Rene Bertrand, 32, Chosen Second Liberal Candidate

'The Democratic Way' Theme Of Monday Convention At Vankleek Hill When Young Hawkesbury Businessman Selected

Two Liberal candidates are now in the running for the June 10th federal election in Glengarry-Prescott following Monday night's second Liberal convention.

Rene Bertrand, 32, young Hawkesbury fuel dealer, won the nod in spirited voting, over Hawkesbury school principal, Reeve Horace Dubois. In the after-midnight voting which followed more than three hours of speechmaking, Bertrand received 88 votes to 71 for Dubois.

Seven had been nominated from the floor, including two Glengarrys, W. J. Major, ex-M.P., and G. G. Aubry, Alexandria lawyer. But five had withdrawn their names after rousing appeals to the electorate to support a "true" Liberal, and after all had pledged their support to the choice of this meeting.

Running through every speech was criticism of the manner in which Mr. Bruneau had been nominated at a "one-man convention", and warning of the need for Liberals of the riding to guard their democratic freedom of choice of a candidate acceptable to all. "We don't want, and we certainly don't need, any outsiders coming into Glengarry-Prescott to tell us whom we should have for our official candidate and for whom we should vote", declared Roland Pilon of Ste Anne de Prescott, president of the association.

"As Liberals", he told the overflow crowd in the hall, "you may ask, why are we holding two Liberal conventions in this riding. You are entitled to an answer. This is the only true Liberal convention. You may have heard that a certain candidate (Raymond Bruneau) was chosen at an earlier meeting. That wasn't a convention. The so-called delegates attending it had neither credentials nor certificates.

"Here tonight", he continued, "delegates will nominate the candidates, will hear them speak and will vote for the one whom they feel would best represent the riding at Ottawa."

Scores J. C. Allen

Mr. Pilon scored J. C. Allen, president of the Ontario Liberal Association, for ruling that a Liberal Association supporting Mr. Bruneau was the "official" Liberal Association. The same Mr. Allen, he charged, supported the Liberal Association of which he (Mr. Pilon) was president in 1953, and still is. "The earlier Liberal convention, he said, was nothing but "the personal organization of the outgoing Member."

The "real Liberal" candidate in Glengarry-Prescott, Mr. Pilon said, would be chosen by delegates in the riding and in accordance with their best judgment.

More than 400 Liberals, representative of every section of the riding jammed into the parish hall for Monday's meeting. It was a spirited audience which bore up well under a long succession of addresses and the interims when delegates were being registered and ballots were being tabulated. Not a few of the delegates had left the hall by the past-midnight hour when the vote was called. A total of 164 votes were counted.

Roland Pilon, president, was in the chair when the meeting was opened with the registering of delegates. Then followed the nominations from the floor when seven candidates were proposed. They were Messrs. Bertrand and Dubois; W. J. Major, North Lancaster; Roland Pilon; Henri Proulx, L'Orignal; G. G. Aubry, Alexandria, and Noel Bazinet of Hawkesbury, secretary of the organization. Only the two first-named allowed their names to stand, though each addressed the meeting.

Levi Parisien of Hawkesbury, was voted to the chair for the taking of the vote.

In a brief address, Mr. Proulx, mayor of L'Orignal, pleaded ill health as preventing him from allowing his name to stand. He was thrilled to see such a fine turnout of real Liberals from all sections of the riding and he promised his active support to whomever the convention selected as candidate.

Water Engineers Here This Week

Ottawa engineers Narraway and Farley were in Alexandria again Wednesday to look over the water situation at Loch Garry at this time of the year. The engineers have already observed lake conditions in mid-summer and in the Fall, with a view to the eventual building of a control dam there.

Mrs. Real Huot Died Today

Her large family lost a devoted mother and the community of Alexandria a respected resident in the death today of Mrs. Real Huot, which occurred at her home on Centre street about three o'clock this morning, May 2nd. Mrs. Huot had suffered a heavy stroke three days ago from which she failed to rally.

All of her family — four sons and seven daughters — were with her when she died, fortified by Extreme Unction.

Although not in the best of health for some time, Mrs. Huot was quite active in her home, and regularly attended evening devotions during Lent at her parish church. She had always been a supporter of parish undertakings, and an active member of the Catholic Women's League.

Her lifetime was spent in Alexandria. She was born here July 23rd, 1885, the daughter, Diana, of the late Alex Lalonde and his late wife, Delphine Courville. On August 30th, 1908, she married Real Huot, who conducted a general store and later a life insurance business here until his death in 1935.

They raised 11 children, all of whom survive: four sons — Major Aime Huot, Quebec City; Real Huot, at home; Hubert Huot, Terrebonne, Que.; Claude Huot, Hull, Que.; and seven daughters — Mrs. Alex Renaud (Alice), Cornwall; Mrs. Jim Lowe (Gabrielle), Lachute, Que.; Mrs. Marcel Carter (Agnes), and Rev. Sr. St. Aime (Simone), both of Ottawa; Sr. M. of St. Real (Cecile), St. Raphaels West; the Misses Claire and Therese, at home.

She also leaves one sister, Mrs. Isale Sauve of Glen Robertson, and three brothers — Raoul Lalonde, Alexandria; Ovide Lalonde, Cornwall, and Joseph Lalonde, Montreal. The funeral will be held Saturday morning, leaving her late residence for the Requiem Mass in St. Finnan's Cathedral at 11 o'clock. Burial will be in the parish cemetery.

One Injured When Car Left Road

Donald Farlinger, 36, of Martin-town, was sent to Cornwall General Hospital, Saturday night with a fractured and dislocated left shoulder and broken ribs when the car in which he was a passenger flipped over on a sideroad two miles north of Bougie's Corners.

Mr. Farlinger was treated at the scene by Dr. George McDonald of Apple Hill. He was driving south with Lawrence Rozon of Martin-town, about 9:45 p.m., when the car was forced off the narrow road by another vehicle. In attempting to get off the soft shoulder, Mr. Rozon gunned the car and it shot across the road, struck a tree and turned over on its roof in a water-filled ditch. The driver was unhurt.

Cst. William Hunsburger of Lancaster detachment, OPP, estimated damage to the vehicle at $250 to $300.

High School Boys To Tour RMC

A busload of 40 boys from Glengarry District High School here will tour Royal Military College, Kingston, on Friday, May 10th, at the invitation of the Department of National Defence. The Department will pick up the tab for the trip, which will include lunch.

Memorial Ground Gets Attention

The regular executive meeting of Alexandria Branch of the Legion was held at the Legion clubrooms on Elgin street, Wednesday evening, April 24th. President Bernard Villeneuve reported that the War Memorial site has been fertilized, seeded, and rolled and the cooperation of the public is asked in keeping children and adults off the ground until the grass gets a good start. A letter was read from the Governor-General's secretary saying that he would come to unveil the plaque in memory of the Second World War dead in the last two weeks of October or the first week in November.

Shrubs and trees to provide a background for the Memorial itself, will arrive soon and will be planted by a Department of Highways crew from Ottawa, under the supervision of Mr. Ed. Henry.

A part of DVA legislation was read at the meeting concerning children of men killed in the Second War. Under the "War Orphans Educational Assistance Act" they are entitled to attend university and all tuition fees are paid by DVA and the student receives an allowance of $25 per month. Any mothers of children who were left as war orphans, are invited to contact our service officer, Comrade Larry Sicard, for further particulars.

It was also pointed out that any children of living veterans who are finishing Grade XIII, may apply for a Legion scholarship valued at $400. The objective this year is to provide at least 40 scholarships throughout Ontario.

Condolences were expressed in the recent deaths of Comrade Ed. Duross and William Guindon.

Captain Roy Mosher And Crew Are Considered 'Lost At Sea'

(The Saint John, N.B., Evening Times-Globe, April 25th)

The finding of a badly damaged lifeboat and door, identified as belonging to the tug Glenfield, has established in the opinion of the owners, Kent Line Limited, that the Glenfield and all five members of the crew have been lost at sea.

The Glenfield left Liverpool, N.S., for Saint John on Sunday, April 7th, and was due here on Monday, April 8th. When the tug did not report here on Monday, a search by sea and air was instituted and carried on for approximately a week.

Three RCAF planes, an Irving Oil Company plane and the department of fisheries vessel, "Cygnus", took part in the search which was hampered by poor weather conditions.

Only when the lifeboat and door were found 50 miles south-east of Shelburne, N.S., and identified as belonging to the 110-ton tug, was the search, which covered 40,000 square miles, abandoned.

But hope dies hard. Members of the families of the five men still feel that they may be heard from. In some instances memorial services are being arranged, other families are still waiting.

They were not the tug's usual crew. Captain Roy M. Mosher, 381 Greenhead Road, Lancaster, marine superintendent for Kent Lines since 1947, had gone to Liverpool to bring the Glenfield back here after re-plating and re-fitting.

Captain Mosher was born at

Easter Seal Results Slightly Better This Year

Latest figures show the Easter Seal campaign take in Glengarry was a shade better than last year's collections. The canvass was conducted by Alexandria Lions Club and campaign chairman James Graham said today the total realized was $948.75.

Half of this will go to the Ontario Society for Crippled Children with headquarters at Toronto, and the other half will be used by the local club for direct help to handicapped children of the district.

"Expenses were kept to a minimum by using volunteer help and doing a lot of leg work", said Mr. Graham. The local high school commercial classes addressed envelopes for the appeal by mail and wherever possible receipts were given to those who donated by personal delivery rather than by mail. Almost the only expense was the cost of postage stamps, said the campaign chairman.

Separate School For Williamstown

Williamstown will get its first separate school, a $60,000 building with three classrooms, in time for the next school term.

The school will serve St. Mary's Parish and will be staffed by two Sisters of the Sacred Heart community of Ottawa, and one lay teacher. It will accommodate 80 pupils.

Initial construction work was begun a month ago by the contractor, J. A. Saive of Cornwall. The building was designed by a Cornwall architect, Lucien Leblanc, and will be of cement block construction. It is being erected at the rear of the church.

As yet no school board has been named. J. A. Deschamps of Alexandria is inspector of bilingual schools for the area and Rev. A. L. MacDonald is pastor of the parish.

McCrimmon-Born DM Morrison, Dies

Donald Malcolm Morrison, a native of McCrimmon and retired member of the Civil Service at Ottawa, died in Kingston, at the age of 73.

He was a son of the late John Morrison and the late Sarah McIntosh of McCrimmon, where he served his apprenticeship as a blacksmith before attending McGill University. Mr. Morrison graduated in 1914 with a degree of Bachelor of Arts and then studied at the McCormick Theological Seminary in Chicago.

A veteran of World War I, he served in Canada, England and France as an officer of the 59th Stormont and Glengarry Regiment, 154th Battalion and later with the Flying Corps, returning to Canada in 1918. Mr. Morrison joined the teaching staff of the Kemptville Agricultural School following a period of study at the Ontario College, Guelph, after the war. He served on the Kemptville Library Board at that time.

Mr. Morrison joined the Department of Immigration and Colonization in Ottawa a few years later. Upon his retirement from the Civil Service in 1945 he was an inspector with the Atlantic Division of the Immigration Branch of the Department of Mines and Resources. For many years he was an elder and trustee of St. Paul's Presbyterian Church and a member of Mount Zion Lodge, AF & AM, No. 28, GRC. He was married in Sarnia in 1921 to the former Jacquetta Gardiner, who survives.

Also surviving are a son, Donald Ewan of Port Credit; a brother, Norman J. of McCrimmon, and a sister, Miss Janet Morrison.

Funeral was held from the late residence to St. Paul's Presbyterian Church, Rev. Louis L. deGroot officiating. Interment was in Kemptville public cemetery.

Legion At Funeral

Alexandria Legion Branch was represented at the funeral of Fred Calvank, a veteran of World War I, held to Vankleek Hill Monday afternoon. Chas. Dear, Alexandria, was in charge of the parade and Legion ritual was read at the graveside by Donald J. MacLeod.

Aged 69, Mr. Calvank enlisted at Vankleek Hill, February 15th, 1916, and went overseas with the 154th Battalion. He died at Dalkeith, Saturday.

Second Scholarship Won In Studies Toward Doctorate

For the second year in a row, Gerard Rosaire Hebert of Lancaster, has won an Ontario Research Foundation Scholarship valued at $1,900. For the past year, the young man, the son of Albra Hebert, South Lancaster, has been making a special study of molecular spectroscopy at the University of Western Ontario in London, Ont., under the same scholarship, which he won last year.

Mr. Hebert is studying for his doctorate in science. He already holds a master's degree from the University of Western Ontario. He received his early education at Lancaster Separate School and Williamstown High School. Later he received a Bachelor of Science degree from University of Ottawa. He afterwards followed a course at Ontario Teachers' College in Toronto, returned to teach at the University of Ottawa high school, then travelled to British Columbia where he began work on his master's degree.

Barbers Up Hair Cuts To 75 Cents

Customers who walk into Alexandria's barber shops next week are going to think they're taking a trimming; that is, until they get used to the new prices.

Hair cuts went up to 75 cents from 60 cents and shaves from 35 to 60 cents in the new price schedule announced today by four local barbers. Children up to 12 years old will have to pay 50 cents for the cut that used to cost 35 cents.

And no cracks about "clip joints" please, says one of these tonsorial artists; with today's cost of living, the barbers figure they're shaving it close enough even at 75 cents.

Few Teacher Vacancies In County

Few teacher resignations are expected in the inspectorates of H. L. Welch and J. A. Deschamps of Alexandria.

Mr. Welch knows of four teachers in his public schools who will have to attend Ottawa Teachers' College next year, and one other teacher who is resigning. There are 74 teachers in his area.

Mr. Deschamps has learned of one resignation, and possibly another, among the 131 teachers who staff the separate schools in his inspectorate. Ten of the teachers in his area will take summer courses during the vacation.

Will Be Seen Tonight On TV

Glen Robertson residents are following with interest the TV career of Joan Tetzel, who spent her summers there as a child. Miss Tetzel who made her debut in American TV just a few weeks ago, will be seen again tonight (Thursday) in a leading role on "Climax", and is also scheduled to appear Thursday, May 9th, on "Playhouse 90".

Riceville Farmer Announces Will Seek Tory Candidature

Osie Villeneuve, M.P.P., Glengarry, Also Rumored A Strong Possible Choice At Next Tuesday's Convention

Gerald Rowe, a well-known Riceville farmer, announced Tuesday he will seek the Progressive Conservative candidature at the convention set for next Tuesday night in Vankleek Hill.

Several other names have been mentioned, the most persistent rumors linking that of Osie F. Villeneuve, M.P.P., Glengarry, with the Tuesday nominations. Mr. Villeneuve has not yet announced any intention of seeking the federal seat.

Fernand Guindon, who carried the Conservative colors in 1953, is another possibility, though he is now a resident of Cornwall. At the time of the last campaign he was living in his native Apple Hill. Others mentioned as possible candidates are: Maurice Thoret, deputy-reeve of Hawkesbury, and Rosaire Gascon, mayor of that town.

Not A Mention Of The Tories

It seems the Tory threat in Glengarry-Prescott is not taken too seriously by Liberal officials.

Nine speakers were heard at Monday's Liberal nomination meeting in Vankleek Hill, but not once was there a reference to Progressive Conservative people or principles.

Armouries To Be Seen May 22nd

Alexandria Armouries is fresh as paint, ship-shape and almost ready to meet the public, says Capt. H. A. Stinson, and the date for the Open House is Wednesday evening, May 22nd.

For the past several weeks, the Armouries has been in the hands of the painters, and the results are very good.

This is the first time in years the public has been invited to see the local militia in training. Col. Joe Donihue of Cornwall is expected, and the Company will be showing off its new 30-calibre Browning medium machine-guns which recently replaced the Vickers MMG.

Cadet Inspection Next Thursday

Cadets at Glengarry District High School will parade for reviewing officers from Kingston next Thursday, May 9th, when about 70 boys and 80 girls will take part in the annual inspection.

Something new has been added this year and Alexandrians were given a preview when the students paraded down Main street Wednesday evening. They were preceded by the skirl of the pipes, played by Cadet Pipe-Major Sgt. Robert MacCrimmon, and if there was an extra spring in their step the pipes probably put it there. A drummer is also keeping the time. The drums were played by Drummer Sergeant John Plamadior.

The public is invited to view the displays of drill, rifle, Bren gun, map reading and physical training, the latter by the girls' "B" Company, which will be carried out in the afternoon at the school. Prizes will be given for the most efficient officer, NCO and cadet in both companies, and for the smartest cadet on parade.

There is also hot competition this year for the Lions Club Shield, awarded to the best Company, which has been won for the past two years by the girls. The boys are understandably eager to win it back.

IT'S OUR OPINION

Heading For The Top?

Hon. Lionel Chevrier, president of the St. Lawrence Seaway Authority, has resigned that post to return to the political life he knew at cabinet level for so many years when he represented neighboring Stormont in the House of Commons. For the moment he is taking one of Prime Minister St. Laurent's posts as president of the Federal Cabinet Council and will undoubtedly receive a Cabinet posting if and when a Liberal Government reshuffles its portfolios following the election.

Mr. Chevrier will run in one of the Montreal ridings which is being made available to him.

The official announcement came as no surprise, for it followed months of conjecture on just such a move by Mr. Chevrier. What is surprising is the insistence with which officialdom keeps denying reports which later are found to be fact. It seems to be the practice of politicians to persist in denying these projected plans right up to the moment they feel is opportune for an official announcement. It may be good politics, but such playing with the truth tends to discredit the word of everyone connected with government.

Mr. Chevrier is giving up a very soft sit as president of the Seaway Authority, a post that was to provide him with a quarter-million dollars in salary over a ten-year period. We doubt he would return to the hurly-burly of politics if he was not being groomed for the mantle St. Laurent now wears.

That is only a guess, of course, and we expect it would be officially denied.

TOO TRUSTING

Frequently when perusing the monthly reports submitted by the police department to the Town Council we have been moved to marvel on reading the number of doors found open by police patrolling the business section at night. It indicates, to say the least, an amazing faith on the part of the businessman in the honesty of his fellowman. — Pembroke (Ont.) Observer.

DRIVE SENSIBLY

Editorial comment on traffic accidents is continual and varied in the newspapers of Ontario. A careful perusal of the subjects most frequently dealt with leads to the conclusion that plain lack of common sense lies behind most accidents. — Trenton (Ont.) Courier-Advocate.

VALUABLE BUSINESS

The lament in our community is that we need industry if we are to survive. Industry is not always a matter of huge factories vomiting smoke and erupting workmen when the whistle blows. It is also the vision of men who utilize nature's gifts to attract dollars and give to the traveller the pleasure of a memory to take home to his every-day grind. — Minnedosa (Man.) Tribune.

Look, Ma, No Sideburns!

(The Durham Chronicle)

Last Saturday night on television, we saw a young singer named Pat Boone. Perhaps the teenagers know who we mean. But he was a big shock to us.

For one thing he had his hair combed and cut. Straight, clean part in it, he had, and it was cut in the neat old-fashioned way. No duck tail, no sideburns, no crew cut, no up sweep or down sweep or side sweep. Just cut.

His face looked freshly shaven and scrubbed. His ears were indubitably clean. His teeth gleamed.

And his suit was pressed. Yes, it was. Sharp crease in the pants, all the buttons on and done up. He wore a trim looking sports jacket and pants that fitted him even at the knees. He wore a white shirt with a neat collar and a plain tie. No sequins, no gold satin weskit.

The boy was wearing white shoes, we'll admit, but Saturday was a warm day.

What really hit our middle-aged heart, though, was the white handkerchief neatly tucked in his coat pocket!

Then he sang — and we could understand the words. And he stood still and his legs weren't made of jelly. He let somebody else play the accompaniment, there wasn't a guitar in sight. And when he finished, he was still as well-groomed as when he started.

There's hope. The teenagers squealed their heads off for him!

VULNERABLE TRADE

Last year, three-fifths of Canada's exports went to the United States and three-quarters of our imports were from that country. Are we putting all our eggs in one basket? ... Greater trade between Britain and the Commonwealth would serve as a safeguard. — Picton (Ont.) Gazette.

WASTING ASSET

GARLIC'S FOR MANGY CATS

Last week we offered sample bottles of onion juice and garlic juice, which we had received from their U.S. maker, to the first housewives who asked for them. We got rid of the garlic juice on Friday, but we don't think the guy who sent us those samples would feel too happy to learn what it is intended for.

She's going to use it to cure her cat of the mange.

"If you're still trying to get rid of that garlic juice, I'll be glad to take it," she told us, and just for something to say we asked, "do you use much garlic in your cooking?"

"Oh, it's not for cooking I want it. My cat has the mange and I've had an awful time crushing up garlic leaves to feed her as a cure," she rejoined. "I figure this juice will be just what the doctor ordered."

If this garlic juice serves the purpose perhaps its producer can open up a new source of sales. He could approach the Feline Society of America, that is so dedicated to the welfare of pussy, with some such slogan as "Give Garlic Juice To Your Mangy Cat".

There should be some such demand for the onion juice, too. Maybe some budding young actress could use it as a tear-jerker when she is called on to open the floodgates. A few whiffs of onion juice concealed in her hankie might be just the thing to bring tears to her eyes.

The stuff doesn't appear to be wanted by local cooks. Maybe they're afraid they'll add too many dashes to their stew and bring the head of the house to the point of crying into his plate.

Fish grow until they die — so do fish stories.

RIP TORN IS A NATURAL
"Can Rip Torn Succeed?" That heading caught our eye and we were well into the article before we realized it was just another of those promotional pieces the public relations men of stage and screen dash off in order to earn their salaries. But the question still intrigued us.

From the tenor of the article it seems Rip Torn is a Texan who insists on keeping his own name, no matter how awful corny it sounds, and despite the objections of New York's legitimate theatre hierarchy, who feel the public won't be able to stomach it. "My family name is Torn," he is quoted as insisting, "and folk called both my dad and my uncle Rip; I was known as Little Rip."

If Rip and Torn weren't so obviously allied we'd say ahead Rip; after all Rip is an improvement on your real first name, Elmore. And the trend in Hollywood today is to such many nomenclatures as Rock and Tab and Touch. You won't be any worse off for a name, Rip, than one Gale Storm who sounds as exciting to be near as the vortex of a Hurricane Hazel.

In fact, Rip, we think you should stick to your guns. Some day Hollywood may decide to revive Gone With the Wind and what a break that will be for you. You'll be a natural to star in it. We can see your name in lights on the theatre marquee, "Gale Storm, Rip Torn — Gone With the Wind".

With a name like Rip Torn the guy is bound to break into the big time. Maybe he'll be our next Tarzan.

Where do people in Hades tell each other to go?

COULDN'T GET IT HERE
In a dairying county such as Glengarry, farmers still need fencing and we were rather dismayed to have a fellow tell us he had searched all over town for wire fencing without success and finally had been forced to go to a neighboring town to have his needs filled.

Perhaps this was a special type of fencing the guy was in search of. There may be slight demand for it. But the fact remains, he was able to find what he wanted in another town.

This struck us as definitely not good for the reputation of our town as a trading centre. And it's not the first time we have heard such complaints from people who have come here to shop and found they would have to seek elsewhere.

In this changing world, items that were popular yesterday may be dead stock today. It must be difficult for the retailer to know what will be in demand tomorrow, and few are in a position to stock up on. (Continued on Page 3)

Are Trading Stamps Adding To Your Costs?

Are trading stamps simply another racket? And if they are, should not something be done to protect not only the consumer who eventually must pay, but as well the merchant who does not want to handle them, but feels compelled to do so because his opposition is using them as bait?

We read recently that there are now so many types of stamps being proffered there is the danger their originators will run out of colors. Just a few weeks ago a not-too-convincing promoter approached us. We forget what color of stamps he was suggesting we give with every subscription, but it seems the color is not too important. If what we read about these trading stamps is true, the same bunch of promoters may have stamps of many hues and varying nomenclature to create competition among the retailers and make their use more certain.

The trading stamp gimmick is perfect for the issuers of stamps, we are told in an article by one retailer who has been through the trading stamp mill. He is flatly against them. They cost the merchant some 3 1/2 per cent of his gross profit, he claims, they are a nuisance and they benefit nobody except those who supply the stamps to the merchants.

That is a retailer's way of describing the racket. Might we suggest that if the stamps are hitting the merchant that hard he must pass on the cost to his customers or soon go out of business. There may be some merchants absorbing this extra charge, but in almost every instance, we believe, it is the consumer, the buyer, who is paying the shot for the trading stamp gimmick.

Up in Warton, the gateway to the Bruce Peninsula, the local Chamber of Commerce has decided to try and close its gate to trading stamps. After studying the problem, Warton's Chamber has decided to ask all merchants now using stamps to drop them when their present contracts have expired. All others will be asked to refrain from using them.

That sounds to us like the move of a wide-awake Chamber of Commerce, and our own Board of Trade might emulate it without loss of goodwill. We know more than one local merchant is now using stamps against his better judgment, simply because the other fellow is doing it.

There are more than enough taxes today on everything we buy. They at least go into the public treasury, presumably to keep our government solvent. If trading stamps are adding to our cost of living to enrich a few smart promoters—and we believe they are serving just that purpose—then they should be stamped out. Public opinion, expressed to those now issuing trading stamps, could quickly bring results.

Help Find The Answer To Cancer

Those who are cancer-conscious have the opportunity to play a part in the fight to curb this dread killer. The newly organized Cancer Committee for this area is now seeking funds to carry on the work of the Canadian Cancer Society in this locality.

Early detection can be a life saver, and an important activity of the Cancer Society is in making more of us conscious of the danger, aware of the signs and of the need for early diagnosis. The money raised by the local committee will be used to remind all of us through education of the necessity to be on the watch for symptoms of the disease. It will go for treatments, dressings, transportation and research.

No canvass is being made in this area. The local committee was organized a bit too late to participate in the national drive being held this week. But contributions are being received in some Alexandria and Lancaster business places displaying the Cancer campaign posters. All who wish to help this cause are asked to leave their donations at one of these centres.

Weekly Editing Takes Its Toll

"The Weekly Rat-Race Takes Its Toll", is the way a fellow weekly editor phrases it as he notes with regret that friend Colonel F. J. Picking has been forced to retire as editor of The Aurora Banner after suffering a severe heart attack. Colonel Picking appears to be on the road to recovery but his doctors have advised him to retire from the arduous duties of editing one of Ontario's top weekly newspapers.

"Pick" was a fellow director of ours in the Ontario Weekly Newspapers Association, had but recently been named 2nd vice-president as he approached the top spot. And he was well-equipped to take over the reins of leadership. A big man in body and spirit, he was knowledgeable and fluent of tongue and had the best interests of the weekly press always uppermost in heart and mind.

His genial presence at Ontario Weeklies' meetings will be missed by all his fellow editors.

That term "weekly rat-race", used to describe the life of a weekly editor, may not be too far off the beam at that. The small-town publisher who is striving to turn out a good paper from the editorial standpoint, and at the same time turn a profit, often finds himself virtually chasing his tail. One week's publication date finds him already preparing for next week's issue while trying to find time to attend to myriad other details of management. The same may hold true for many other lines of business, but with weekly publishers it is a case of the weeks flowing one into the other until one realizes with a start that another year has spun by.

And those years are taking their toll. News of Colonel Picking's serious heart attack followed by only a few days the word that Fern Workman, publisher of The Winchester Press, had died of a coronary at 55, while holidaying for his health in Florida. The easy, relaxed life on a weekly, envisioned by daily newspapermen since time immemorial may once have been, but that was before Henry Ford and two World Wars brought a faster tempo to every field of business. At times, it appears, all of us are engaged in a rat race and there can be no winners.

But that is only when the course seems to have too many obstacles. Much of the time we of the weeklies find ourselves breezing along, taking the hurdles in stride and getting a lot of satisfaction in striving for the goal of a better life, not only for ourselves but all our fellow citizens. There are compensations which may not be felt in other fields of endeavor.

And we trust an old friend of the weeklies will experience them. Don Fairbairn, he who comes over the airwaves each Sunday broadcasting "Neighborly News", has succumbed to the lure of the small town. Don is now editor of the weekly Sutton Reporter. He has forsaken turbulent Toronto for life in the "grass roots". He will continue his CBC weekly broadcast of news from the little places outside the cities and it is to be hoped not even his voice will crack under the strain of knowing the world of the weeklies from the inside.

First Lacrosse Game In Gardens Set For Saturday, May 18th

Alexandria lacrosse fans will see their first game of the season in Glengarry Gardens here on Saturday night, May 18th.

Toronto's Balm Beach team will take on Cornwall in the first game played at this end of the province in the eight-team loop. Jacques Lalonde of town is almost a sure starter with the Friendly City team and there is a possibility that another Alexandrian who has played senior lacrosse, Arthur MacLaren, will also be with the Cornwall squad.

Gardens manager Alex DaPrato said he understands there will be no entry this year from the St. Regis Reservation, although some members of their old team will be playing for Cornwall.

Roller Skating To Have Try-Out In The Gardens

Roller skating gets rolling in Alexandria next week when the Glengarry Gardens management will give three free nights of skating during which they hope to gauge the popularity of the sport here.

The Gardens will be open to the rollers from 8 to 10 p.m. on Wednesday, Friday and Saturday, May 8th, 10th and 11th. At least one local store, Pigeon's Handy Andy Associate store, is stocking the skates should anybody be interested in investing in a pair.

If the sport catches on, Mr. DaPrato plans to devote two or three nights a week to skating.

To Prepare Courts For Play

Three young town men, Claude Laporte, Hubert Dubois and Jack Flax, have been asked to look after the preparation of the tennis court here for the coming season of activity. They were appointed at a meeting of Alexandria Tennis Club held Monday night in the K. of C. Rooms. An executive will be elected at a later meeting.

The club plans a membership drive when the season gets under way.

New Cribbage King Crowned

Ronald McDonald copped the cribbage championship of Alexandria Legion Branch last night in an elimination series which followed the monthly meeting. His opponent in the final round was Hugh D. MacCuaig, who managed to split the first two games but dropped the deciding one.

Seven members of Alexandria Lions Club motored to Smiths Falls last Wednesday to attend the District Convention of Lions Clubs. President John Grant, J. D. Graham, Ed. Dupuis, Sam Brunet, Ray Periaid, Doug. Baxter and Norman MacDonald made the trip.

Footballers To Meet May 14th

Glengarry's football fields are nice and dry and ready for this year's games, which officials hope will be as keenly contested and as well attended as last year's. The year 1956 was one of the best in memory, and there was a sharp edge on the rivalry as the season drew to a close that made for some of the finest matches in years.

Plans for the '57 season will be laid at a meeting called by president D. M. McCuaig and secretary Morfin Campbell for Tuesday night, May 14th, in the Hub Restaurant.

Maxville is expected to have an entry this year, said Mr. Campbell, replacing Greenfield, which will not field its own team this year. The other three are Lochiel, last year's champs, McCrimmon and Glen Sandfield.

he was the Liberal candidate for Prescott in the recent provincial election, Mr. Bruneau had done nothing to help the party cause, had been more friendly to his opponent in fact. Glengarry - Prescott had been badly neglected in the Commons during the eight years Mr. Bruneau had been Member, he declared, and it was time a true Liberal was elected.

"I would like to let my name stand", G. G. Aubry of Alexandria, declared, "but recent illness forces me to take it easy. At some time in the future, however, I hope to accept." We see here tonight, democracy at work, he noted; the other convention was a one-man show, not truly organized. This is the way Liberals should choose their candidate if we are to have freedom of choice.

W. J. Major recalled his long years of organizing Liberal conventions in Glengarry and stated this was a memorable one. The moment we allow one person or a group to come in and take over through fitness we are losing our democracy. Guard your freedom well, he warned, choose one whom you are assured will represent all of you at Ottawa in a responsible manner.

Mr. Major briefly recalled how J. C. Allen, now president of the Ontario Liberal Association, had come to this very hall in 1953 in order to try and amalgamate the Liberal associations of the two counties into one. Mr. Bruneau would not co-operate then, and Mr. Allen had had no hesitation in recognizing this association whose officers are on this platform tonight. Now he has apparently done a complete about-face and he is shown as a person whose word can carry little weight.

After much consideration, stated Mr. Major, I have decided pressure of work on my chicken farm will not permit me to become a candidate, and I am leaving the field open to younger men who have shown themselves sincere and honest; worthy of your support. Mr. Major was paid a warm tribute for his long years of service.

Noel Bazinet withdrew his name and urged all to support the choice of this convention on June 10th.

A warm reception was tendered Rene Bertrand as he rose to review his early years and ask for support of the delegates. Looking back on Canada's development under Liberal rule, he could find little fault with the party, but felt there was room for improvement of the lot of the farmer. He pledged his warm support of any move to improve the agricultural outlook should he be elected to represent this riding.

The vote by delegates was then taken and announcement of Mr. Bertrand's victory was quickly made unanimous by Mr. Dubois.

A telegram from Rene Beaudoin, Speaker of the House, was read to the meeting by Mr. Pilon. He regretted his inability to be present, but wished the convention "all success possible".

Noel Berthiaume is 2nd Vice-President for the Eastern Ontario Liberal Federation.

MR. ALLEN stated very firmly that "the only way one can support Louis St-Laurent in Glengarry-Prescott is to vote for M. Raymond Bruneau, Official Candidate. Mr. Bruneau has the support of the Eastern Ontario Liberal Association; the Ontario Liberal Association; the National Liberal Association, of which Mr. McTavish is the President. Hon. S. Garson, Minister of Justice, presided at the Liberal Convention which chose Mr. Bruneau as the Official Candidate. "I was present at that Convention", added Mr. Allen. Mr. Bruneau was the unanimous choice of the Liberals belonging to the Association recognized as Official . . . what is so wrong with that? That Convention was duly held in a regular manner in the presence of Senator Bradette; Mr. Jean-Paul St-Laurent, son of the Prime Minister, and Mr. Bourque, M.P., Mayor for Outremont.

At a later date, Hon. Mr. Gregg, Minister of Labour, attended a meeting on behalf of Mr. Bruneau in Hawkesbury. Rt. Hon. Mr. Gardiner, Minister of Agriculture, gave his wholehearted support to Mr. Bruneau at Alexandria. Hon. Senator Fournier also supported Mr. Bruneau. The Prime Minister himself sent a letter to Mr. Bruneau congratulating him for having been chosen as Official Candidate at the Convention and gave him his best wishes.

Hon. Senator Connolly will attend a Liberal meeting on behalf of Mr. Bruneau at Alfred this coming Friday.

MR. ALLEN stated that Mr. Bruneau will be among the Members who will return Mr. St-Laurent to Ottawa, June 10th next.

Messrs. Gerald Sangster, President of the Township of Lancaster, in the Glengarry-Prescott Liberal Association, gave his wholehearted support to Mr. Bruneau. Mr. J. Hughes of the Young Liberal Association spoke highly on behalf of Mr. Bruneau. Mr. Jules Lapensee, President of the Pulp and Paper Makers Union, also stated that he was proud to belong to the supporters of Mr. Bruneau. Mr. Alfred Sloan, President of the Federation of Agriculture, said that Mr. Bruneau has always been keenly interested in the agricultural cause.

Mr. Bruneau stated that he will make it his duty, as in the past, to advocate help for the Farmers; Help to the Working class and Assistance to Youth. He gave a resume of his work in the House of Commons since two Parliaments and said that he will continue to devote himself and carry sound politics.

The President, Mr. Noel Berthiaume, said that he was most satisfied with the meeting and asked everyone to continue to work for true Liberalism.

Bride Is Former Alexandrian

HUNT—MacDONALD

A very pretty Spring wedding was solemnized Monday, April 22nd, in St. Columban's Church, Cornwall, when Theresa Barbara MacDonald became the bride of Leo Joseph Hunt of Berwick. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Duncan W. MacDonald of Cornwall, formerly of Alexandria, and Mr. Hunt is the son of Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Hunt.

Rev. Donald Bernard MacDougald officiated at the ceremony, and the couple was attended by Miss Florence MacDonald of Coteau, Que., and by the groom's brother, Mr. Charles Hunt.

Spring flowers decorated the altar, and soloist during the Nuptial Mass was Mr. Sid Lamoureux of Cornwall.

The bride wore a becoming floor-length gown of Swiss - embroidered nylon with net and satin underskirts, a fitted bodice and pointed sleeves. The bodice was trimmed with iridescent sequins and featured a Queen Anne collar. Her full circular veil of French tulle was gathered to a tiara headdress of pleated tulle and iridescent sequins. The bridal bouquet was a cascade of pink roses attached to a white prayer-book.

The bridesmaid was in a street-length dress of aqua and mauve lace and net similar in design to that of the bride, and she wore a small picture hat of matching net and lace. She carried a cascade of yellow carnations.

As the wedding party left the church, they were piped out by Piper George Montgomery of Cornwall. A dinner was served to 150 guests at MacDonell's Inn following the ceremony. Alex MacDonald of Alexandria, was master of ceremonies, and during the meal guests enjoyed pipe selections by Mr. Montgomery and violin music by "Little Jack" McDonald, accompanied by Mrs. Walter McCuaig. Entertainment was also provided by John Angus MacDonald and Duncan MacDonald on the violin with Marjorie Girdwood, Audrey McDonald and Mrs. McCuaig at the piano. The bride danced a Highland schottische with her father, and Miss Mickey Dale danced the Seann Triubhas, to the delight of the guests.

The young couple later left on a wedding trip to Niagara and Windsor, via Buffalo and Syracuse. They will make their home in Berwick.

Out-of-town guests were from Detroit, St. Catharines, Toronto, Brantford, Ottawa, Montreal, Alexandria, Dalhousie, Berwick, Finch, Stittsville, Baltimore.

A NEW COW

Longed for:
A cow of modern make,
That milks five days for leisure's sake,
That sleeps on Saturday; snores on Sunday,
And starts again afresh on Monday.

Wished for:
A herd that knows the way
To wash each other day by day;
That never troubles to excite us
With chills and fever and mastitis.

Sighed for:
A new and better breed
That makes less grooming and less feed,
That has the reason, wit, and wisdom
To use a seat and flushing system.

Prayed for:
Each weekend long and clear,
Less work to do from year to year,
And cows that reach production's peak,
All in a five-day working week.

Looked for:
Officials by the mob,
To guide the farmers at their job,
To show the stupid breeders how
To propagate a five-day cow.

TOURING VANKLEEK HILL

(Written for The Glengarry News by T. J. HUGHES)

(Intended for Last Issue)
Easter weekend saw a great number of visitors both out and in to the Hill. All visitors to town were busy making the rounds to friends and relatives reviewing old times. It would be impossible to list the names of the people who visited here, as the number is so large it would take about a full column.

The little girl was telling her teacher about her baby teeth coming out. One tooth was loose and three had already come out. "Pretty soon I'll be running on the rims", she said.

Dr. Paul, town vet., had his car badly smashed last week when he was hit by a car turning onto Highway 34 from a sideroad at Greenlane. The doc's car was completely demolished, but luckily neither person was hurt in the collision.

The little girl came home talking about Moses and the Pills. Mother was quite disturbed and asked, "What pills are you talking about?" "Well", said the little girl, "our teacher told us that Moses went up on the mountain and came down with the bunch of tablets!"

Home avenue is badly dug up this week. A large shovel is doing the damage to install a new tile for drainage purposes. This is the street that the new Co-op building is under construction on; Farmer's Supply is also located on this street.

The Life reporter was fascinated with his latest subject, a moonshiner. "Tell me", said the reporter, "don't the revenue officers you've killed haunt you?" "Yep stranger, somewhat", answered the subject. "But not nearly so much as the ones I ain't killed."

Chief Ed. Bernique had the speed trap out Easter Saturday, and I am sure he trapped a few innocent souls who were doing plenty over the speed limit. Pretty soon the travellers into Vankleek Hill will realize that the speed limit will have to be observed.

Don't worry when you stumble. Remember, a worm is about the only thing that can't fall down.

Easter services were observed at all churches on the Hill, and all reports indicate that they were very well attended, which speaks for it-

A duet entitled "When I Survey the Wondrous Cross" was sung by Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Greene.

The May meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Gordon Scott.

"The Old Rugged Cross" was sung by Mrs. Stanley McKay.

A vote of thanks was tendered the hostess for her kind invitation to hold the meeting in her home; and an enjoyable lunch was served. Hymn and prayer closed the meeting.

and the people of Vankleek Hill and the surrounding area.

One of the local boys went to rent a cottage near the lake this week and he asked, "Are there any mosquitoes here?" "None whatsoever", replied the agent, "those screens you see on the windows are just there to keep out the flying fish." I now have a cottage for the summer.
