF (Alexandria) Cup, while Monique Leroux of Perpetual Help School, received the Alexandria Richelieu Club Cup for Oral Expression.

Other pupils from the immediate area who did well were Carole Decoste, who attends the 4th Kenyon School, and received first in diction for rural girls, and second in composition and reading; and Pauline Decoste, RR 2, Alexandria, who received second in literature and writing, and third in composition and diction.

Other cup winners were: Gilberte Gagnon, Limoges, the St. Jean Baptiste, Casselman, prize for composition; Francois Lavergne, St. Albert, the St. Jean Baptiste, Alexandria cup for literature; Yvonne Malette, Casselman, the Trustees' Association Cup for reading; Claudette Allaire, Moose Creek, the St. Jean Baptiste Society, Embrun, for spelling; Rita Quesnel, Green Valley, the Teachers' Federation Cup for writing.

Grass Fires Prove Serious Threat

Fire brigades have been kept busy this Spring dashing to the rescue as grass fires sweep through fields made unusually dry for this time of year by an almost rain-less March.

Buildings and other property have been destroyed in the county, a barn owned by Mrs. Donald Stewart at Apple Hill having burned to the ground last Saturday, as did the former hockey stick factory in Alexandria a few days before.

Peter Lauber lost a large shed on his property on the Williamstown Road, as well as a pile of lumber, when a fire got out of control. The flames also threatened the house but Lancaster Fire Brigade under Chief Menard came to the rescue.

Sunday afternoon, winds fanned a grass fire to within a few feet of the Provincial Police offices on Highway No. 2 at Lancaster, and the Lancaster pumper had to be called again.

The same day, Alexandria had a grass fire on the Island, but there was no property damage.

R.C.R. Band To Play At Park Opening

A Royal Canadian Regiment Band will feature the programme when the Island Park here is officially opened July 1st. Mayor George Simon has been informed by the Department of National Defence that the band will be on hand. Other plans for the gala opening will be made when the Park and Recreation committee meets.

EDITORIALS

IT'S OUR OPINION

Supervised Recreation

In a letter to the editor in last issue one of our High School teachers painted a pretty picture of an organized recreation program in Alexandria during the summer months ahead. In addition to the swimming and other park activities, Mr. Ives sees the possibility of supervised recreation on our school playgrounds and on the park which might include games for all age groups, from story-telling, coloring and hop-scotch to such organized sports as softball and basketball.

It sounds wonderful and we are all for it. And we think most parents of young children in town would go for it, too.

We were a member of the park and recreation committee when it was first established and we were among those who argued that the park facilities should be free to all comers. We are of the same mind now, but if a Sunday entrance fee could buy such a package of supervised recreation as Mr. Ives outlines, we doubt if anyone would find the price prohibitive. His opinions on park matters are based on first-hand knowledge; he has spent entire summers supervising beach activities and should know whereof he speaks.

Certainly if a Sunday fee for park use can provide so complete a recreation program it will be a much better deal than that offered the town a few years ago when the recreation director's salary alone was going to cost us $3,000 a year. We did not buy that, but that is not to say a recreation program would not be worthwhile. The only summer sport that flourished in the area last year, other than swimming, was the play in the Glengarry Football League. Softball might well be revived, and we see many other forms of healthful sport and fun enjoying a rebirth under a properly supervised program of community recreation.

We commend Mr. Ives' views as outlined in last week's letter to Town Council and, more specifically, to the Park and Playgrounds committee, whose baby it should be.

Nothing New For Old Highway 2

Two bulky parcels from the Ontario Department of Highways last weekend brought us full details of the department's plans for new construction this year. And we looked in vain for any indication that there is to be an acceleration of the rate of development of Highway 401 — the projected Windsor to Montreal thruway — in this Eastern area this year.

The department plans to grade 38 miles of 401 this year, to pave 32 miles and complete 28 structures. This puny effort on the 450-mile length of Ontario's most travelled highway is less than the proverbial drop in the bucket. Little is to be done on that stretch of the new highway that flanks the Seaway development, and yet we have heard for decades that tortuous, twisting, old No. 2 was not being replaced because of uncertainty as to the Seaway plans. This is the last summer before the Seaway and power project become a reality and yet the Highways Department has done nothing about providing the new dual highway so long promised.

Nothing at all is projected for that stretch between Cornwall and the Quebec border and so we have the prospect of many more years of making do with narrow No. 2.

Just last week another Glengarry life was snuffed out on that death-dealing stretch between Lancaster and the Quebec border. A North Lancaster farmer braved that heavily-travelled highway on his tractor and had a huge transport knock him into oblivion.

Every year, every month, almost every week has its toll of accidents on that stretch of No. 2 extending east from Laucester. Many involve people just travelling through, but too often our own neighbors are being killed or injured on that totally inadequate piece of pavement. This stretch will continue to take its toll, an ever-increasing one, until the Highways department decides to do something about it.

Our mail has brought us a copy of the speech our Member of the Legislature was to make this week. It is published in this issue. Mr. Villeneuve confined himself almost wholly to the agricultural scene and we find no fault in that. The farm picture in Glengarry needs to be put in proper focus before the eyes of our lawmakers.

We could wish, however, that Osie had seen fit to criticize the government more than a little on its almost utter disregard of our needs for that new highway. If our Eastern Ontario Members do not demand immediate action, we can count on having to make do with treacherous No. 2 until every township road in Western Ontario is up to modern specifications.

We are being taken for a ride on this matter of Ontario's most travelled highway.

What Governments Grant, We Give

A tax bill is never easy to stomach, but municipal levies of late years have been made even more nauseating by that listing of provincial government grants the Frost administration has ordered entered thereon. Mr. John Q. Public feels slightly sick when he sees what his property tax has climbed to, but some joker at Queen's Park has figured out a way which he thinks will mollify the gullible taxpayer. At the bottom of his tax slip are listed all the thousands of dollars in grant money that the province is turning over to his municipality in order to keep his tax levy down. At every election reams of statistics are readied to prove how much more generous is this government in the way of grants than were its predecessors, especially if they were Liberal.

The total of grants grows more impressive every year. And every year the tax load on real estate becomes more burdensome.

How reconcile the fact that the province is increasing its grants to the municipalities year after year, and yet the municipal levy is not lightened even one mill thereby? We might reasonably expect that if more of the money we pay in taxes to the provincial treasury is being returned in the form of grants to our town or township, that supposed saving would be apparent on our municipal tax bills.

But it does not seem to work that way. We saw a bit of the picture of financial juggling which makes this business of provincial grants seem so impressive in a recent conversation with a counties' official. As he sees it, Mr. Frost is being a big brother to the municipalities in this matter of grants while leaving government at the counties' level to take the rap.

Take one department as an example, the administration of justice. With a flourish, this year, the municipalities were told they were to receive one dollar per capita from the provincial treasury to help defray those expenses. That adds up to some $86,500 for these three united counties and the City of Cornwall. That is a most impressive bit of largesse if one does not deduct the $17,000 received last year and take into account new provisions of the law which force United Counties Council to pay higher fees to court officials. The Crown Attorney, the Juvenile Court Judge and other provincial appointees get a minimum salary. But half of the fees over that minimum that they receive from our counties' administration they must return to the provincial treasury.

While Queen's Park, apparently in a generous mood, ups its grants to each municipality to cover costs of court administration, it is less open-handedly increasing the rates of fees to be paid by counties' councils to its own appointees. And thereby it is getting a kick-back that could conceivably cover the entire increase in its grants to all 19 of our municipalities that have to pay the freight through higher levies from United Counties Council.

This same system of juggling figures to make Queen's Park appear generous holds good in other departments where a counties' council can be made the goat.

The province pays 50 percent of the net cost of maintenance for our counties' home for the aged. But it does not simplify things by paying that lump sum to the counties' treasury. Each of our municipalities gets its share of that grant and must be billed for double the amount on the counties' levy to pay for the upkeep of Glen-Stor-Dun Lodge. The province is put in a generous light at the expense of the counties administration which still must levy for the total cost of the maintenance of that institution.

The same holds true for Children's Aid and other services which are primarily a provincial problem, but where the Ontario government can be made to appear generous with grants while other levels of government are being forced to increase their tax levies to meet the added burden.

The system of grants in aid is not always as beneficial as it is made out to be. Mr. Frost might better have his government assume some of the services the municipalities must now meet, thereby freeing them from the need of grants.

Plutocratic He Terms Us

356 Maclaren Street,
Ottawa, Ontario,
March 26th, 1957

The Editor,
The Glengarry News.

Dear Sir:

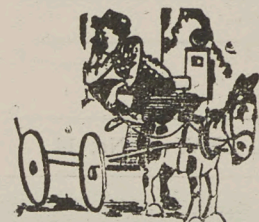

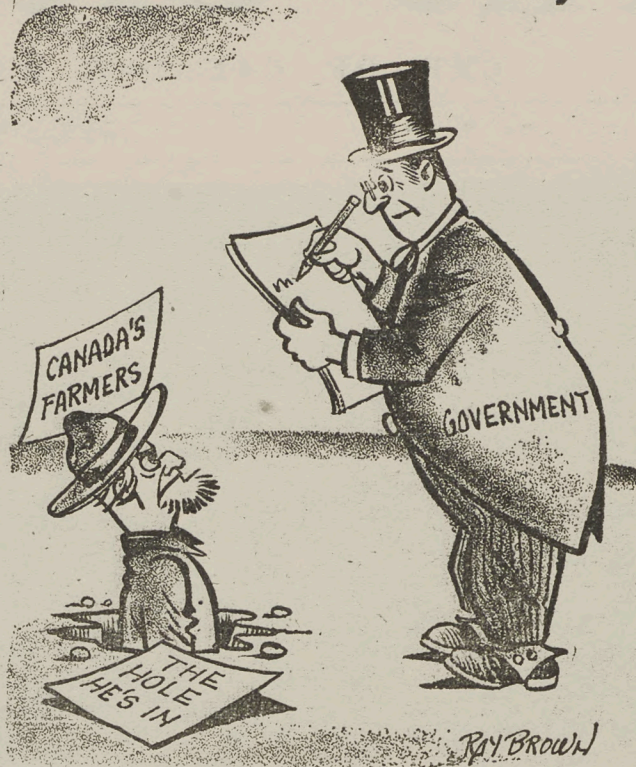

Humbly, the writer wishes to be numbered among those who are perturbed by the plutocratic sentiments expressed in your columns of late. I have particular reference to two editorials which appeared in a recent issue of your paper on labor unions and the proposed national health plan, and to subsequent correspondence in your "Letters to the Editor" column.

I think, perhaps, there may exist in some quarters a misconception as to the purposes and functions of a labour union. Wage rates cannot constitute the only motivation for the existence of unionism, for in spite of the generous monetary allotments to employees at the local Josef-Augstein plant, thoughtfully outlined in your last week's columns, there exists some labor unrest in Alexandria. Nor are working conditions the chief contributive factor, for the local employees in question have all this splendid modern machinery to work with.

Labor unions are thought of generally as achieving higher wages, etc., through collective bargaining. The crux of the whole question is "collective bargaining". There is no alternative to collective bargaining, for the individual has no bargaining power. What often bothers wage earners is not the injustices, real or imagined, they are called upon to suffer, but the fact that, as individuals, they are powerless to do anything about it. Unions continue to flourish in prosperous industries, not because the wolf is at the door, but because of the feeling of security

"I'll Give This A 3-Year Study"

WITH OUR
RAMBLING REPORTER
By ED.

Then there was the couple who were very, very fond of a breakfast cereal that was plainly advertised as 'good for children' — and still they wondered why they had so many.

SHE WAS LOADED

This is undoubtedly a woman's world, but it seems there is at least one he-man left among us.

As we approached the Brewers Retail store Saturday afternoon, a woman emitted therefrom loaded down with two cases of beer. That in itself is not too unusual today. The day is long past when women would rather be seen dead than be caught coming out of the liquor or beer store or the hotel.

We would have thought nothing of it except for the fact we were right behind her as she reached her parked truck on Kenyon street and started depositing the beer cartons therein. It would have been anything but uncommon if we had not perceived her man planted firmly behind the wheel while she was hoisting the brew into the truck.

Now here, at last, is a man, thought we, a man who really rules his roost. So he wants a beer for the weekend, but beer is bulky stuff, and heavy. So he parks his truck around the corner from the beer store and he emits like this: "Woman, go get me a dozen beer". And she goes, and maybe pays for it out of her baby bonus money.

This is the real McCoy, we thought; this is a throwback to the caveman of old who knew how to keep his woman happy while she fetched in the wood and the water and slaved to earn a smile from the male of the species. We almost nerved ourself up to the point of asking him for the recipe. We wanted to shake his hand and congratulate him on his mastery over his mate.

But we hesitated, and walked on. Perhaps, second thought conjectured, he's too tight to walk that far; perhaps he lost both hands in the war and his woman is making do with hers. Maybe he broke a leg the last time he was carrying beer.

There must have been some simple solution. But we'll never know for certain. It's just possible we really saw a man Saturday.

Many a bachelor lets a girl cook his goose because he's tired of eating in restaurants.

TWO STRIKES ON US

Had our first session of Spring training with the softball Sunday, and we were reflecting how fortunate it was the ball had survived the winter. It was really soft — and so were our hands. If we had had to start out with a brand new ball we'd probably have been carrying around a couple of hunks of beef on the ends of our arms the rest of the day.

It's a great pastime, playing catch. Trouble is, each Spring finds one a year older. And the boys are a year older, too. Their pitching arms are developing a zip we'd hate to admit we sometimes find stinging in the extremes.

We'll have to plump for softer softballs, or let the high hard ones get lost in the sun.

Do they call it a virgin stand of timber because it was never axed?

IT'S MURDER

We try not to make a habit of running down other people. And so for months, practically ever since TV came into our home, we have been hoping somebody in the CBC would do something about removing one Frankie Lane from the airwaves. But he still persists, and we have finally reached the point where we can hold it in no longer.

That, to us, is the most nauseating program on television. It's not only that the guy can't sing, he might even have a voice if he'd try a new approach and forget that moaning, but we heard him murder so many songs we like that we've finally decided his tonsils need the steady pressure of homicidal hands. We don't even like his face. And whoever that girl is who sings on his program, she has absorbed Frankie's unmatched method of committing hara-kiri on any tune he touches.

This is one program we'd gladly wipe from our parlor screen if we were boss of the house.

One reason so many children are seen on the streets at night is they're afraid to stay home alone.

Orangeville Sets Example

(The Aurora Banner)

Orangeville, for the High School student who is desirous of going on to university, must be a wonderful town. In that thriving community a group of public-spirited citizens made up their mind some time ago that no youngster with real talent but with little cash should be barred from higher education.

No charity is involved. Money is loaned to a boy or girl — interest free — with the distinct understanding that it has to be repaid. So far results along that line have been satisfactory.

Under the Orangeville plan some sixty students have already made use of the opportunity to further their education. The program is to be put on a permanent basis — an indication that those who have sponsored it considers the results worth while.

In a day when continual comment to the effect that the country needs more highly educated and trained young people to enter its business and professional ranks is heard, the Orangeville plan is a remarkably effective approach to the problem.

In recent months the federal government has announced the formation of the Canada Council, a body charged with improving cultural conditions in the Dominion. Into its hands is being put a hundred million dollars. Without discounting by one iota the need for the cultural development of the country — with a full realization that the things of the spirit are as important as the things of the body — it seems to us that some of that large amount might well have been devoted to providing opportunities for young men and women to become better trained, making them an even greater asset for the Canada of tomorrow. Improvement in cultural standards, this newspaper believes, would follow logically and naturally.

With loans repaid by students after their education is finished, such a fund could become a revolving one which would work to Canada's advantage for many years to come.

WORLD POLICY

In the eyes of the world the impression can only be that American foreign policy will continue henceforth as a solo effort, planned without consultation and if need be executed without regard to the wishes of the other free nations of the world. If this is truly the case, then it is time we stand up and be counted. — St. John's (Nfld.) Newfoundland Weekly.

DO IT NOW

That the national campaign against seasonal unemployment is as much a fight against an attitude of mind as anything else has been proved conclusively in the last couple of years. Our climate has conditioned us to thinking of the first three months of the year as a time to sit tight, and it is this which has seriously aggravated the winter employment situation. — LaChute (Que.) Watchman.

Canadian Pacific Railway will introduce fast, efficient "Dayliners" on its Ottawa Valley run beginning Sunday, April 28th, it was announced recently by Francois Portier, district passenger agent. Use of the popular, self-propelled rail diesel cars between Ottawa and Chalk River will knock nearly an hour off the running time for conventional passenger trains. "Dayliners will leave Ottawa daily at 5.30 (except Sundays) and arrive at Chalk River at 8.45 p.m. On Sundays they will depart from Ottawa at 8.25 p.m. and arrive at Chalk River at 11.35 p.m. For the return service they will leave Chalk River at 1.30 p.m. every day and reach Ottawa at 4.55 p.m. The type of Dayliner to be used — known as an RDC-2 — carries 71 passengers in an air-conditioned section and is capable of speeds up to 85 miles an hour. There is also a small baggage-express compartment. Already popular in many parts of Canada where they have been operating for several years, the compact, stainless steel cars are also being introduced this Spring on the Montreal-Ottawa (via Montebello) and the Montreal-Sherbrooke-Megantic runs. All three new services begin on the April 28th summertime changeover date.

Many At Funeral A. J. MacDonell

The large attendance of friends and relatives at the funeral of Angus Joseph MacDonell, held Friday, March 22nd, to St. Margaret of Scotland Church, Glen Nevis, bespoke the deep regret felt at his death. Mr. MacDonell had twice been a patient in the Hotel Dieu, Cornwall, since January and died there Tuesday, March 19th.

Rev. J. Francis Foley, pastor, offered the Requiem Mass, and present in the Sanctuary were Rev. J. A. Wylie of St. Andrews West, and Rev. D. A. Kerr of St. Raphaels West. The prayers at the graveside were said by Rev. A. L. Cameron of Cornwall.

Angus J. MacDonell was born at North Lancaster in 1901, the son of the late Kenneth MacDonell and his wife, Mary Anne MacDonell. As a young man he trained in Sudbury and Western Canada, returning to the home farm about 17 years ago. He never married.

He is survived by two brothers, Hugh MacDonell and Donald John MacDonell, and seven sisters: Mrs. Bob Cook, Mrs. Angus S. MacDonell, Mrs. Sandy F. MacDonell, Rev. Sr. Mary Thrasilla, Mrs. Jack Lee, Mrs. Duncan MacGillis, and Mrs. Bernard MacDonell.

Pall bearers were: Messrs. Ronald Dan McDonald, Francis Tellier, Stanley MacGilles, James MacDonell, Duncan MacMillan and Angus K. MacDonell.

Relatives attending from a distance were: Mrs. Bob Cook, Sudbury; Mrs. Sandy F. MacDonell, Detroit, Mich.; Hugh MacDonell, Meenook, Alta.; Donald John MacDonell, London, Ont.; Sister Mary Thrasilla, Prescott; Mr. and Mrs. Roddy MacDonell, George and Betty MacDonell, and Miss Christina MacDonell, all of Montreal.

could one expect a worker in those conditions to be constant? — unless, of course, he were "brainwashed" by the other faction. If, however, there was an organization which would be ready to support his demands when they are no greater than those made of, and met by, management in other communities, then, he might find security in his job, and relieve management of the load of continuously training new personnel.

The "pillars of salt" must stand but they must also remember that they hold up a roof, which, if composed of only dilapidated shingles, will let the rain of poverty seep in to melt them. A union would help the shingles do their share.

Mr. Ayoub has pointed out the particular labor difficulties in Alexandria; i.e., trained personnel, having reached the top of the short ladder at great expense to the company, leave. But could one expect a worker, without security from unjust dismissal, indiscriminate layoffs, or unreasonable piece-work rates, to plan on remaining with a company when he is told that if rates are forced up to the average of other communities, for reasons best known to the management, the company will leave town? Ex-Glengarrian Passes At Melfort

The many friends of the late Peter MacLean of Melfort, Sask., have learned with regret of his passing away on March 11th, after being confined to his room since November. He passed away peacefully with his family at his bedside.

He was in his 90th year, and born at Baltic's Corner on the farm now owned by Mr. and Mrs. Cecil MacRae. Mrs. MacRae is a niece.

Mr. MacLean was the youngest son of the late Malcolm MacLean and his wife, Mary MacCrimmon, Dunvegan. He was married to Nora Chisholm, Dunvegan, Ont., who predeceased him some years ago, along with two sons and a daughter; also two brothers, Neil M., of Baltic's Corner, and Duncan, Saint John, N.B.

Left to mourn his loss are three sons and two daughters, a number of grandchildren and a great-granddaughter.

He was loved by young and old and had a lively and jovial disposition.

His remains left the home of his son, Gordon, for service in the Presbyterian Church, Melfort, which was largely attended. The casket was surrounded by many beautiful floral tributes. Burial was in the Mount Pleasant cemetery.

If you feel ALL-IN

These days most people work under pressure, worry more, sleep less. This strain on body and brain makes physical fitness easier to lose—harder to regain. Today's tense living, lowered resistance, overwork, worry—any of these may affect normal kidney action. When kidneys get out of order, excess acids and wastes remain in the system. Then backache, disturbed rest, that "tired-out" heavy-headed feeling often follow. That's the time to take Dodd's Kidney Pills. Dodd's stimulate the kidneys to normal action. Then you feel better—sleep better—work better. Ask for Dodd's Kidney Pills at any drug counter.

that comes from the strength of unity.

A word about your views on the national health plan: Many people, the writer included, share some apprehension on various aspects of such a scheme. Yet we cannot deny that we are socially responsible for one another. Even the well-paid dollar an hour man may find that illness to himself or his family will create problems beyond his financial control. The right of criticism does not stop at disapproving or disapproving, but extends to suggesting reasonable workable alternatives.

More About Pillars

March 31st, 1957

The Editor,
The Glengarry News.

Dear Editor:

"Pillars of the Community" has some rather damning overtones since Ibsen used the expression as an ironic title for a drama in which he made a very bitter attack upon certain social abuses of his time. Ibsen, of course, wrote in the 19th Century when the gulf between labor and management was so great that it was necessary to whip up considerable emotion, usually hate and scorn, before anyone would consider bridging the gap. Today, fortunately, we do not subscribe to his acid skepticism, but his realism still has a message for us; namely, that men of the finest intentions must be assisted, sometimes even limited, by social institutions, such as unions, if they are to contribute the most to the community and to their own welfare.

That the "pillars of the community" (and I use the term without the sarcasm), are working for what they consider to be the best interest of the town, I could not deny. However, because other letters have emphasized that the prosperity of the town is closely tied to the rates paid labor, I think that interest should be directed to that point. Mr. Ayoub pointed out that the minimum rate for inexperienced persons is 50 cents an hour, which is, according to approximate figures supplied by Mr. S. Kraisman of the ILGWU, low in comparison to the Ontario average of 75 cents an hour. "Experienced operators, willing to work" (another loaded phrase when one considers that the rate is on a piece-work basis set by management), earn something like a dollar an hour in Alexandria, while the provincial average is between $1.25 and $1.75 an hour.

Mr. Ayoub has pointed out the particular labor difficulties in Alexandria; i.e., trained personnel, having reached the top of the short ladder at great expense to the company, leave. But could one expect a worker, without security from unjust dismissal, indiscriminate layoffs, or unreasonable piece-work rates, to plan on remaining with a company when he is told that if rates are forced up to the average of other communities, for reasons best known to the management, the company will leave town? IN recent years, the Canadian steel industry has expanded more rapidly than the steel industry of any other major nation.

Between 1946 and the end of 1956, the increase in capacity in Canada was 62 per cent, or about 2,140,000 tons. Stelco is the largest Canadian producer, and in the same period invested $195,000,000 in new plant and new material sources.

2,500 Scots From South Uist Planning Move To Canada

South Uist, Outer Hebrides, March 18. — Plans to set up a rocket range on this lonely Scottish island may force its angry inhabitants to adopt a "secret" scheme for a mass migration to Canada.

"We are being driven from our homesteads by the English", Rev. John Morrison said last night, "so we are appealing to Canada to help us."

Father Morrison, a Roman Catholic priest, has led the 2,500 islanders in an 18-month campaign against the Government's $12,000,000 project to appropriate land for a guided missile range and settle some 4,000 scientists, military men and their families on South Uist and neighboring islands.

The priest said he has evolved a secret plan for mass emigration to Canada "to save us being lost in a sea of English and rockets". A number of the islanders have been told of his plan, he added, "and they are all keen and willing to give up their worldly goods — their crofts (stone homes), their fishing and their weaving — and go to Canada".

An appeal will be made to the Canadian Government "to help us resettle somewhere in Canada, preferably on one of the islands around Newfoundland", Father Morrison said. "There we can preserve our way of life and culture."

He said the islanders could resettle as a self-sufficient community with schoolteachers, doctors, farmers, fishermen, ropers and shopkeepers.

"I myself am prepared to leave and lead them on this pilgrimage", the priest said.

Cars were parked on every street and on both sides. The new King Size bottle is in addition to the regular standard six-ounce bottle. Watching the initial production at the Cornwall plant are, from left to right, JOHN McCOLL, bottling plant foreman; JOHN R. DENTON, president and manager of the company, and KEITH JODOIN, sales manager.

The Cornwall plant, which was founded in 1896, began bottling Coca-Cola under contract with Coca-Cola Limited in 1922. The introduction of the "King-Size" thirst quencher has been the first bottle change since 1915, when the world famous hobble skirt bottle was introduced.

The new bottle will retail to the public at 8c and 41c per carton. Two years ago this June, the first "King Size" Coke was introduced to the Canadian market. The manager of the local plant claims the need for the second size Coke was brought about by the public, wishing to purchase food and beverages in sizes most convenient to suit their needs.

But man has changed the flow pattern down the ancient river bed, and this week cut off the water with a rock-fill cofferdam shown above and diverted the water through a wide excavation in Long Sault Island into the south Channel. The water now pours through the sluices of the first stage of the Long Sault control dam. Glen Robertson Juveniles Win Championship Of Ottawa Valley

Glen Robertson Juveniles skated off with the Ottawa Valley Championship last Saturday afternoon, when they beat out Mattawa 3-2 in a sudden-death game played at Smiths Falls.

It was a triumphant end to a brilliant season by the high-riding Glens, and nobody was happier about it than the team's hard-working coach, Gerard Roy of Glen Robertson.

Although all players gave their best in this final game, and their best can be very good, as their string of wins indicates, there was no doubt that goalie R. D. Chisholm was the stand-out performer.

Spectators described the job that the young netminder turned in as sensational. Mattawa's manager, congratulating Coach Roy on his team's victory, said: "What a goaler you have, and what a pair of hands! He handles that puck like a baseball."

The Glen team took the lead at the 12-minute mark in the first period on a goal scored by Germain Pigeon, assisted by Rejean Cholette. A few minutes later the speedy Mattawans tied it up when Donald Decaire slapped in a hard shot from the blue line. Chisholm made the stop, but the puck rolled slowly over his stick. The first period ended 1-1.

In the early part of the second period, Ben Warriën of the Mattawans put his team ahead 2-1. Gilles Joannette soon tied it up on a pass from Germain Pigeon.

The winning goal came from the stick of Gerard Beauclair on a pass from Guy Lalonde eight minutes before the end of the game. Mattawa then put on the pressure, but in vain; the Glens' defensive play proved that the boys were determined to win and bring honor to the Alexandria district.

Not a single penalty was handed out throughout the game, but it was a hard-fought battle all the way and a well-earned victory for the new champions.

GLEN LINE-UP — R. D. Chisholm, goal; Bernard Kelly, Andrew Smith, Germain Pigeon, Gilles Joannette, Rejean Cholette, Gerard Beauclair, Claude MacDonald, Guy Lalonde, Andre Vaillancourt, Rejean Proulx, Guy Lanthier, Roddie Smith, Jacques Paquette.

The funeral was held Thursday morning to St. Raphael's Parish Church.

Hotel To Have New Stone Front

The entire front of the Alexandria Hotel is being faced with bond stone, a new-type composition which has a very attractive appearance.

Proprietor Lucien D'Aoust is also having new doors and windows put in, and will have a canopy installed above the entrance. Donat Boisvenue has the contract for the remodeling.

Another neon sign has been added to Alexandria's "Great White Way", or perhaps multi-colored way, would be more descriptive. Mrs. Aurald Bellefeuille, proprietor of Chez Monique hairdressing parlor is having a six-foot sign placed above the entrance to her salon, which was damaged by fire last night.

Island Threatened By Grass Fire

A grass fire that spread over 20 acres before it was brought under control, had Island inhabitants a bit jumpy Sunday afternoon. At one time, the flames threatened a sugar bush owned by Peter Charlebois and a house owned by Ovila Taillefer. The fire reels were called out about 3 p.m. shortly after the fire got out of hand, and hose lines were laid down. It took firemen about one hour to bring it under control; they were hampered by a fairly brisk wind.

Another grass fire about 1 p.m. Saturday, called them to Main street south. There was no damage.

Six Injured In Highway 2 Mishap

Six Cornwall 'teen-agers were injured and their car was wrecked in an accident at Wood's Creek Bridge, five miles east of Lancaster, after midnight Friday.

The young couple were on their way home to Cornwall and told police they had just crossed the bridge, which is on a curve in Highway No. 2, when they met a transport, and in trying to avoid a collision went into the ditch.

A passing motorist picked up the injured driver and passengers and took them to the Hotel Dieu in Cornwall.

Carol Jerome, 16, suffered a fractured leg and shock; Glenn Marsolais, 19, fractured his right ankle; Lucille Guertin, 16, stayed in hospital briefly for minor facial abrasions, but returned the following morning for further observation.

Also injured, but released from hospital, were Peter Cote, 19; George DeSerres, 18, and Edward Mason, 18. They received abrasions, cuts and bruises.

Constable William Hunsburger of Lancaster detachment, OPP, investigated.

Piano Team Escapes Blazing Trailer

A concert piano duo, George S. and Ernest Mauney, twin brothers of New York City, escaped in pyjamas from their blazing trailer when it caught on fire near Lancaster last week.

The brothers had pulled off the road outside the village with a flat tire and had gone to bed for the night. It is believed their electrical system overheated and the fire broke out. The team's twin grand pianos were carried in a truck in front of the trailer and escaped damage. About two years ago, the pianists were sponsored by the Community Concert Association at an appearance in Cornwall.

Gardiner Speaker...

Senator Fournier stated Mr. Bruneau was held in high esteem in all government circles in Ottawa. He said the Liberal party had provided Canada with many social security measures. He added that he was sure the Liberal government would be returned to power and there was not a shadow of a doubt that Mr. Bruneau would be returned with it, with an increased majority.

J. C. Allen, president of the Ontario Liberal Association, told the meeting that without any doubt Mr. Bruneau was the official candidate in the Glengarry-Prescott riding.

In his speech, Mr. Bruneau urged unity among all Liberals. "The Liberal party stands for unity," he said. "And in Glengarry-Prescott we have a pattern of the texture of Canada with all races and creeds joining together to make a successful unity."

Regiment To Attack In St. Raphaels Area

Early this Sunday morning, "Dog" Company of Alexandria, will dig in somewhere in the St. Raphaels area, place their MMG's in position and await the attack of the "enemy", represented by the rest of the battalion from Cornwall.

The scheme is the first in this area in some time, and will enable the local Company to put into practice the training they have been receiving all winter long at the Armories here. Under Captain Harold Stimson they will be the defensive platoon, and it will be up to the attacking forces to find them and wipe them out.

To Hold Open House

Open house will be held at the newly-painted Alexandria Armories about mid-April, Captain Harold Stimson announced this week.

The public will be invited on parade night to see "D" Company at training, and also to look over the new paint job which has transformed the interior of the building. The painters were expected to finish this week. It has been some years since open house was held by the local Company.

Problems In Agriculture Theme Of Address By Osie Villeneuve, Monday

Mr. Speaker:
In rising to take part in this Budget debate, I want to congratulate the Honourable Provincial Treasurer for the very capable manner in which he brought down the Budget. The Government has had the courage of its convictions to appraise the present needs of this Province and to assess and collect new taxes from sources, for the most part, that will not cause hardship. Highway and educational expenditures this year alone are double the amount of the total budget requirements of just nine years ago, 1948, when I first came to this Legislature. Ontario today is the fastest growing area in North America and this Government's sound administrative policies and faith in its people have helped to place the province in this favorable position. Since the constituency I represent is one of our counties in Southern Ontario where the rural population exceeds the urban population, I am going to confine my remarks principally to agriculture. The farmers of my constituency are very grateful for what this Government has done in the past few years in the way of Hydro expansion to rural communities, the generous educational grant towards construction of new schools, the municipal grants towards the betterment of roads, improvement to highways and development road assistance, plus the establishment of regional Welfare Offices to give better services to the community as a whole. Dairying is basically the chief form of income for our population and approximately 25% of the milk producers in the county are fortunate enough to have a fluid milk market where the price gives them a reasonably satisfactory return but, unfortunately, those who have to sell their milk for manufacturing purposes, whether to cheese factories, condenseries or cream, have not had returns that are satisfactory. According to figures from DHP, in Ontario they have produced milk at a loss since 1951. 1956 figures reveal 65 cents a hundred loss. Agriculture does not share the economic prosperity that the country has enjoyed as a whole and the net income for agriculture across Canada has decreased between 1951 and 1954 by 43.22%. The Inter-Provincial Farmers' Union and Canadian Labor Congress report to the Federal Government in December, 1956, reveal very much what is in evidence in a very pronounced manner in my area. At that time figures showed that 44% of farm homes had telephones, compared to 63% of non-farm homes. 33% of farm homes had piped-in water supply as compared to 83% of non-farm homes. 33% have water piped in, but only 20% have modern plumbing fixtures installed. They are laboring in the most part 70 to 90 hours a week in the crop season in order to earn an honest livelihood under these circumstances. I submit that we have responsibilities from the Provincial level in the agricultural field. Better marketing legislation and more extensive research may help but will not be sufficient, in itself, to place agriculture on a par of living standard with the rest of the population. Farmers must pay protected prices for practically everything they buy. It is apparent that any farmer who does not have a fluid milk contract or is not in a special crop business in Ontario has to sell milk for manufacturing, raise beef cattle, hogs, or poultry, or some combination of these as a major source of revenue.

The American market for good dairy type cattle has served as a cash crop for a number of years and at the moment looks like the only bright picture facing agriculture. This Government has extended a great service to farmers by establishing artificial insemination depots across the Province for breeding purposes and the recent Brucellosis Act assures dairy farmers of an opportunity to continue to sell the American market when several States after 1960 will not allow anything but cattle from a free listed area to enter their country.

In 1955, we exported just under 40,000 dairy cattle and 1956, when figures are complete, will show a slight increase. In Canada today we have 650,000 less milk cattle than the average for 1935-39 level. Fluid milk sales have increased 70%. We are producing 40,000,000 pounds less cheese a year than we did in 1935-39 era but we are eating 30,000,000 pounds more cheese annually. Stocks of butter and evaporated milk show a decline on hand and our domestic disposition on these dairy products shows an annual increase and, within a very few years, we will not have to look for any export market, for surplus dairy products. Canadian livestock prices are based on a North American economy. The problem that confronts the farmer today is the unstabilized condition of markets for their products. Because of reciprocal trade arrangements made at the Federal level of Government with the U.S. grade cattle for export and import pay 1 1/2 cents a pound duty, live weight; dressed is 3 cents a pound duty. Dairy imports from other countries, New Zealand and Australia in particular, have preferred tariff arrangements on cheddar cheese and powdered milk. The duty is 1 cent a pound on entering Canada. A revision of this tariff rate, made many years ago, is long overdue and a more realistic approach with present-day levels is needed. In comparison to the protection that agriculture is accorded, industry enjoys 40% duty on refrigerators, 26 1/2% on cars, 25% on sewing machines and 25% on vacuum cleaners. All products that are purchased by farmers. Statistics on a cost and selling basis bring out the facts to prove beyond doubt that farmers have very sound reasons to complain. The most recent price index figures for the year 1956 commodities and services used by the farmer has risen to 254.3% for what they buy. In comparison, what they sell index figures show 225.8%, which leaves their position 28.5% worse off today than it was in the period 1935-1939. I will quote some of the heavier increases to the farmer:

Building materials	321.2%
Binder twine	276.3%
Household equipment	234.2%
Clothing	228.2%
Machinery	209.7%
Fertilizer	180.5%
Taxes and interest rates	177.2%

Poultry raising appears to be a very risky business for the average farmer unless it is on a specialized scale and operated as a commercialized business proposition. The production of broilers and turkeys is now highly specialized and for the most part is concentrated in large units with favorable location towards markets and this trend is rapidly developing in the egg and poultry business. In 1948 we exported 40.7 million pounds of dressed poultry meats. In 1956 the total export was 100,000 pounds but we imported 30,000,000 pounds of dressed poultry meats in 1956. We also import lamb and mutton in large quantities from New Zealand and Australia at 1/2 cent a pound duty and live lambs from the U.S. at 1 1/2 cents a pound duty. The importation of these meats was 39.2% in 1956 of our total inspected kill of lamb and mutton. Our meat consumption per capita and our population are rapidly increasing. The beef consumption in 1951 per capita was 49.8 pounds; in 1956 it was 75.5%, an increase of 51% for each person. Added to that a 12% increase in the human population for Canada, the consumption is almost 75% increased on that basis. Naturally, it would appear that beef prices should be on the upward trend instead of in a lower direction, but our loss of exports markets tells the story in a very convincing manner. Our yearly average from 1935-1956 inclusive of total exports of beef cattle showed an average of 217,195 head exported a year. The high year was 1948 when we exported a total of 566,504 head of cattle that year. In 1956 the beef total output of 2,056,995 head of cattle last year. In 1956 the beef exported totalled only 31,532 head which was 1.3% of the total output for Canada of 2,324,223 cattle. Since the beginning of 1954 to the present time we have become in reality an importing nation for meat. In 1955 we imported 55,000 more beef cattle than we exported. Here are the figures for 1956: Imports for that year, 96,046 head. Exports for the same period, 41,467. 1956 — 87,010 beef imports against exports as I have stated of 31,532 head of beef. The trend now is directly the opposite from former years. If we take into consideration on a percentage basis our capacity to produce in Ontario, our population forms 33% of the total in Canada and we produce 31% of beef and 37% of pork. Eastern Canada has 74% of the people but markets 37% of cattle. The western provinces produce 62% of beef and have but 27% of population in Canada. It is apparent that our beef producers have to face competition from the Province of Alberta where grain is cheaper and stabling conditions for cattle are not costly. The pronounced threat of American cattle into our markets points to one thing very clearly — we must produce and finish cattle with the greatest efficiency possible, and there is still a job of efficiency in grain feeding to be done. This Government has done a real job in giving farmers leadership and guidance in the various types of grass and grassland experiments for putting on cheap gain but, for instance, the Iowa farmer feeds a mineral mixture and a proper protein supplement and competes with our colder climate and higher expense in grain costs. It is a must that we have to be more efficient than the Alberta or U.S. farmer. This Government has done good work in progeny tests finding out what are the best strains in beef cattle. I would suggest that we establish a Research Station in Western Ontario where the bulk of the feeding is done. Such research would soon acquaint our farmers with the basic factors to allow them to compete favorably with the farmers of Alberta and U.S.A. The demand is for top quality cattle, red or good blue ribbon beef. It must be finished with grain feeding to have this quality. Our position in regard to the production of hogs in Canada is somewhat brighter at present. Because of disease in American hogs, they are not allowed into Canada from that country. The average consumption or domestic disappearance for Canada is 103,000 hogs weekly. We export a little over 10% of our production to the U.S.A. in the form of back bacon and hams. These cuts receive a premium on good quality hogs in that market for two reasons, due to the different eating habits of their population, and because they are of superior quality in comparison to the average type of hog produced in the U.S.A. A top quality ham from Ontario has more lean meat and when the skin and bone is removed will yield 72% meat (cooked ham) in comparison to the average American ham which will yield about 60%. The American hog being raised mostly in the corn belt of the U.S.A. is inclined to be a fat finished hog and does not produce the necessary thickness of lean meat in back bacon to produce a first class quality and in order to get proper lean thickness to this back bacon, they are forced to pretty much use the backs from heavier hogs or sows to compete with the Canadian backs and the quality is just not there. Ontario produces about 37% of the total production of hogs in Canada. About one-third of that or 33% Grade A hogs, and my suggestion to this Government is to continue to expand the A.R. policy and the boar loan policy, because we need two things — an educational program so that the farmer will understand that the hog business is his business and the U.S. market is a premium market for top quality hogs only. We need an extension of the present boar loan policy so that quality will not only be maintained but improved very fast. The cheese producers of Ontario are very grateful for the interest taken by the Government of this Province for allowing the Dairy Commissioner to accompany members of the Marketing Board to Great Britain to interview cheese buyers last Spring and to assist them in arranging the price agreement with the cheese buyers and processors of Canada to maintain a stabilized price from 32 cents to 34 cents per pound from June 1st, 1956, to April 1st, 1957. After all, the federal floor price support was approximately 22 1/2 cents per pound, and if the Government of Ontario had not given the Ontario Cheese Marketing Board the necessary guarantees to maintain the cheese price at this level, nobody knows

The most MODERN brewery in North America

FERNAND LORANGER of the brewing staff at Labatt's modern Montreal plant shows Eastern Ontario Labatt sales representatives Tom Monahan, Kilby Macdonald and Sam Godin how a brewmaster judges hop quality. The world's finest hops, expertly selected and blended, give Labatt brews their perfect modern flavour. This is the flavour, gently brewed into Labatt's ales and beers, which has won for Labatt's more international brewing awards than any other brewery.

The first aid kit and insurance both have important roles to play in the event of accidents.

Each year, the companies writing accident and sickness insurance in Canada pay out more than ninety million dollars (not including automobile accident costs) to policyholders — a mighty bulwark against unusual financial strain.

It is far better, though, to prevent accidents and mishaps, rather than to deal with the treatment of their serious — and often tragic — after-effects. That is why insurance companies are constantly seeking ways to stem Canada's mounting accident toll.

Safety pays dividends... saves lives, helps to lower your insurance costs. Be Careful.

Flag lowering at all camps is a highlight of the day, it is even a bigger thrill for a crippled child to be a part of this ceremony. Last year more than 1,200 crippled children enjoyed a three-week vacation at one of the Society's five camps. These camps are financed through the sale of Easter Seals. The Annual Campaign for funds is now on in Glengarry.

what figures might have been established, because by this action we stabilized this industry for all of Canada, which in turn helped dairymen going to condenseries as well.

There is a resolution on the order paper for a price inquiry from some of the Honourable Members of the Opposition and I do not know what jurisdiction the Provincial Government may have in this field of enquiry, but farmers do not understand why. A tearoom in Toronto charges 35 cents an egg — fried or otherwise — when the producer gets 32 cents a dozen; four slices of breakfast bacon cost 60 cents and there are approximately 25 slices in each pound package. The producer gets 31 cents a pound; on this basis the consumer pays $3.60 per pound. Bread retails at 21 cents a loaf, in which there is about a three-cent value of wheat. Butter price spread in a chain store to the consumer is about three cents per pound but the same retailer with the same service charges a mark-up of about 15 cents a pound on bacon. These are some of the things that primary producers cannot understand, why there should be such a pronounced difference in the price they receive for their goods and what the consumer has to pay. Certainly he should receive a fair percentage of the consumer's dollar, but it would appear to me that large organizations are in a position with our present tariff rates to control markets to their own desires and satisfaction, because for instance, a cattle price rise on the Toronto market can bring in an influx of American cattle from Chicago at about $2.25 a hundred spread. The discount on the American dollar is equivalent to 75 cents a hundred pounds; the import duty at 1½ cents a pound leaves in reality about three-quarters of 1% freight charges to be paid on this basis and these 55,000 additional cattle being brought into Canadian markets is sufficient to control and manipulate the price level when it is exercised. All come to Toronto or Montreal markets.

Today there are over 400 farms for sale in my county and it is very fortunate that the power development is underway, because many of our younger farmers who are capable are working on this project to earn a livelihood. Otherwise, they would just have to sell out and do something else. When this work is completed, if some major industry does not move in to absorb many of these people, they will have to move elsewhere. Many of these farms have been handed down from generation to generation for a period of as much as 170 years. Their forefathers were able to maintain these farms with greater hardship but were able to earn a livelihood. Our living standards of today and our present price structure do not permit the small farmer an opportunity to earn a good livelihood unless he is able to supplement his earnings through something else.

I have contained my remarks chiefly to imports and exports of meats as it affects Ontario, but fruit growers and vegetable growers in this Province are affected adversely in much the same manner, and in my closing remarks on agriculture, I should like to give you the Gordon Report, what the future holds for agriculture, as this is a warning to the Government of this Province to increase the agricultural budget and expand the teaching facilities at O.A.C., Kemptville and Ridgeway so that those interested in agriculture throughout this Province will not suffer adversely with a complete transformation that is now in progress and intelligent planning made for the future. Our agricultural representatives have made a wonderful contribution towards agriculture, but it is impossible for a man or an assistant in any one county at present to cope with the needs of the educational direction and guidance that should be given to farmers. Conservation and soil experts and sound farm management are problems that require more personnel in each of these agricultural representative's offices to cope with the changing conditions that are taking place. Royal Commission on Canada's Economic Prospects, page 26 (Preliminary Report), December, 1956:

Agriculture—

In the first half of the 25-year period, agricultural output will continue to shift in emphasis towards livestock products as it has been doing; but the greatest changes will be those involved in the adjustment between man and machine. Farms will continue to become larger and the labor force will become smaller. The increases in output required to meet the rise in domestic demand for food envisaged by 1956 are not large and do not appear to require much intensification of present land

Friends Present For Reception Of Habit

Relatives and friends from the St. Andrews area and Apple Hill attended the Reception of Habit ceremony at which Miss Sheila Welsh, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Christopher Welsh, pronounced first vows as a Sister of St. Joseph. The ceremony took place at the Mother House in Peterborough on Tuesday, March 19th, and the young novice took the name, Sister Sheila Marie.

The former Miss Welsh had made her home with her aunt and uncle, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. J. McGillis of Harrison's Corners, since childhood. She attended St. Andrew's Convent, and was an accomplished pianist, teaching piano in her last year at the convent. Among those attending the ceremony were: Rev. James A. Wylie, P.P., Sister Marcella, Sister St. Michael, Miss Ruth McDonnell, Miss Colleen McDonnell, Miss Doreen Chisholm, Miss Patricia Beaudette, Mr. and Mrs. Wilfred Seguin, Sylvia Seguin, Audrey Beaudette, Geraldine Russell, Dorothy McPhail, Alma use. However, at some time between 1965 and 1970, the growth in population coupled, as incomes rise, with the preference for superior foods, will begin to have a decided impact both on the pattern of agricultural output and on the structural organization of farming.

Some Lacrosse May Be Seen Here

Glengarry Gardens may have a lacrosse attraction every weekend starting next month, if the plans of a group of Cornwall enthusiasts can be carried through.

At a meeting at Shirley's Restaurant in Cornwall Monday night, March 25th, called by Eastern Lacrosse Association convener Bill Campbell, the possibility of organizing a senior lacrosse loop with Central Ontario teams was studied.

The Cornwall club has already received replies to advertisements placed in Western Ontario papers. A goalie and a senior player are interested in the Cornwall club's proposition, and there are several of the "old guard" ready to play, said Mr. Campbell.

It is not known whether the visiting clubs will play a two-game series or just a single game on their weekends. It was tentatively decided that the single games would be played in Cornwall Sunday afternoon, the others in Alexandria or Hogsburg.

There was a good attendance at Taylor, Helen Seguin, Kathleen McDonald, Kenneth McDonald, Hubert Chisholm, Vincent Wheeler, Mrs. Wm. J. McGillis, all of St. Andrews area, and Miss Catherine Welsh of Apple Hill. Others were from Toronto, Port Hope and surrounding district.

the meeting. Larry Deebank was nominated president of the Cornwall club; Howard Fullard, vice-president; Bill Campbell, business manager; Bernard Sloan, secretary, and Leo Desrosiers, team manager. It is hoped to hire a playing coach and one offer is being considered by the executive.

John Aitken and Frank Desrosiers were named to a ways and means committee which is to be enlarged later.

Mr. Campbell said he hopes to have the season start in mid-April with the Cornwall team playing most of its home games early in the summer.

CURBING REQUESTS

We must commend the council . . . for a step in the right direction in the matter of curbing requests for tag days, and grants and house-to-house canvasses in Mel-fort. . . It is to be hoped the council after studying will make public those organizations which have received permission to make public appeals for funds, so citizens will be able to recognize them. — Mel-fort (Sask.) Journal.

Legislation — In case you missed some of the events re legislation, here is a little sequence report to bring you up-to-date:

Jan. 22, 1957—The Supreme Court handed its decision and held that the division of jurisdictional powers re marketing boards would be decided by where the end was consumed. If consumed in Ontario, it came under provincial authority, and if consumed outside Ontario, it came under federal authority. Secondly, any form of equalization, creation of reserves for handling surpluses, etc., would be under federal authority.

February — Several commodity meetings called by the Ontario Federation of Agriculture and discussions with solicitor revealed the changes necessary in the Ontario Farm Products Marketing Act and the need for enabling federal legislation. Requests for same forwarded to respective governments.

March 5. — The Ontario Government presented its amended Farm Products Marketing Act to give farm marketing groups all of the powers to carry on their business that it could legally confer as a result of the Supreme Court decision. It contained the onus clause.

Feb. 28 - March 13. — Official requests by the attorney-general of Ontario made to the federal government for amendment to Federal Agricultural Products Marketing Act to permit (a) Onus clause: where accused would be obliged to prove where the end product was consumed. This is necessary in order to effectively prosecute, otherwise the manufacturer could say "prove the product has been consumed within the meaning of your authority"; (b) Equalization: to permit establishment of funds for equalization of payments, absorbing loss in disposal arrangements, etc.

March 13. — O.F.A. and Commodity groups met the Agricultural Committee of the Provincial Legislature to discuss the Farm Products Marketing Act.

March 18. — About 50 representatives of Ontario Federation, Canadian Federation and Ontario Commodity groups interviewed Hon. Mr. Gardiner, Hon. Mr. Garson, Minister of Justice, and Hon. Walter Harris, Minister of Finance, in Ottawa, re changes to Bill 82.

March 19. — Same group met Ontario members of Conservative, CCF and Liberal parties to discuss the problem. Well received.

In these endeavours to secure beneficial legislation there has been a real demonstration that farmers can stick together.

New Diesel Tractor Made In England

Glengarry Motor Sales, local International Harvester dealer, has received an announcement from R. B. Bradley, president, that International Harvester of Canada has placed an order with International Harvester of Great Britain for a large quantity of farm tractors to be shipped immediately for spring use in Eastern Canada and British Columbia.

Mr. Bradley's announcement read in part: "For the first time in over 50 years our Company plans to make large purchases from England, on a continuing basis, of farm tractors and other machines of types not manufactured in Canada, but ideally suited to Eastern Canadian farming conditions. Research and manufacturing of Harvester of Great Britain have designed a small Diesel tractor that fills a definite need long expressed by many of our customers.

"No longer will the benefits of simplicity of design and economy afforded by Diesel engines be confined to the large operator. We are happy that Great Britain's manufacturing and research skill have provided us with a Diesel tractor that can be sold in a price range within the reach of operators of small farms. The tractor is designed to be used with a great variety of farm machines which will be produced in Harvester's Farm Equipment Works at Hamilton, Ontario.

"Thus, this purchase will mean additional dollars available to Britain for purchase of Canadian produce and at the same time will increase our employment at Hamilton."

When the index of textile industry wages is adjusted to the index of retail prices it shows that Canadian textile workers now enjoy 65 per cent more buying power than in 1939.

 THE GLENGARRY NEWS

Mrs. J. Cummings Dies At Dyer

Many sorrowing relatives and friends paid tribute to a highly respected citizen of this district, at the funeral of Elizabeth Jessie Alguire, held in Maxville United Church, Tuesday afternoon, March 26th, at two o'clock.

She was the daughter of the late Henry Alguire and his wife, Mary Jane Cameron, and was born at Avonmore, March 7th, 1898. Later the family moved to Sandringham and she received her public school education there and in Maxville High School.

On January 30th, 1918, she was married to John D. Cummings, at her home, by Rev. John Lennox, St. Elmo, and had since resided on their farm here. The only son, Fraser, a student at Queen's University, Kingston, was at her bedside when she peacefully passed away on March 23rd.

Although long in failing health, which she bore with Christian fortitude and cheerfulness, she was able to be about the house until a couple of hours before she passed on.

A devoted wife and mother, an active member of the church and WMS Society, a capable leader in social functions and a good neighbor, she was always ready to help in time of need, and will be sadly missed by all.

Left to mourn her loss, besides her husband and son, Fraser, are her mother, Mrs. Alguire, four sisters, Mrs. Hugh Cameron ("Lillis") of Cornwall, Mrs. William Chisholm (Victoria) of Toronto, Mrs. Norman Nixon (Sara) of New York, Mrs. Harry Campbell (Henrietta) of Athol. The service was conducted by her pastor, Rev. D. C. Munro, who brought a comforting message to the bereaved from his text, "Blessed are the dead," taken from Revelations, chapter 14, verse 13. Hymns sung were "The Lord's My Shepherd" and "Breathe On Me, Breath of God," a favorite; a solo, "Will There Be Any Stars In My Crown," sung by Mrs. George Greer, with Mr. Charles Munro as organist.

Pall bearers were Keith Blair, Howard Morrow, Donald Cummings, Lloyd Campbell, Gregor MacEwen and Eldred Cameron.

A large number of friends called at the home to extend their sympathy to the family. Many consoling messages were received, and beautiful floral tributes surrounded the casket from husband and son, mother, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Campbell and family, Mr. and Mrs. William Chisholm, Mr. and Mrs. Orville Chisholm, Margaret, Irvin and May Williams, Toronto; Mr. and Mrs. Norman Nixon and family, Mr. and Mrs. Gregor MacEwen and family, Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Cameron, Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Cummings, Mr. and Mrs. Reuben Cummings, Mrs. Althea Cummings, Donald and Marion, Mr. and Mrs. Alex MacKinnon and family, Mrs. A. Lyons, Mac and Don, Kingston; Mr. and Mrs. Ken Shaver and family, Mrs. Kate Morrow, Mr. and Mrs. Howard Morrow, Mr. and Mrs. Dave Kidd and Helen, Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Cameron, Eldred Cameron, Miss Bev. Campbell, Montreal; Agnes MacLennan, Mrs. Leila Bennett, Mrs. Janet MacIntosh, Mr. and Mrs. Irvin Coulthart, Mrs. Fergus MacKercher, Mrs. Cameron McGregor, Mr. and Mrs. Ivan MacRae, Mr. and Mrs. Everett Montgomery, Mr. and Mrs. Ian Gordon, Lachine; a memorial contribution to the Cancer Fund.

Burial took place in Maxville cemetery.

SMILES OF THE WEEK

A Scotsman entered a saddler's shop in Aberdeen and ordered a single spur. "Tell me," asked the saddler, "what use is just one spur?"

"Well," replied the Scotsman, "if I get one side of the horse to go, the other will naturally have to go with it."

My husband is the absent-minded kind who has to write notes to himself. Shortly after our wedding I happened to find a list he'd made out just before our honeymoon. There were such items as "take blue suit, white shirt, brown sports coat, have car checked."

The last item read, "Pick up Sally."

The wealthy socialite frowned at his butler, and said severely, "The maid tells me that you were badly intoxicated last night, and that you were trying to roll a barrel into my bedroom. Is this true?"

"Yes, indeed, sir," answered the butler.

"And where was I all this time?"

"In the barrel, sir!"

A worried lady entered a department store and bought two packages of invisible hairpins.

Woman: "Are you absolutely certain these are invisible?"

Clerk: "Lady, I'll tell you how invisible they are. I've sold $4 worth this morning, and we've been out of them for three weeks."

Teacher: "Now, Willie, if James gave you a dog and David gave you a dog, how many would you have?"

Willie: "Four."

Teacher: "Now, Willie, think hard. Would you have four dogs if James gave you one and David gave you one?"

Willie: "Yep. You see, I already got two dogs."

Two cannibals met in a mental institution. One was tearing out pictures of men, women and children from a magazine, stuffing them in his mouth and eating them.

"Tell me," said the other, "is that dehydrated stuff any good?"

O'Leary's wife awoke in the middle of the night to hear her husband creeping about in the kitchen.

"What might ye be looking for, darling?" she called out.

"Nothing," called back O'Leary. "Just nothing."

"Oh!" said his wife cheerfully. "Then you'll find it in the bottle where the whisky used to be."
